53 Reported Dead In Boat Fire, Blast

Panic Blamed On Increasing Toll In Denmark Tragedy

HADERSLEV, Denmark (AP)—Eyewitnesses today blamed panic for increasing the death toll in an explosion and fire aboard an excursion boat. Some of the 53 victims perished in water so shallow that adults could have walked ashore.

One rescuing rowboat was capsized by panicky passengers. Some of those aboard the excursion boat —officials believe there were 94 passengers — escaped by leaping overboard into the park lake at this south Denmark resort after an engine room explosion set the vessel ablaze Wednesday. Among those who escaped were mothers with babes in arms.

The skipper of the 45-foot wooden excursion boat Damende, injured and unable to stem the panic, beached his craft. It burned out within an hour.

A weeping young man said he and his wife jumped into the water when the ship caught fire. His wife had managed to grab a life belt. En route to shore, he said, his wife gave the life belt to a screaming mother who was trying to keep herself and her baby afloat. Then his wife disappeared.

Fourteen of the survivors were hospitalized with burns. Some, including Capt. Hans Riistofte, were in critical condition.

Survivors said Capt. Riistofte tried vainly to calm the passengers and reach the lifebelts. While flames shot out of the engine room the panicky crowd beat him back, and he returned to the wheel.

Some foreign tourists were among the passengers. But there was no indication that any Americans were among the passengers.

Police said there may have been more than 90 persons aboard. They appealed to all survivors who had not reported in to do so.

It was Denmark's second maritime disaster within six months and the second disastrous fire in Scandinavia in three weeks.

In January the Danish passenger-cargo liner Hans Hedtoft hit an iceberg south of Greenland and vanished without a trace. Ninety-five persons perished.

Man Drowned While Testing New Aqualung

Palestine Navy Man Loses Life In Lake In Negley Vicinity

Navy Specialist Charles Ronald Herriott, 21, of East Palestine drowned in 12 feet of water at Gorby Lake along Route 170 north of Negley Wednesday afternoon while testing an aqualung.

Son of Kenneth Herriott of Neely Manor — president of the Herriott Trucking Co. — and Mrs. Mildred Herriott of 235 E. North Ave., the youth had purchased the underwater breathing device at Pittsburgh Monday.

The youth, home on leave from Norfolk, Va., and John Hartford, son of Atty. and Mrs. Robert Hartford of N. Market St., drove to the lake about two miles south of East Palestine about 12:30 for skin-diving.

Hartford said the other youth first went into the water at the shore for a check of the equipment, then had him row out on the lake, where he descended into the deep water.

After Herriott had been down for some time, bubbles coming to the surface stopped and Hartford began pounding with an oar on the bottom of the boat to get Herriott's attention. He dove in once, then James Feit of New Brighton, fishing with others nearby, went in, noticing Hartford's alarm, and brought Herriott up.

East Palestine firemen were called at 12:55 to bring oxygen equipment to the lake, and Dr. A. M. Baldwin and Dr. Charles Kissinger also went to the site. After revival efforts continued for almost two hours, the youth was pronounced dead at 2:45.

Columbiana County Coroner William Koloszi of Salem, who conducted an investigation and autopsy last night, ruled accidental drowning.

Sheriff Russell VanFossan took the oxygen tank and mask for further study.

Herriott was born Sept. 20, 1937, and was graduated in 1956 from East Palestine High School. He enlisted in the Navy after graduation, and was a clerk in a photographic unit of the intelligence service aboard the USS Chukawan, based at Norfolk. He had been home for about a week. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Beverly Ann Herriott, at home; a brother, Richard B. Herriott, at home, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colich of New Castle.

Services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 at the Centenary Methodist Church by the Rev. Herbert E. Massey, pastor. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Oliver Funeral Home anytime. The family will meet friends Friday night from 7 to 9.

Mercury May Near 89 Before Arrival Of Rain

The thermometer is scheduled to climb to a high of 84-89 degrees today, but scattered showers are expected late this afternoon and tonight to help bring relief, the Ohio weatherman said.

Cooler weather is expected by late afternoon, the forecaster said. It will be partly cloudy and cooler tonight and Friday. The overnight low will be near 60.

Bender Faces Quizzing On Teamster Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. George H. Bender faces today a challenge of his statement that he received neither political support nor money from the Teamsters Union in his 1954 election campaign.

The Senate rackets probers, who heard Bender volunteer the statement Wednesday, invited him back to reply to affidavits from two Teamsters officials who said the union switched its support to Bender that year.

The affidavits said the switch was made on orders from William Presser, a top Ohio union official then under investigation by a House subcommittee which Bender headed.

Bender was a Republican member of the House from Ohio for 14 years. In 1954, he defeated Democrat Thomas Burke for the senate seat of the late Robert A. Taft, but was defeated when he sought reelection in 1956.

He since has been hired by Teamster President James R. Hoffa to investigate corruption within the union.

$6 Million More Set Up For Super Dam Project

An appropriation of $6,800,000 more to continue construction of the Ohio River "super dam" at Stratton was contained in a measure for construction and planning of water projects which was approved Wednesday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The measure sets up funds for work in the fiscal year which started July 1. It already has been given approval by the House.

Strike Over Prices

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP)—Some 300,000 Saar workers staged a one-hour strike today to protest soaring prices that have followed the return of the Saarland from French to German economic control. Labor union leaders charged that merchants are asking 10 to 20 per cent more for their goods than elsewhere in West Germany.

Kozlov Tour Seen Running Out Of Steam

Chicago Thousands Ignore Visiting Red Amid Heavy Traffic

CHICAGO (AP) — The current Soviet traveling salesman tour in the United States appeared today to be running out of steam and enthusiasm.

As he did elsewhere, First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov got along famously with some of the capitalists.

But the proletariat—the people the Communists invariably call call the "toiling masses" — continued to greet his presence with a tremendous surge of apathy. This lack of public interest has marked Kozlov's entire cross-country barnstorming journey.

If a Soviet documentary film shows Moscow audiences crowds lining the route of Kozlov's motorcade into Chicago, it will be because the arrival coincided with the evening homeward bound rush hour.

The crowds waited to cross streets through thick traffic. Two Soviet newsreel men, riding in an open convertible, trained their cameras on the street corners and tried, each by waving his free hand furiously, to persuade some in the crowd to wave back. This could provide at least a semblance of cheering masses for a documentary on the trip to be shown back home in the U.S.S.R.

But the film chronicle will have one item of propaganda value. On the way to the Inland Steel Co. plant in East Chicago, Ind. Wednesday, the motorcade passed a tiny, squalid slum of a few tumbled down tenements. The newsreel men trained their cameras hungrily on the slum and a few poorly dressed Negro children nearby. They had few such opportunities on the other legs of their cross country tour.

Kozlov himself was wined and dined Wednesday night at the South Shore Country Club. Edward Logelin, vice president of United

Sources Say Gov. Long Is 'Failing Fast'

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long, beset by grievious mental and physical ills, admittedly is failing in health. How badly and how rapidly was not quite clear.

Washington political sources heard Wednesday night that the 63-year-old governor was failing fast.

When several doctors hovered over Long and several relatives arrived, speculation arose that his condition was cirtical. Then Rep. Spencer Myrick emerged from the Mansion and explained a dentist was fitting a new set of false teeth for the governor, and the doctors were laughing and joking with Long.

The governor's condition, however, was viewed gravely.

Long was stricken with a mild heart failure July 1. Five days previous to that the governor had won freedom from a mental institution, after once having been diagnosed as insane.

He returned to the capital Monday.

Probe Fails To Trace Cause Of Knowles Fire

Either a lighted cigarette or spontaneous combustion were blamed today as the cause of a blaze which leveled a large storage shed at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Lee, assistant fire chief at Newell, said he and insurance officials held an investigation Wednesday night to determine the cause. Bales of straw were stored in the building and Lee said a carelessly-tossed cigarette or spontaneous combustion could have touched off the blaze.

Company officials said today no estimate has been made of the loss, although unofficial estimates have placed it at $40,000. Destroyed in the fire were the 100-foot-square shed, about 30 tons of straw, miscellaneous equipment and repair parts for machinery, a truck and a station wagon.

Ike Signs 2 Bills

House Floor Vote Postponed

School Funds Deadlock May Delay Adjournment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A House deadlock over distribution of more than 50 million dollars in school funds threatened today to shoot a hole in the Ohio Legislature's target date of July 16 for its last working session.

The school bill was scheduled for a House floor vote Wednesday, but was postponed at the request of minority Republicans for possible revision. Whether it appears on the calendar today is a question which may not be decided until the House actually convenes.

These were the other major actions of the Legislature in the hurly - burly as the Legislature drove toward a windup July 16, but wondered whether it is possible:

The House virtually completed action on a Senate bill to lift the present $65 ceiling on aid for the aged and aid for the needy blind.

The Senate adopted, with amendments, a House - approved resolution which would give Ohio voters a second crack next November at a proposed constitutional amendment to permit creation of metropolitan federations. A similar constitutional proposal was defeated last November.

The Senate also passed and virtually completed action on a bill to reorganize the administration and board of control of the state liquor department, giving the director more authority.

The Senate scheduled a floor vote today on a bill which practically would wipe out Ohio's controversial Sunday Blue Laws.

The Senate also was scheduled to consider sweeping House amendments in a bill to liberalize unemployment compensation benefits with indications that labor partisans will swallow a bitter pill and accept the changes.

Defeated bills also played a large part in the legislative picture.

The Senate refused to pass, 9-20, a bill by majority leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas) which would have required all Ohio hospitals to permit any licensed physician to treat a patient in a hospital whether or not he was a member of the staff.

The House defeated bills to:

Require a numbering system for all Ohio watercraft from rowboats to big power yachts.

Revise the working hour limitations for women in the communications field.

Establish uniform wages for workers on public projects.

The bill lifting the aid-for-aged ceiling may bring eligibility to 9,000 more persons. That is because the bill removes the traditional requirement that an applicant be a United States citizen and lowers Ohio residence requirements from five to three years of the last nine.

Sponsors of the Senate-approved bill estimated removal of the ceiling will increase average awards under the aid for aged program from $55 to $64.50 a month. The bill goes back to the Senate for expected acceptance of House amendments.

The average award to needy blind individuals will increase an average of $10 a month, according to estimates.

The House virtually completed legislative action on bills to:

Permit transfer of racing dates to another track when the track to which the dates were issued is unusable because of fire or other reasons.

Union Snubs New Appeal By President

McDonald Declares Midnight Deadline July 14 Will Stand

NEW YORK (AP)—Hopes dimmed today for averting a nationwide steel strike at midnight Tuesday.

The Steelworkers Union turned down a plea by President Eisenhower for an indefinite extension of the two-week strike truce already granted by the union.

David J. McDonald, the union's president, said he could not believe Eisenhower intended that "we negotiate forever" and stressed the midnight July 14 walkout deadline will stand.

In Washington, Sen Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), told the Senate that Eisenhower's appeal for an indefinite extension of steel negotiations without deadline or strike date is "the grossest kind of intervention in collective bargaining."

Negotiations have picked up a bit. Technical experts have been called in for discussions on complicated problems such as incentive pay rates. But there is no word that the industry has made any money offer.

The nation's top dozen steel firms, led by U.S. Steel Corp., have taken a position that any higher wage costs would spur a new round of inflation. They have spurned union argument that industry profits can finance a new pay hike and other contract changes.

Steelworkers now average $3.10 hourly earnings.

Eisenhower renewed at his Washington news conference Wednesday a plea first made June 27 that both sides continue negotiations indefinitely without any strike until a new contract agreement is reached.

The President said he had not called for the two-week truce, in which the union and companies extended contracts from July 1 through July 14, but wanted an indefinite extension.

McDonald said all labor negotiations must have a terminal point, and the one agreed upon by the industry and union is July 14.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, said the companies

Cindy Losing Her Punch In South Carolina

Hurricane-Force Winds Diminish; One Death Reported

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Tropical storm Cindy — a hurricane for only a few hours and hardly worth the designation — moved across the coast north of this old port city Wednesday night.

While the storm did little damage, it was responsible for one highway death. H. H. Higgins Jr. 41, a Georgetown, S.C., lawyer, was killed when his car hit a tree that was blown across U.S. 17 about 20 miles north of here where Cindy came ashore.

Cindy, born in the Atlantic 200 miles offshore Tuesday, at one time Wednesday reached hurricane force of 75 miles an hour.

However, by the time she hit the coast at Bull Bay, at 9:45 p.m. she was losing her punch.

Gusts of 60 to 70 miles an hour were recorded. Then the storm began moving inland and breaking up. Tides quickly began receding after reaching a peak two and a half feet above normal at Georgetown.

Just 15 minutes after the storm hit the coast, the Charleston Weather Bureau advised the thousands of evacuees from nearby beach areas that they could return safely to their homes.

The storm was expected to continue moving inland today, gradually diminishing. Squally weather and winds with gusts not exceeding 45 to 55 miles an hour were predicted for inland areas of both Carolinas.

British Leaders Push For Summit Parley

LONDON (AP) — Britain's two top political leaders are still plumping for a summit conference to iron out the West's differences with the Soviet Union.

Prime Minister Harold MacMillan and the opposition Laborite Chief, Hugh Gaitskell, joined in expressing hope again Wednesday night that the foreign ministers will clear the way for a heads-of-government meeting when they resume their talks in Geneva July 13.

Traffic Case Poses Enigma For City Court

If you are at the wheel of a vehicle being towed by another, can you be guilty of operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor?

That decision rested with Judge George L. Brokaw today after a St. Clair Ave. couple was arrested Wednesday night by a township constable, who charged the wife drove a pickup truck over a 10-foot embankment while towing a panel truck with her husband steering it.

George Philabaum, 68, and his wife, Thelma, 52, of 728 St. Clair Ave. entered not guilty pleas to the drunk driving counts.

Mrs. Philabaum admitted striking Constable Clarence Blosser with a hammer at her husband's urging, dislocating the little finger of the left hand. Philabaum pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

They were arrested after the pickup truck plunged over the embankment of their former property near Columbiana County Memor-

House Group Starts Toiling On Rights Bill

Will Play Part In How Long Congress Stays In Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee starts work today on a civil rights bill, the fate of which will play a large part in determining how long Congress stays in session this year.

Action on civil rights is one of the key items in the Democratic leadership's legislative program, which critics say has been dragging despite the party's heavy majorities in Congress.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) predicted the committee would approve a bill not later than next week. If he succeeds in that goal despite strong Southern opposition within the committee, it would open the way to lengthy battles in both the House and the Senate.

Briton Calls On U.S. To Join Commonwealth

LONDON (AP)—Lord Altincham suggested today that the United States join the British Commonwealth.

"From the way Chicago greeted the Queen," he said in an interview, "I can't see that American republicanism is terribly strong."

His Lordship is the 35-year-old peer who raised royalty lovers' blood pressures two years ago by criticizing the monarchy. He said, among other things, that some of Queen Elizabeth's speeches sounded as if they were delivered by a priggish schoolgirl.

Altrincham says once the United States joins the Commonwealth, "We'd have to take British out of the name. Otherwise we'd raise people's blood pressure in the States."

Space Dog All Right

MOSCOW (AP)—The second dog which made a flight into space a week ago aboard a Soviet rocket is all right, the government newspaper Izvestia said today. The newspaper was flooded with questions about the dog, "Snowflake," when photographs came out showing only the rabbit and the dog "Daring." Izvestia said Snowflake was undergoing further examinations when the photograph was taken.

10% Less Than Ike Asked

Senate Puts $3.5 Billion Limit In Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a foreign aid bill with a $3,543,320,000 price tag. That's about 10 per cent less than President Eisenhower asked.

The authorization measure merely sets the ceiling for foreign aid spending. The actual amount to be spent will be determined in a later appropriation bill.

Efforts to make further slashes in the amount asked by Eisenhower failed Wednesday in the final day of debate. All of the 383½ million dollars in cuts had been voted Tuesday.

Final action came after Eisenhower indicated at a news conference he might call Congress back into a special session later this year if his request was sliced too deeply. Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas joined Republicans in helping to fend off further reductions during the final debate.

The Senate measure allows $1,300,000,000 for military aid to Allies and 751½ millions in defense economic supports to help Allies maintain their troops. The rest is for various forms of economic aid.

The military provision is 300 million dollars less than the President request. The economic aid is 83½ million under what he asked.

The Senate total is only $720,000 above that voted by the House. Senate and House conferees plan to meet next week to settle the differences on where to apply the cuts.

The measure passed the Senate Wednesday night by a vote of 65-26 with the support of 39 Democrats and 26 Republicans. Eighteen Democrats and eight Republican senators voted against final passage.

Red Terrorist Bomb Kills 2 Americans In Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A Communist terrorist slipped into an American military billet 20 miles north of Saigon Wednesday night during a movie and exploded a bomb, killing two U.S. military advisers, himself and three South Vietnamese.

Another American officer was wounded, and two others escaped injury.

The wounded American was flown to Clark Field at Manila for treatment. A communique from the South Viet Nam government and the U.S. Embassy said his condition was not serious.

Following the bomb attack, other members of the terrorist band opened fire from outside the billet with small arms and automatic weapons, the communique said.

Vietnamese army guards returned the fire, "forcing the terrorists to flee to the nearby river from which direction they had come," the communique reported.

In Washington, the Army identified the American casualties as:

Wounded—Capt. Howard B. Boston, wife, Mrs. Ardys Allene Boston, Blairsburg, Iowa.

$6 Million More Set Up For Super Dam Project

An appropriation of $6,800,000 more to continue construction of the Ohio River "super dam" at Stratton was contained in a measure for construction and planning of water projects which was approved Wednesday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The measure sets up funds for work in the fiscal year which started July 1. It already has been given approval by the House.

Strike Over Prices

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP)—Some 300,000 Saar workers staged a one-hour strike today to protest soaring prices that have followed the return of the Saarland from French to German economic control. Labor union leaders charged that merchants are asking 10 to 20 per cent more for their goods than elsewhere in West Germany.

Kozlov Tour Seen Running Out Of Steam

Chicago Thousands Ignore Visiting Red Amid Heavy Traffic

CHICAGO (AP) — The current Soviet traveling salesman tour in the United States appeared today to be running out of steam and enthusiasm.

As he did elsewhere, First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov got along famously with some of the capitalists.

But the proletariat—the people the Communists invariably call the "toiling masses" — continued to greet his presence with a tremendous surge of apathy. This lack of public interest has marked Kozlov's entire cross-country barnstorming journey.

If a Soviet documentary film shows Moscow audiences crowds lining the route of Kozlov's motorcade into Chicago, it will be because the arrival coincided with the evening homeward bound rush hour.

The crowds waited to cross streets through thick traffic. Two Soviet newsreel men, riding in an open convertible, trained their cameras on the street corners and tried, each by waving his free hand furiously, to persuade some in the crowd to wave back. This could provide at least a semblance of cheering masses for a documentary on the trip to be shown back home in the U.S.S.R.

But the film chronicle will have one item of propaganda value. On the way to the Inland Steel Co. plant in East Chicago, Ind. Wednesday, the motorcade passed a tiny, squalid slum of a few tumbled down tenements. The newsreel men trained their cameras hungrily on the slum and a few poorly dressed Negro children nearby. They had few such opportunities on the other legs of their cross country tour.

Kozlov himself was wined and dined Wednesday night at the South Shore Country Club. Edward Logelin, vice president of United

Sources Say Gov. Long Is 'Failing Fast'

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long, beset by grievious mental and physical ills, admittedly is failing in health. How badly and how rapidly was not quite clear.

Washington political sources heard Wednesday night that the 63-year-old governor was failing fast.

When several doctors hovered over Long and several relatives arrived, speculation arose that his condition was cirtical. Then Rep. Spencer Myrick emerged from the Mansion and explained a dentist was fitting a new set of false teeth for the governor, and the doctors were laughing and joking with Long.

The governor's condition, however, was viewed gravely.

Long was stricken with a mild heart failure July 1. Five days previous to that the governor had won freedom from a mental institution, after once having been diagnosed as insane.

He returned to the capital Monday.

Probe Fails To Trace Cause Of Knowles Fire

Either a lighted cigarette or spontaneous combustion were blamed today as the cause of a blaze which leveled a large storage shed at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Lee, assistant fire chief at Newell, said he and insurance officials held an investigation Wednesday night to determine the cause. Bales of straw were stored in the building and Lee said a carelessly-tossed cigarette or spontaneous combustion could have touched off the blaze.

Company officials said today no estimate has been made of the loss, although unofficial estimates have placed it at $40,000. Destroyed in the fire were the 100-foot-square shed, about 30 tons of straw, miscellaneous equipment and repair parts for machinery, a truck and a station wagon.

Ike Signs 2 Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed bills appropriating $3,971,362,673 to the Agriculture Department and $13,463,500 to the office of the President for the fiscal year that started July 1.

Cindy Losing Her Punch In South Carolina

Hurricane-Force Winds Diminish; One Death Reported

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Tropical storm Cindy — a hurricane for only a few hours and hardly worth the designation — moved across the coast north of this old port city Wednesday night.

While the storm did little damage, it was responsible for one highway death. H. H. Higgins Jr. 41, a Georgetown, S.C., lawyer, was killed when his car hit a tree that was blown across U.S. 17 about 20 miles north of here where Cindy came ashore.

Cindy, born in the Atlantic 200 miles offshore Tuesday, at one time Wednesday reached hurricane force of 75 miles an hour.

However, by the time she hit the coast at Bull Bay, at 9:45 p.m. she was losing her punch.

Gusts of 60 to 70 miles an hour were recorded. Then the storm began moving inland and breaking up. Tides quickly began receding after reaching a peak two and a half feet above normal at Georgetown.

Just 15 minutes after the storm hit the coast, the Charleston Weather Bureau advised the thousands of evacuees from nearby beach areas that they could return safely to their homes.

The storm was expected to continue moving inland today, gradually diminishing. Squally weather and winds with gusts not exceeding 45 to 55 miles an hour were predicted for inland areas of both Carolinas.

British Leaders Push For Summit Parley

LONDON (AP) — Britain's two top political leaders are still plumping for a summit conference to iron out the West's differences with the Soviet Union.

Prime Minister Harold MacMillan and the opposition Laborite Chief, Hugh Gaitskell, joined in expressing hope again Wednesday night that the foreign ministers will clear the way for a heads-of-government meeting when they resume their talks in Geneva July 13.

Traffic Case Poses Enigma For City Court

If you are at the wheel of a vehicle being towed by another, can you be guilty of operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor?

That decision rested with Judge George L. Brokaw today after a St. Clair Ave. couple was arrested Wednesday night by a township constable, who charged the wife drove a pickup truck over a 10-foot embankment while towing a panel truck with her husband steering it.

George Philabaum, 68, and his wife, Thelma, 52, of 728 St. Clair Ave. entered not guilty pleas to the drunk driving counts.

Mrs. Philabaum admitted striking Constable Clarence Blosser with a hammer at her husband's urging, dislocating the little finger of the left hand. Philabaum pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

They were arrested after the pickup truck plunged over the embankment of their former property near Columbiana County Memor-

House Group Starts Toiling On Rights Bill

Will Play Part In How Long Congress Stays In Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee starts work today on a civil rights bill, the fate of which will play a large part in determining how long Congress stays in session this year.

Action on civil rights is one of the key items in the Democratic leadership's legislative program, which critics say has been dragging despite the party's heavy majorities in Congress.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) predicted the committee would approve a bill not later than next week. If he succeeds in that goal despite strong Southern opposition within the committee, it would open the way to lengthy battles in both the House and the Senate.

Red Terrorist Bomb Kills 2 Americans In Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A Communist terrorist slipped into an American military billet 20 miles north of Saigon Wednesday night during a movie and exploded a bomb, killing two U.S. military advisers, himself and three South Vietnamese.

Another American officer was wounded, and two others escaped injury.

The wounded American was flown to Clark Field at Manila for treatment. A communique from the South Viet Nam government and the U.S. Embassy said his condition was not serious.

Following the bomb attack, other members of the terrorist band opened fire from outside the billet with small arms and automatic weapons, the communique said.

Vietnamese army guards returned the fire, "forcing the terrorists to flee to the nearby river from which direction they had come," the communique reported.

In Washington, the Army identified the American casualties as:

Wounded—Capt. Howard B. Boston, wife, Mrs. Ardys Allene Boston, Blairsburg, Iowa.

The attack occurred at the South Viet Nam army's training center at Bienhoa. The five U.S. officers were members of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG) stationed in South Viet Nam to train President Ngo Dinh Diem's anti - Communist forces in the use of American weapons.

The attack was the first on

10% Less Than Ike Asked

Senate Puts $3.5 Billion Limit In Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a foreign aid bill with a $3,543,320,000 price tag. That's about 10 per cent less than President Eisenhower asked.

The authorization measure merely sets the ceiling for foreign aid spending. The actual amount to be spent will be determined in a later appropriation bill.

Efforts to make further slashes in the amount asked by Eisenhower failed Wednesday in the final day of debate. All of the 383½ million dollars in cuts had been voted Tuesday.

Final action came after Eisenhower indicated at a news conference he might call Congress back into a special session later this year if his request was sliced too deeply. Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas joined Republicans in helping to fend off further reductions during the final debate.

The Senate measure allows $1,300,000,000 for military aid to Allies and 751½ millions in defense economic supports to help Allies maintain their troops. The rest is for various forms of economic aid.

The military provision is 300 million dollars less than the President request. The economic aid is 83½ million under what he asked.

The Senate total is only $720,000 above that voted by the House. Senate and House conferees plan to meet next week to settle the differences on where to apply the cuts.

The measure passed the Senate Wednesday night by a vote of 65-26 with the support of 39 Democrats and 26 Republicans. Eighteen Democrats and eight Republican senators voted against final passage.

Briton Calls On U.S. To Join Commonwealth

LONDON (AP)—Lord Altincham suggested today that the United States join the British Commonwealth.

"From the way Chicago greeted the Queen," he said in an interview, "I can't see that American republicanism is terribly strong."

His Lordship is the 35-year-old peer who raised royalty lovers' blood pressures two years ago by criticizing the monarchy. He said, among other things, that some of Queen Elizabeth's speeches sounded as if they were delivered by a priggish schoolgirl.

Altrincham says once the United States joins the Commonwealth, "We'd have to take British out of the name. Otherwise we'd raise people's blood pressure in the States."

Space Dog All Right

MOSCOW (AP)—The second dog which made a flight into space a week ago aboard a Soviet rocket is all right, the government newspaper Izvestia said today. The newspaper was flooded with questions about the dog, "Snowflake," when photographs came out showing only the rabbit and the dog "Daring." Izvestia said Snowflake was undergoing further examinations when the photograph was taken.

Deaths and Funerals

Illness Claims Mrs. Groglode

Mrs. Ruth Metters Groglode, wife of Samuel S. Groglode, 2623 St. Clair Ave., died Wednesday afternoon at 3 at City Hospital after a six - week illness.

Mrs. Groglode was born in Columbus, the only child of the late John and Jane Metters. She was a graduate of Ohio State University, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. Mrs. Groglode's first husband, W. H. Locke Anderson, was general manager of the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. before his death some years ago.

President - elect of the Colonial Club, Mrs. Groglode also was a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and Circle 4 of the Women of St. Stephen's.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Donald Johnston of Scarsdale, N. Y., a son, Dr. W. H. L. Anderson of Cambridge, an instructor at Harvard University, and five grandchildren.

Services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a. m. in the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino, rector of St. Stephen's. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday night.

Harry K. Culp

Harry K. Culp, 412 Broadway, Wellsville, a retired potter, died Wednesday at 5:25 p. m. at home following an illness of several months. He was 81.

Mr. Culp was born in Jefferson County near Empire June 5, 1878, a son of the late William J. and Katherine Yeagley Culp. He had resided in Wellsville several years, working in the former American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. and various area potteries. For 15 years prior to his retirement in 1943, he resided at Salem and was employed as a kilnman at the Salem China Co. He moved to Mansfield for six years before returning to Wellsville seven years ago.

He was a member of the Central Methodist Church of Wellsville, Caledonia Masonic Lodge 416 at New Albany and an honorary member of the IBOP. His first wife, Mrs. Maude Paisley Culp, died Sept. 7, 1949, at Mansfield.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Katherine Jobling Culp, whom he married Jan. 13, 1953; three sons, Earl J. Culp of Mansfield, Eugene Culp of Pomona, Calif., and Howard Culp of San Diego, Calif.; a step-daughter, Mrs. James W. Cox of Bucyrus; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Rahter of Wellsville and Mrs. Margaret MacDonald of Long Beach, Calif., and six grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. William A. Hewitt of Central Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino, rector of the Wellsville Episcopal Church of the Ascension. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery.

Masonic services will be held at the funeral home Friday night at 8. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday after 3:30 p. m.

Miss Daisy Duncan

Miss Daisy Maude Duncan, 83, who resided with a niece, Mrs. Clyde D. Parsons, 1124 St. George St., died at City Hospital Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. following a long illness.

Miss Duncan had resided with Mrs. Parsons for five years. She was born in Steubenville, a daughter of the late Alexander and Kathryn Knox Duncan. She was a member of the Steubenville Christian Church.

Several other nieces and nephews survive.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Russell Owens of the Grace United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Union Cemetery at Steubenville.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Salvatore Tedeschi

Salvatore Tedeschi, 86, a resident of Yellow Creek Township 59 years, died at City Hospital Wednesday at 5:45 p. m. of pneumonia. He had been a patient six days.

He was a retired brickyard employe. He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Wellsville. He made his home with a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carmin Antonio Tedeschi of Yellow Creek Township.

Other survivors include a brother, Dominic Tedeschi in Italy; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception Church, with Fr. John F. Lyons in charge. Burial will be in St. Elizabeth Cemetery in Wellsville.

Patrick Orr

SALINEVILLE — Services will be held Friday for Patrick Orr, 53, of Youngstown, former operator of the Orr Grocery Store and service station here, who died Tuesday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Youngstown following a long illness.

A building contractor at Youngstown, he was born in March 1912 at Salineville, a son of the late Sherrod and Mary Ann Orr. He resided here for 47 years, going to Youngstown after his marriage in 1952 to the former Mildred Cestone of Youngstown. He operated the business now run by a brother, Leroy.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Joseph Orr and Patrick Orr, both at home, and four brothers, James Orr, David Orr and Leroy Orr, all of Salineville, and William Orr of Columbiana.

Services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 at St. Edward's Catholic Church at Youngstown. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery at Youngstown.

Friends may call anytime at the Rossi Funeral Home, Wick and Scott Sts., Youngstown.

He's Been Stung, Too

It's Honey Of Bees-ness

LEWISTON N. Y. (AP)—It's not all honey in Howard Myers' business by any means. He's been stung plenty of times.

But by and large the millions of bees he rents out for a living have been good to him and he's grateful.

When pollination time comes in this fruit-growing section of upstate New York, the orchard owners just naturally think of Myers.

Nature doesn't provide enough amateur bees to carry pollen to all the trees in the area, so growers rely on Myers' 35 million professionals.

Myers, 72, has been working with bees most of his life. "I've been eating honey and getting stung since I was a boy of 10," he says.

With a son-in-law, Robert A. Davis, he runs a bee rental service here in the summer and a beekeeping business in Sebring, Fla., in the winter.

It costs $7 a day to rent a colony of 35,000 bees and the busy little buzzers really put their hearts into their work. They can pollinate an average size orchard a day. "They literally work themselves to death in four months," says Myers.

In addition to rental fees, Myers and Davis realize about 100 tons of honey a year from their winged employes, marketing it at a wholesale price of $24,000.

With income like that Myers admits that working with bees is a sweet business. "They still fascinate me after 62 years," he says. "Bees have been good to me and they've been good to the human race."

Mrs. Philabaum drove over the embankment, with only a large garbage can keeping the truck from continuing to another piece of property, Mrs. Show continued, adding four children were playing nearby at the time.

When the constable arrived, Philabaum urged his wife to "hit him with the hammer," Blosser said. At first, he said he didn't see a hammer but kept his eye on the man.

Mrs. Philabaum suddenly brought the hammer from behind her back, striking him on the left hand. He was treated by a physician for the dislocation.

Judge Brokaw continued the cases until 9 a. m. Friday.

Clues Are Few

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Grover Workman of Williamson, W. Va., got to thinking about an old Army buddy and telephoned the Phoenix Gazette for help. "He's supposed to be somewhere in Arizona and I'd sure like to find him," Workman said. "We were together in Germany during World War II." "What's your buddy's name?" a reporter asked. "I've forgotten," Workman replied.

Deaths and Funerals

Illness Claims Mrs. Groglode

Mrs. Ruth Metters Groglode, wife of Samuel S. Groglode, 2623 St. Clair Ave., died Wednesday afternoon at 3 at City Hospital after a six - week illness.

Mrs. Groglode was born in Columbus, the only child of the late John and Jane Metters. She was a graduate of Ohio State University, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. Mrs. Groglode's first husband, W. H. Locke Anderson, was general manager of the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. before his death some years ago.

President - elect of the Colonial Club, Mrs. Groglode also was a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and Circle 4 of the Women of St. Stephen's.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Donald Johnston of Scarsdale, N. Y., a son, Dr. W. H. L. Anderson of Cambridge, an instructor at Harvard University, and five grandchildren.

Services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a. m. in the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino, rector of St. Stephen's. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday night.

Harry K. Culp

Harry K. Culp, 412 Broadway, Wellsville, a retired potter, died Wednesday at 5:25 p. m. at home following an illness of several months. He was 81.

Mr. Culp was born in Jefferson County near Empire June 5, 1878, a son of the late William J. and Katherine Yeagley Culp. He had resided in Wellsville several years, working in the former American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. and various area potteries. For 15 years prior to his retirement in 1943, he resided at Salem and was employed as a kilnman at the Salem China Co. He moved to Mansfield for six years before returning to Wellsville seven years ago.

He was a member of the Central Methodist Church of Wellsville, Caledonia Masonic Lodge 416 at New Albany and an honorary member of the IBOP. His first wife, Mrs. Maude Paisley Culp, died Sept. 7, 1949, at Mansfield.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Katherine Jobling Culp, whom he married Jan. 13, 1953; three sons, Earl J. Culp of Mansfield, Eugene Culp of Pomona, Calif., and Howard Culp of San Diego, Calif.; a step-daughter, Mrs. James W. Cox of Bucyrus; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Rahter of Wellsville and Mrs. Margaret MacDonald of Long Beach, Calif., and six grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. William A. Hewitt of Central Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino, rector of the Wellsville Episcopal Church of the Ascension. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery.

Masonic services will be held at the funeral home Friday night at 8. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday after 3:30 p. m.

Miss Daisy Duncan

Miss Daisy Maude Duncan, 83, who resided with a niece, Mrs. Clyde D. Parsons, 1124 St. George St., died at City Hospital Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. following a long illness.

Miss Duncan had resided with Mrs. Parsons for five years. She was born in Steubenville, a daughter of the late Alexander and Kathryn Knox Duncan. She was a member of the Steubenville Christian Church.

Several other nieces and nephews survive.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Russell Owens of the Grace United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Union Cemetery at Steubenville.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Salvatore Tedeschi

Salvatore Tedeschi, 86, a resident of Yellow Creek Township 59 years, died at City Hospital Wednesday at 5:45 p. m. of pneumonia. He had been a patient six days.

He was a retired brickyard employe. He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Wellsville. He made his home with a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carmin Antonio Tedeschi of Yellow Creek Township.

Other survivors include a brother, Dominic Tedeschi in Italy; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception Church, with Fr. John F. Lyons in charge. Burial will be in St. Elizabeth Cemetery in Wellsville.

Friends may call at the Haugh Funeral Home in Wellsville.

Miss Ada Valentine

Services for Miss Ada Valentine, 52, of 225 W. 8th St., who died Wednesday at City Hospital, will be held Friday at 10:30 a. m. at the Arner Funeral Home in East Liverpool.

The Rev. Robert Backstrom, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of Chester, will officiate. Burial will be at Locust Hill Cemetery at Chester.

Survivors include a brother, Curtis Valentine, and a half-sister, Mrs. Hilda Smith, both of East Liverpool; and a half-brother, Ray Kearns of West Sunbury, Pa.

Friends may call this afternoon and evening at the funeral home.

Patrick Orr

SALINEVILLE — Services will be held Friday for Patrick Orr, 53, of Youngstown, former operator of the Orr Grocery Store and service station here, who died Tuesday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Youngstown following a long illness.

A building contractor at Youngstown, he was born in March 1912 at Salineville, a son of the late Sherrod and Mary Ann Orr. He resided here for 47 years, going to Youngstown after his marriage in 1952 to the former Mildred Cestone of Youngstown. He operated the business now run by a brother, Leroy.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Joseph Orr and Patrick Orr, both at home, and four brothers, James Orr, David Orr and Leroy Orr, all of Salineville, and William Orr of Columbiana.

Services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 at St. Edward's Catholic Church at Youngstown. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery at Youngstown.

Friends may call anytime at the Rossi Funeral Home, Wick and Scott Sts., Youngstown.

He's Been Stung, Too

It's Honey Of Bees-ness

LEWISTON N. Y. (AP)—It's not all honey in Howard Myers' business by any means. He's been stung plenty of times.

But by and large the millions of bees he rents out for a living have been good to him and he's grateful.

When pollination time comes in this fruit-growing section of upstate New York, the orchard owners just naturally think of Myers.

Nature doesn't provide enough amateur bees to carry pollen to all the trees in the area, so growers rely on Myers' 35 million professionals.

Myers, 72, has been working with bees most of his life. "I've been eating honey and getting stung since I was a boy of 10," he says.

With a son-in-law, Robert A. Davis, he runs a bee rental service here in the summer and a beekeeping business in Sebring, Fla., in the winter.

It costs $7 a day to rent a colony of 35,000 bees and the busy little buzzers really put their hearts into their work. They can pollinate an average size orchard a day. "They literally work themselves to death in four months," says Myers.

In addition to rental fees, Myers and Davis realize about 100 tons of honey a year from their winged employes, marketing it at a wholesale price of $24,000.

With income like that Myers admits that working with bees is a sweet business. "They still fascinate me after 62 years," he says. "Bees have been good to me and they've been good to the human race."

BEE BUSINESS. Robert Davis inspects one of the colonies of bees he and his father-in-law rent out to fruit growers.

Mrs. Philabaum drove over the embankment, with only a large garbage can keeping the truck from continuing to another piece of property, Mrs. Show continued, adding four children were playing nearby at the time.

When the constable arrived, Philabaum urged his wife to "hit him with the hammer," Blosser said. At first, he said he didn't see a hammer but kept his eye on the man.

Mrs. Philabaum suddenly brought the hammer from behind her back, striking him on the left hand. He was treated by a physician for the dislocation.

Judge Brokaw continued the cases until 9 a. m. Friday.

Clues Are Few

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Grover Workman of Williamson, W. Va., got to thinking about an old Army buddy and telephoned the Phoenix Gazette for help. "He's supposed to be somewhere in Arizona and I'd sure like to find him," Workman said. "We were together in Germany during World War II." "What's your buddy's name?" a reporter asked. "I've forgotten," Workman replied.

The President Makes It Clearer

President Eisenhower has made it clear again that the White House is planning no direct intervention in the steel industry's negotiations.

But in the same press conference, he has made it even clearer than it was before that the White House has an immediate and an important stake in the outcome of the negotiations.

He has done this by urging the spokesmen for management and workers to act for the "good of the country." He has said it is a pity that all of us cannot proceed on the basic concept of what is good for the country, which was the other half of Charles E. Wilson's remark when he told senators investigating his fitness for secretary of defense that what "was good for General Motors was good for the country and vice versa." His critics omitted the "vice versa."

The President now has gone considerably out of his way to let the steel industry know it is involved in negotiations with direct bearing on the state of the nation and that it cannot disassociate itself from the impact of what it decides.

There is coming to be a lively and searching public interest in the relationship between nationwide bargaining and administered prices -- a relationship that has been looming larger the last few years than all previously accumulated knowledge of economists about the elements that cause inflation and how to offset them.

It has fallen to the lot of the basic steel industry, whose industrial contract is being renewed at a critical period in the Eisenhower administration's campaign to stabilize the value of currency, to prove there is enough industrial statesmanship in the private enterprise system to make political intervention undesirable and unthinkable.

If proof is not forthcoming, there is certain to be a strident hue and cry in Congress to start the kind of political intervention that might well be the overture for price and wage control, the Siamese twins of managed economy.

Public Housing Losing Momentum

If the public-housing bloc in Congress cannot repass this year's bill over President Eisenhower's veto, there will be only one thing to blame.

An idea that has been given the advantage of every doubt by politicians, economists, sociologists, tax collectors and tax spenders is losing momentum.

It simply has not been demonstrated that the federal government can make a dent in the housing problem with the amount of money it can afford to spend. Representatives and senators who once thought a federal program was the answer to the problem of substandard housing are not as sure of it as they once were.

The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who became a distinguished backer of a federal housing program and whose father had become interested in the theory of public housing long before it had been converted into practice, might have trouble in 1959 rationalizing the theory he helped to develop as co-author of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner Act.

These things have become obvious:

That political support for the credo that money should be taken from those who have fair to good housing to improve the housing standards of those who are living in from fair to bad housing is chancy and spotty.

That inertia, delay and planned resistance have a way of taking the zip out of public housing—and that the residual zip then is taken out by realization that more bad housing has developed during the delay than was eliminated by the project.

That any move which causes a net reduction in housing in the name of bringing a net improvement in housing standards may very well bring about a net loss in any usable housing for people living under the worst conditions.

That no public project of such magnitude can generate enough momentum within itself to keep going without borrowing strength from private enterprise—and private enterprise continues to be cool toward public housing.

If these and other factors of similar nature were not bleeding the vitality out of public housing, Congress could repass its 1959 bill over a presidential veto with no trouble. But under the circumstances there is so much trouble in sight that the veto is expected to stand.

Knock, Don't Honk

We've often wondered what has become of the old-fashioned courtesy of knocking at the door when one is calling.

The tendency today — at least in East Liverpool — seems to be to drive up in a car and start honking like mad. The end result is that both honker and honkee end up in utter confusion.

Automobile horns are not a new thing. They have been part of the equipment since early days. And those who drove the Model-Ts seem to have put them to more proper use than many who drive the cars of today.

The next time you're calling, try knocking not honking.

Something Newer Under The Sun

Improbable as it seems after so many years, Americans will be flocking to auto dealers' showrooms this fall to see something newer than the 1960 models.

There will be lively interest in their home-grown auto industry's new versions of transportation. It is going to be a perfect setup for the kind of discussion that people carried on when every new automotive idea was proed and conned to exhausion.

There will continue to be ever-newer and ever-more-interesting models of all the well-known cars — the so-called "big cars." But even they will reflect the important new idea in the automobile industry, according to U.S. News & World Report. There will be more economy of operation and more room for passengers. Functionalism will be stressed.

There is no doubt any more than the industry is in a mood to respond to popular interest in a new kind of automobiling that makes the vehicle become in design what it has been for a long time in practice — a form of transportation that must justify itself in economics as well as in engineering and artistry. From this point on, every manufacturer's line will cover everything from luxury to basic transportation. And beginning this year there will be lively interest in the end of the line that has been neglected — basic transportation.

The changeover will start this month in some plants. All the new cars will be ready by October — both the new models and the new lines. The automobile industry is going to rediscover what it was like years ago when everything it did was a topic of discussion — when automobiles made news in their own right.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

To the Smile-Shelters, men! Most amazing exhibit at Soviet fair in United States was the All-Purpose Ballistic Smile, Intercontinental Ear-to-Ear Broad Gauge Grin or Kozlov Wowser. Frol Kozlov, first deputy premier, has a smile so broad it displaced a section reserved for more sputniks, rockets and nosecones, in fact, at one point it was necessary to remove four Greek pillars and widen two doorways to get the smile through.

At Washington the Soviet leader threw it across the Potomac, proving Russia has made amazing progress in the development of power smiling and may have a Five Year Ray of Sunshine Plan which threatens the free world.

It is now clear where the United States is weak: it needs a DEFENSE AGAINST THE MOSCOW GRIN. A surprise attack by smilers in force could do us great harm. Let us have a Secretary in Charge of Retaliatory Grinning at once! Russia's secret weapon may be the SMILE-NIK.

OUR WASHINGTON SCOUT insists we haven't a single device to warn us of an all-out Blithe Spirit attack or anything that can render it null and void over the ocean. Ike threw a pretty good smile back at Kozlov but it lacked punch.

It was clear that the Soviet Union has been perfecting a new highly destructive facial expression. The switch from the Gromyko "Scram-Ya-Bum" or "You-and-Who-Else?" expression at Geneva to the Super-Dental Intercontinental No-Limit Smile of Kozlov in America has us stunned.

The U.S.S.R. has clearly turned out a smile that tops those of our best clambake hosts, Rotary Club masters of ceremonies and department store Kris Kringles. This sort of thing coming with the Summit threats, cold stares and pokes in the eye has us baffled no end.

Mr. Kozlov is not only a super-smiler but an arm waver, a Chautauqua Salute expert and a 1959 model Soviet House-Heating Grin. This type can be paramount threat to our security.

SONG FOR A DEPOSED TENANT

I do not like this "Title One";
The way the routine has been done;
The rents go up without a doubt
Beyond the reach of those thrown out.
Slum clearance was intended to Aid those whose comforts were too few,
But who moves in and on-the-double?...
The folks who never had rent trouble!

BROADWAY CAPSULE critiques: "A Majority of One": (Cedric's Non-Irish Rose): "Gypsy": (Life With Mother); "Sweet Bird of Youth": (Tennessee Rides Again). . . . Moscow's Moiseyev Dancers are returning to U.S. That's one where Russia can get the JUMP on us.

American is expected to turn out more than six million cars this year. Problem is how to get them into three million open parking spaces.

Funniest line of year is one noted by John Crosby in "Peck's Bad Girl" in which mother says of runaway kid, "He left a note saying he would have to kill a few people but wouldn't smoke until he was 21."

SOVIET DEPUTY PREMIER Kozlov is evidently the U.S.S.R. chief in charge of buttering up. . . .

If a boy looks depraved, doesn't cut his hair and has a terrible voice there can be a career for him with song-recording houses and on TV.

Arthur Godfrey's programs will seem odd without Tony Marvin's sonorous voice. He can make all other voices on a show seem pianissimo.

The passing of the old-fashioned doctor who would answer day or night call has led to action by Nassau, N. Y., Medical Society to bring him back. The organization will divide county into 14 districts, each connected with a main dispatcher's office which, through rotation, will get you a doctor in a pinch, a pretty difficult trick these days.

Should Labor Leaders Be Licensed?

By Victor Riesel

There's a drive on to license labor leaders before they can practice. That's because some men who call themselves labor leaders practice mayhem, arson, dynamiting and looting, not to mention acid hurling.

Victor Riesel

Those behind the drive have been analyzing the little known Florida labor official licensing law. No man can represent a union without first registering in the capital, requesting a license and proving his character is unweighted by the hand of the mob.

Technically this is called Chapter 447, Labor Organizations. It regulates union activity. The law states:

"Because of the activities of labor unions affecting the economic conditions of the country and the state, entering as they do into practically every business and industrial enterprise, it is the sense of the legislature that such organizations affect the public interest and are charged with a public use. . . ."

SO FLORIDA SAYS that no person can be a union official who has been convicted of a felony or is "not a person of good moral character." That should eliminate a lot of characters right off.

To obtain a business agent's license, the vanguard of the proletariat must apply to the secretary of state. The application is held for 30 days by the secretary. During this month any citizen can file objections to the licensing of the union man.

At the end of the waiting period this state official presents the request to a special board, made up of himself, the governor and the superintendent of education. They vote for or against.

However, this doesn't move the labor official into permanent practice. At any time, Florida's attorney general, at the request of anyone making substantiated charges can go into the Circuit Court to have the union leader de-licensed.

This action goes before a judge —without a jury.

FURTHERMORE, the law says that no one shall be pushed around —coerced, picketed or bullied— if he brings charges against the licensee. This is worth putting on the record:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with or prevent the right of franchise of any member of a labor organization. The right of franchise shall include the right of an employe to make complaints, file charges, give information or testimony concerning the violation of this chapter or the petitioning to his union regarding any grievance he may have concerning his membership or employment, or the making known facts concerning such grievance or violation of law to any public officials, and his right of free petition, lawful assemblage and free speech."

EVERY UNION MEMBER has the right to come up and look at the "books, records and accounts."

The union, under the law, must keep these accurately. The union itself must also register annually with the state. It is also unlawful for any official to call a strike if his union is battling with another in a jurisdictional dispute.

There can be no mass picketing to block plant gates. There must be elections by secret ballot. Penalty for violation of any section of this law is six months in jail and-or a fine.

Fully interpreted and enforced, this Florida law can regulate unions as though they were railroads.

Everywhere, committees are watching Congress to see if a federal anti-rackets bill is passed. It may not be. For when AFL-CIO president George Meany returns from Europe, labor's eight-man executive committee will meet to plan a fight against the Kennedy-Erwin bill.

If the bill is defeated, a drive by the public will be launched in the states. Those state laws will be tougher. The public wants action —this year.

Mixed Picture Of Justice

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The nine Supreme Court justices provided a mixed picture this year in the one field where left-right tags are most glibly applied: individual rights against government rights.

At times they split, at times they voted solidly. In two of the major contempt cases the justices split 5-4, in three others the vote was 9-0. In still another it was 4-4, with one justice not voting.

The major cases involved Willard Uphaus and Lloyd Barenblatt. To understand what happened in both, two previous cases must be considered.

In 1956 the court threw out the conviction of Steve Nelson, an admitted Communist, who was found guilty in a Pennsylvania state court of violating the state's sedition law.

The court said that, since sedition against the United States is a national problem, federal sedition laws supersede state sedition laws.

But the court said a state could prosecute for sedition against the state.

This year the court tackled the case of Uphaus, director of the New Hampshire World Fellowship Center which described itself as a pacifist organization.

He refused to answer certain questions of the New Hampshire attorney general who, under authority of his Legislature, was investigating communism. For refusing to answer, Uphaus was convicted of contempt.

Justice Clark, one of those voting for Nelson in 1956, this year wrote the opinion turning down the appeal of Uphaus. He cited the Nelson decision as not forbidding a state to prosecute for sedition against itself.

So, he reasoned, since a state can prosecute for sedition, it has the right to investigate sedition. Thus the court was not reversing the Nelson decision but narrowing it.

In 1957 the court upheld John T. Watkins, convicted of contempt for refusing to answer certain questions of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which was investigating communism in labor.

He raised the objection of pertinency, asking how the questions asked him had anything to do with the subject of the investigation. The court backed him, saying he never got a clear answer and the questions were not pertinent.

Then this year the court ruled against Barenblatt, a college teacher convicted of contempt for refusing to answer some questions of the same committee, which was investigating communism in education.

Barenblatt, in his appeal, recalled the Watkins pertinency angle by complaining the questions asked him were not pertinent to the committee's investigation.

But the court said whereas Watkins directly raised the question of pertinency in his case, Barenblatt didn't and, if he wanted to use nonpertinency as his excuse for not answering, he should have done so directly.

The court went further, saying the committee investigation was legitimate, and its purposes were well understood. It added that in this case the interests of the country were involved and thus subordinated an individual's interest.

Justice Harlan, who had voted for Watkins but against Barenblatt, wrote the majority opinion. It left open many questions of interpretation. No doubt the court will be confronted with similar cases, looking for loopholes and clarifications.

In the Nelson case the vote was 6-3 for him; it was 6-1 for Watkins. In the Uphaus case the vote was 5-4 against, and 5-4 against Barenblatt.

In three other contempt conviction cases the nine justices stood solidly together, 9-0, for the defendants.

One involved a labor leader who refused to give a Senate committee investigating communism a list of union members. This decision had no special meaning. The court ruled in his favor on a technicality.

Another was the case of a Virginia Quaker who wouldn't answer a state legislative committee's questions about his connection with inter-racial groups. The court upheld him on the ground the purpose of the committee's investigation was not clear. This was an echo of the Watkins case.

In the third the court freed three Ohioans who, the justices said, had been misled—into refusing to answer—by a state committee which was investigating communism and asking the questions.

On a technicality the court split 4-4 in upholding the conviction of a fourth Ohioan—sentenced for refusing to answer questions from the same Ohio committee.

And finally, the court split 5-4 in turning down the appeal of a New York garment maker who refused to answer, although promised immunity, the questions of a grand jury investigating racketeering.

Time To Count Noses

By David Lawrence

Housing Bill Will Clarify Spending Stand

The Democrats who are warring with each other in Congress over the course that should be taken toward presidential vetoes will have a chance to count noses on the issue presented by President Eisenhower's rejection of the housing bill passed by both houses.

David Lawrence

Shall the measure be treated as a political football or be considered on its merits? If, as Chairman Butler of the Democratic National Committee advocates, the President's vetoes should be overridden irrespective of the weight of his arguments, then the Democrats in Congress who vote to override the veto in this case particularly run the risk of being characterized as "spenders."

For the veto message squarely makes this the central issue. The President says the measure, if enacted, would spend $2,200,000,000 as compared with the 810 million he recommended. This would mean a big increase in the Treasury's deficit.

THERE ARE OTHER and more serious defects in the proposed legislation. Not only are there 100,000 housing units already authorized that haven't been built as yet but the bill would authorize 190,000 more. It is the effect on the financial situation in the country which disturbs the President most as he says:

"The bill is inflationary. The spending authorizations of Senate Bill No. 57, taken together with other seriously objectionable provisions, would be inflationary and, therefore, an obstacle to constructive progress toward better housing for Americans.

"One of the most damaging effects of inflation is that it dries up the sources of long term credit. There is perhaps no industry in the nation more heavily dependent for its operations on long term funds borrowed at reasonable rates of interest than the housing industry.

"We have made good progress in the fight against inflation but we cannot win that fight if we add one spending program to another, without thought of how they are going to be paid for and invite deficits in time of general prosperity. No one can gain from a fiscal policy of this inflationary type — least of all, the housing industry."

The President clinches that point with the comment that the proposed legislation would "substitute federal spending for private investment" and that, instead of stimulating private investment, it "would drive private credit from the areas where it is urgently needed."

MR. EISENHOWER argues that the artificial requirement that the Federal National Mortgage Association "must buy mortgages at par under its special assistance program, regardless of the price that these mortgages command in the open market," would be inflationary.

There are other damaging provisions. The President speaks of the "needless limitations" on the Federal Housing Administration's program that "would impair the FHA's soundness." He predicts that the bill would continue the FHA programs on "an uncertain, hand-to-mouth basis" and that, through lower down payments and longer maturities, the bill "would introduce underwriting provisions of questionable soundness into a number of FHA's loan insurance programs."

The President asks that the bill be rewritten in line with specific recommendations he makes that would carry out the general objectives of urban renewal, provide additional mortgage insurance authority and make other desirable changes in existing laws.

He asks especially for the power to raise statutory interest rate ceilings under FHA's regular rental housing and cooperative housing programs.

Anyone can see at a glance that these questions touch the heart of the nation's economy. Inflationary legislation can bring on a whole series of disastrous effects on the money markets of the country as well as on the many industries that are related to housing programs.

WILL THE MEMBERS the Senate and House line up on the roll calls to vote for an inflationary program that further unbalances the budget?

If they do, the country can readily tell who are the "spenders" and who are the "savers."

Until now a large number of Democrats in Congress have denied that they were on the "spending" side. The housing bill just vetoed by President Eisenhower affords an opportunity for them to end the argument by identifying all those who favor spending irrespective of the budget and those who want the purchasing power of the dollar maintained on a sound basis.

Whenever the local climate becomes unbearable, I remember that the archaeologists have found evidence that others parts of the earth, too, were made uninhabitable by climatological changes. The Arctic Circle, for instance, used to be first-class real estate, and so was the Sahara Desert.

I am more excited about the forthcoming miniaturization of U.S. automobiles than anything that has happened since my first ride in a Rambler — not the one you see now but the one you saw then — about 1914.

Internecine politics, which is the art of brotherly feuding behind closed doors, leaves me cold, but I am fascinated by the early maneuvering in the big fight between big-city-type Democrats led by Democratic Chairman Butler and old-line country-type Democrats led by Sen. Johnson and Rep. Rayburn.

They've been making jokes about the "septic tank rich" who live in the suburbs of large eastern cities but it's no joke about the "septic tank society" that has grown up on the fringes of cities everywhere else. They have a great worry in common; they're not rich enough to afford septic-tank trouble.

I shall carry in my memory a long time the sweetest picture I ever expect to see — a handsome little colored girl wearing a huge white bib to protect her clean dress while she was eating a slice of watermelon on the front steps of her house.

Letter To The Editor

For the past four years I have been booking manager for the Veterans Social Club softball team.

In 1955, we were city league champs. Columbian Park was our home field. That year we lost one home game and finished the season with 42 wins and 13 losses. In 1956 the record was 28-8; in 1957, 26-9, and in 1958, 30-8.

We have never had a losing season. During the past three seasons we have brought to East Liverpool some of the best softball teams in the United States, both pro and amateur. But now we have no ball field. Why? Don't the people of East Liverpool believe in recreation for the old set? We play ball because we love the game.

We have played all over Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. They have places to play. Why don't we?

Deep down in my heart I sincerely feel that we, the members of the Veterans Social softball team, have done more than any softball team to put East Liverpool on the map. We have, if not the best, one of the best teams in the Ohio Valley. If we had a ball field like the other cities, we could bring in such teams as the King and His Court, the California Cuties and others.

We play in three different states and we find that we are treated worse here at home. We can't park on both sides of Virginia Ave., but on Sunday morning the people going to church park on both sides. I don't believe that the parking law was meant for only the week days, was it?

People of East Liverpool, wake up! In the Veterans Social softball team you have one of the best teams in the Ohio Valley.

Help us to find a field and relieve some of the pressure that is put on us at every home game.

The President Makes It Clearer

President Eisenhower has made it clear again that the White House is planning no direct intervention in the steel industry's negotiations.

But in the same press conference, he has made it even clearer than it was before that the White House has an immediate and an important stake in the outcome of the negotiations.

He has done this by urging the spokesmen for management and workers to act for the "good of the country." He has said it is a pity that all of us cannot proceed on the basic concept of what is good for the country, which was the other half of Charles E. Wilson's remark when he told senators investigating his fitness for secretary of defense that what "was good for General Motors was good for the country and vice versa." His critics omitted the "vice versa."

The President now has gone considerably out of his way to let the steel industry know it is involved in negotiations with direct bearing on the state of the nation and that it cannot disassociate itself from the impact of what it decides.

There is coming to be a lively and searching public interest in the relationship between nationwide bargaining and administered prices -- a relationship that has been looming larger the last few years than all prevously accumulated knowledge of economists about the elements that cause inflation and how to offset them.

It has fallen to the lot of the basic steel industry, whose industrial contract is being renewed at a critical period in the Eisenhower administration's campaign to stabilize the value of currency, to prove there is enough industrial statesmanship in the private enterprise system to make political intervention undesirable and unthinkable.

If proof is not forthcoming, there is certain to be a strident hue and cry in Congress to start the kind of political intervention that might well be the overture for price and wage control, the Siamese twins of managed economy.

Public Housing Losing Momentum

If the public-housing bloc in Congress cannot repass this year's bill over President Eisenhower's veto, there will be only one thing to blame.

An idea that has been given the advantage of every doubt by politicians, economists, sociologists, tax collectors and tax spenders is losing momentum.

It simply has not been demonstrated that the federal government can make a dent in the housing problem with the amount of money it can afford to spend. Representatives and senators who once thought a federal program was the answer to the problem of substandard housing are not as sure of it as they once were.

The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who became a distinguished backer of a federal housing program and whose father had become interested in the theory of public housing long before it had been converted into practice, might have trouble in 1959 rationalizing the theory he helped to develop as co-author of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner Act.

These things have become obvious:

That political support for the credo that money should be taken from those who have fair to good housing to improve the housing standards of those who are living in from fair to bad housing is chancy and spotty.

That inertia, delay and planned resistance have a way of taking the zip out of public housing—and that the residual zip then is taken out by realization that more bad housing has developed during the delay than was eliminated by the project.

That any move which causes a net reduction in housing in the name of bringing a net improvement in housing standards may very well bring about a net loss in any usable housing for people living under the worst conditions.

That no public project of such magnitude can generate enough momentum within itself to keep going without borrowing strength from private enterprise—and private enterprise continues to be cool toward public housing.

If these and other factors of similar nature were not bleeding the vitality out of public housing, Congress could repass its 1959 bill over a presidential veto with no trouble. But under the circumstances there is so much trouble in sight that the veto is expected to stand.

Knock, Don't Honk

We've often wondered what has become of the old-fashioned courtesy of knocking at the door when one is calling.

The tendency today — at least in East Liverpool — seems to be to drive up in a car and start honking like mad. The end result is that both honker and honkee end up in utter confusion.

Automobile horns are not a new thing. They have been part of the equipment since early days. And those who drove the Model-Ts seem to have put them to more proper use than many who drive the cars of today.

The next time you're calling, try knocking not honking.

Something Newer Under The Sun

Improbable as it seems after so many years, Americans will be flocking to auto dealers' showrooms this fall to see something newer than the 1960 models.

There will be lively interest in their home-grown auto industry's new versions of transportation. It is going to be a perfect setup for the kind of discussion that people carried on when every new automotive idea was proed and conned to exhausion.

There will continue to be ever-newer and ever-more-interesting models of all the well-known cars — the so-called "big cars." But even they will reflect the important new idea in the automobile industry, according to U.S. News & World Report. There will be more economy of operation and more room for passengers. Functionalism will be stressed.

There is no doubt any more than the industry is in a mood to respond to popular interest in a new kind of automobiling that makes the vehicle become in design what it has been for a long time in practice — a form of transportation that must justify itself in economics as well as in engineering and artistry. From this point on, every manufacturer's line will cover everything from luxury to basic transportation. And beginning this year there will be lively interest in the end of the line that has been neglected — basic transportation.

The changeover will start this month in some plants. All the new cars will be ready by October — both the new models and the new lines. The automobile industry is going to rediscover what it was like years ago when everything it did was a topic of discussion — when automobiles made news in their own right.

The Once Over

To the Smile-Shelters, men! Most amazing exhibit at Soviet fair in United States was the All-Purpose Ballistic Smile, Intercontinental Ear-to-Ear Broad Gauge Grin or Kozlov Wowser. Frol Kozlov, first deputy premier, has a smile so broad it displaced a section reserved for more sputniks, rockets and nosecones, in fact, at one point it was necessary to remove four Greek pillars and widen two doorways to get the smile through.

At Washington the Soviet leader threw it across the Potomac, proving Russia has made amazing progress in the development of power smiling and may have a Five Year Ray of Sunshine Plan which threatens the free world.

It is now clear where the United States is weak: it needs a DEFENSE AGAINST THE MOSCOW GRIN. A surprise attack by smilers in force could do us great harm. Let us have a Secretary in Charge of Retaliatory Grinning at once! Russia's secret weapon may be the SMILE-NIK.

OUR WASHINGTON SCOUT insists we haven't a single device to warn us of an all-out Blithe Spirit attack or anything that can render it null and void over the ocean. Ike threw a pretty good smile back at Kozlov but it lacked punch.

It was clear that the Soviet Union has been perfecting a new highly destructive facial expression. The switch from the Gromyko "Scram-Ya-Bum" or "You-and-Who-Else?" expression at Geneva to the Super-Dental Intercontinental No-Limit Smile of Kozlov in America has us stunned.

The U.S.S.R. has clearly turned out a smile that tops those of our best clambake hosts, Rotary Club masters of ceremonies and department store Kris Kringles. This sort of thing coming with the Summit threats, cold stares and pokes in the eye has us baffled no end.

Mr. Kozlov is not only a super-smiler but an arm waver, a Chautauqua Salute expert and a 1959 model Soviet House-Heating Grin. This type can be paramount threat to our security.

Should Labor Leaders Be Licensed?

By Victor Riesel

There's a drive on to license labor leaders before they can practice. That's because some men who call themselves labor leaders practice mayhem, arson, dynamiting and looting, not to mention acid hurling.

Victor Riesel

Those behind the drive have been analyzing the little known Florida labor official licensing law. No man can represent a union without first registering in the capital, requesting a license and proving his character is unweighted by the hand of the mob.

Technically this is called Chapter 447, Labor Organizations. It regulates union activity. The law states:

"Because of the activities of labor unions affecting the economic conditions of the country and the state, entering as they do into practically every business and industrial enterprise, it is the sense of the legislature that such organizations affect the public interest and are charged with a public use. . . ."

SO FLORIDA SAYS that no person can be a union official who has been convicted of a felony or is "not a person of good moral character." That should eliminate a lot of characters right off.

To obtain a business agent's license, the vanguard of the proletariat must apply to the secretary of state. The application is held for 30 days by the secretary. During this month any citizen can file objections to the licensing of the union man.

At the end of the waiting period this state official presents the request to a special board, made up of himself, the governor and the superintendent of education. They vote for or against.

However, this doesn't move the labor official into permanent practice. At any time, Florida's attorney general, at the request of anyone making substantiated charges can go into the Circuit Court to have the union leader de-licensed.

This action goes before a judge —without a jury.

FURTHERMORE, the law says that no one shall be pushed around —coerced, picketed or bullied— if he brings charges against the licensee. This is worth putting on the record:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with or prevent the right of franchise of any member of a labor organization. The right of franchise shall include the right of an employe to make complaints, file charges, give information or testimony concerning the violation of this chapter or the petitioning to his union regarding any grievance he may have concerning his membership or employment, or the making known facts concerning such grievance or violation of law to any public officials, and his right of free petition, lawful assemblage and free speech."

EVERY UNION MEMBER has the right to come up and look at the "books, records and accounts."

The union, under the law, must keep these accurately. The union itself must also register annually with the state. It is also unlawful for any official to call a strike if his union is battling with another in a jurisdictional dispute.

There can be no mass picketing to block plant gates. There must be elections by secret ballot. Penalty for violation of any section of this law is six months in jail and-or a fine.

For the veto message squarely makes this the central issue. The President says the measure, if enacted, would spend $2,200,000,000 as compared with the 810 million he recommended. This would mean a big increase in the Treasury's deficit.

THERE ARE OTHER and more serious defects in the proposed legislation. Not only are there 100,000 housing units already authorized that haven't been built as yet but the bill would authorize 190,000 more. It is the effect on the financial situation in the country which disturbs the President most as he says:

"The bill is inflationary. The spending authorizations of Senate Bill No. 57, taken together with other seriously objectionable provisions, would be inflationary and, therefore, an obstacle to constructive progress toward better housing for Americans.

"One of the most damaging effects of inflation is that it dries up the sources of long term credit. There is perhaps no industry in the nation more heavily dependent for its operations on long term funds borrowed at reasonable rates of interest than the housing industry.

"We have made good progress in the fight against inflation but we cannot win that fight if we add one spending program to another, without thought of how they are going to be paid for and invite deficits in time of general prosperity. No one can gain from a fiscal policy of this inflationary type — least of all, the housing industry."

The President clinches that point with the comment that the proposed legislation would "substitute federal spending for private investment" and that, instead of stimulating private investment, it "would drive private credit from the areas where it is urgently needed."

MR. EISENHOWER argues that the artificial requirement that the Federal National Mortgage Association "must buy mortgages at par under its special assistance program, regardless of the price that these mortgages command in the open market," would be inflationary.

There are other damaging provisions. The President speaks of the "needless limitations" on the Federal Housing Administration's program that "would impair the FHA's soundness." He predicts that the bill would continue the FHA programs on "an uncertain, hand-to-mouth basis" and that, through lower down payments and longer maturities, the bill "would introduce underwriting provisions of questionable soundness into a number of FHA's loan insurance programs."

The President asks that the bill be rewritten in line with specific recommendations he makes that would carry out the general objectives of urban renewal, provide additional mortgage insurance authority and make other desirable changes in existing laws.

He asks especially for the power to raise statutory interest rate ceilings under FHA's regular rental housing and cooperative housing programs.

Anyone can see at a glance that these questions touch the heart of the nation's economy. Inflationary legislation can bring on a whole series of disastrous effects on the money markets of the country as well as on the many industries that are related to housing programs.

WILL THE MEMBERS the Senate and House line up on the roll calls to vote for an inflationary program that further unbalances the budget?

If they do, the country can readily tell who are the "spenders" and who are the "savers."

Until now a large number of Democrats in Congress have denied that they were on the "spending" side. The housing bill just vetoed by President Eisenhower affords an opportunity for them to end the argument by identifying all those who favor spending irrespective of the budget and those who want the purchasing power of the dollar maintained on a sound basis.

Internecine politics, which is the art of brotherly feuding behind closed doors, leaves me cold, but I am fascinated by the early maneuvering in the big fight between big-city-type Democrats led by Democratic Chairman Butler and old-line country-type Democrats led by Sen. Johnson and Rep. Rayburn.

They've been making jokes about the "septic tank rich" who live in the suburbs of large eastern cities but it's no joke about the "septic tank society" that has grown up on the fringes of cities everywhere else. They have a great worry in common; they're not rich enough to afford septic-tank trouble.

Letter To The Editor

For the past four years I have been booking manager for the Veterans Social Club softball team.

In 1955, we were city league champs. Columbian Park was our home field. That year we lost one home game and finished the season with 42 wins and 13 losses. In 1956 the record was 28-8; in 1957, 26-9, and in 1958, 30-8.

We have never had a losing season. During the past three seasons we have brought to East Liverpool some of the best softball teams in the United States, both pro and amateur. But now we have no ball field. Why? Don't the people of East Liverpool believe in recreation for the old set? We play ball because we love the game.

We have played all over Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. They have places to play. Why don't we?

Deep down in my heart I sincerely feel that we, the members of the Veterans Social softball team, have done more than any softball team to put East Liverpool on the map. We have, if not the best, one of the best teams in the Ohio Valley. If we had a ball field like the other cities, we could bring in such teams as the King and His Court, the California Cuties and others.

We play in three different states and we find that we are treated worse here at home. We can't park on both sides of Virginia Ave., but on Sunday morning the people going to church park on both sides. I don't believe that the parking law was meant for only the week days, was it?

People of East Liverpool, wake up! In the Veterans Social softball team you have one of the best teams in the Ohio Valley.

Help us to find a field and relieve some of the pressure that is put on us at every home game.

Framework Of Future Functioning

United Church Of Christ OK's Constitutional Draft

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—A young, developing protestant denomination could flex some new muscles today.

It had a social platform, the basis of a constitution and a lilting declaration of faith.

As the general synod of the United Church of Christ went into the last of five days of meetings, it had the frame work for much of its future functioning.

"We are coming of age," said the Rev. Dr. Sheldon E. Mackey, of Philadelphia, the church's co-secretary.

In a late session Wednesday night, delegates voted approval of a constitution draft, though it still is subject to church-wide review before coming up next year for regular approval.

The meeting previously had decided to take no vote on the document, but on a motion by Dr. Liston Pope, dean of Yale Divinity School, the conditional endorsement was given.

A wave of happy fervor swept the convention Wednesday after it agreed unanimously on a statement of faith for the denomination, which brings together two historically divergent communions — The Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches.

The denomination also issued its first pronouncement on contemporary problems, a 1,700-word "call to Christian action in society."

It urges more Christian activity in politics, steps to bring world peace and armament reductions, strengthened family life, an open door to refugees, and an end to racial segregation.

It also describes American culture as riddled with materialism, unthinking conformity, escapist entertainment and selfishness, but it added:

"Now as always God calls us to a new life that offers genuine meaning, faith and community. He sets before us goals that are higher than comfort and success."

The two merging bodies include 2¼ million members in more than 8,000 local churches.

The 232-word statement of faith, styled for congregational reading in worship services, was drawn up by a 30-member commission headed by Dr. Elmer J. F. Arndt, of Webster Groves, Mo. It included top theologians and plain laymen, both men and women.

Only one main change was made in the original wording, which had stated that God in Jesus had "conquered sin and death and reconciled the world to himself."

In the revised form the verbs were made "conquering" and "reconciling," thus indicating the process is a present and continuing one.

Sex Offense Section Seen Needing Research

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—By setting up a sex offense research section at Lima State Hospital, Ohio is pioneering in an area that needs intensive research, Dr. Robert A. Haines, director of mental hygiene and correction, said today.

The Senate completed legislative approval of the plan this week. No funds were set aside, but Dr. Haines said the departmental budget will pay the cost of the special research. Dr. Henry Luidens, superintendent at Lima, will head the project, and attempts may be made later to expand the staff, Haines said.

Grants Application

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission has granted the application of radio station WSRW, Hillsboro, Ohio, to assign its license to Tom Archibald and Mack Sauer for $40,000.

In another action Wednesday, the commission approved the assignment of Pittsburgh station WEEP's license to Golden Triangle Broadcasting, Inc., for $319,000. Myron Jones, who owns WHOT, Youngstown, Ohio, is president and majority stockholder of Golden Triangle.

Israel's Caretaker Government Until Vote

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel settled down to the prospect of a caretaker government until the parliamentary elections this fall.

Premier David Ben-Gurion resigned as premier Sunday in protest against the refusal of four left-wing ministers of his coalition cabinet to approve Israel's sale of weapons to West Germany. Until a new government is formed, he remains as caretaker premier.

Playlots' Fete Set At Midland

A Beaver County Playground Day will be held Thursday, July 16, at Midland's 7th St. playground, with a number of events scheduled from 1 to 4:30 p. m., John Wilson, Midland playground supervisor, said today.

Children from Midland, Beaver Falls, Beaver, New Brighton, Aliquippa and Hopewell Township will attend. Events will include horseshoes, ping pong, volleyball, basketball, jackstones, badminton, checkers and softball, he said.

Also next week, the annual pet shows will be held Wednesday at 7th St. playground and Friday at 1st St. playground. Both will start at 6:30 p. m.

Doll shows are being held this week. First St. will hold its show today and 7th St. Friday, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, largest, smallest and most original. A miscellaneous award also will be given, Wilson said.

Horseshoe contests were completed recently, he said. He reported that in arts and crafts, children are making balloon puppets, pottery and plaques and are painting and assembling model planes.

Attendance at both lots has been very heavy, Wilson said.

Playground Unit Clears Purchase Of Equipment

The purchase of additional playground equipment for the Chester City Park was authorized by the Park Commission at a meeting at the park Wednesday night.

Harold Dickey, chairman, said some see-saws and a "monkey cage" will be obtained for the playlot at the park.

Miss Sara Thomas, treasurer, reported $194 has been received so far in the third quarter free-will offering for support of the park. The collection began July 1.

Raymond Gibbs, fire chief, and Jerry D'Angelo, president of the Chester Lions Club, conferred with the commission about details of the annual firemen's fair to be sponsored by the Lions Club for a week starting July 27.

Merrill Hall, director of the East Liverpool Area Recreation Council, commended the commission for establishing the playlot at the park and the community for supporting the program.

The next meeting will be July 22.

East End Driver Hurt When Car Strikes Tree

An East End man is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered when his car swerved off a curve of the Substation Rd. Wednesday night and hit an embankment and tree.

Robert McLaughlin, 29, of 1240 Pennsylvania Ave. received a laceration of the forehead, possible fractured right elbow, and bruises and abrasions of the left elbow and left knee.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said McLaughlin was driving south on the road a mile south of Route 30 when he lost control of his 1955 coach and it went off the highway. Officers estimated damage to the auto at $600. He was charged with unsafe operation.

Chimney Fault Blamed For Blaze In New Home

A faulty chimney was blamed for a fire that caused an estimated $500 damage Wednesday night about 7:30 at the new brick veneer home of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Packman on the Bell School Rd., near Calcutta.

The blaze, extinguished by the Calcutta volunteer fire department, damaged studding at the end of the home nearest the chimney. Firemen said it evidently started because there was an opening in the wall of the house or the chimney at the point where the chimney joins the wall.

The blaze broke out as the family was cooking outdoors on a patio fireplace that is connected to the chimney. Twelve firemen responded. The fire was extinguished with a booster line.

6 More Aspirants File For Nonpartisan Voting

Six more nonpartisan candidates have filed for the Nov. 3 general election, boosting the total of township, village and school district aspirants to 25.

Filing petitions with the County Election Board were Robert O. Lanning, for West Township trustee; Harold J. McCall, for mayor of Rogers; Maurice W. Armstrong, for Center Township trustee; Ray W. Neidengard, for St. Clair Township clerk; Earl K. Bacon, for Unity Township trustee, and Alvin K. Johnston, for Washington Township constable.

The deadline for filing petitions for nonpartisan offices is Aug. 5 at 4 p. m., Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said.

Can Submit Bond Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four school districts have the green light from the Tax Appeals Board to submit the question of bond issues to voters Nov. 3. They are: Pomeroy Exempted (Meigs County) $490,000, Reading City (Hamilton) $2,100,000, Delaware City (Delaware) $1,975,000 and Garaway Local (Tuscarawas) $880,000. Generally, they want to buy land, build and equip schools.

Building, Convent Planned

Drill Checks Church Site

Fr. Francis E. Paul, pastor of Presentation Catholic Church at Midland, is shown watching as core drilling tests are made of ground on which a new church, still in the preliminary planning stage, will be built at 8th St. and Penn Ave.

Overcrowded conditions in the present church necessitate building a new church, Fr. Robert Garland, assistant pastor, said. Core drilling began last Friday by the Raymond Concrete Pile Co. of Pittsburgh. It probably will be completed this weekend.

A new convent also will be built adjacent to the present church on Ohio Ave. Joseph Bontempo of Rochester, architect for the project, is preparing specifications prior to advertising for bids.

Preliminary plans have been approved by the Pittsburgh Diocese and any bids received also will have to be approved by the Diocese, Fr. Garland said.

To Hold Down Spending

GOP Cheers, Democrats Mad At Ike Use Of Veto

WASHINGTON (AP)— Republicans cheered and Democrats grumbled today at President Eisenhower's evident determination to keep using the veto to hold down government spending.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said that if Eisenhower continues to veto such measures as the housing bill "his record will be our greatest asset in 1960."

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Assistant Democratic Leader, said in a separate interview that "the President has the real vote to sustain his vetoes, while we have only the theoretical vote to override them."

It requires two-thirds of those voting in both houses to enact bills into law over the President's rejection. Despite their overwhelming Senate and House majorities—they have almost two-thirds of the total membership—Democrats have never been able to hold their lines enough to override.

Because of this Mansfield conceded that the division of opinion among Democrats has made it necessary for his party to trim legislative programs to a point near Eisenhower's specifications in order to get any bills enacted into law.

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday he doesn't use his veto power lightly, and disclaimed any intention of gaining political advantage through its use.

"What I'm trying to do," he said, "is to get legislation passed that will benefit the United States and keep us solvent at the same time."

New Projects Listed By Wellsville Kaycees

The Wellsville Junior Chamber of Commerce today announced several projects it will undertake in the coming year.

A carnival will be held at Central Park the week of July 27 as a fund-raising project. Ted Koenig and Thomas Lanam are the ways and means co-chairmen.

The annual "Jaycee Day" program will be held on Labor Day, according to Ralph Fusco, chairman. A bathing beauty contest, baby contest, parade, public picnic, dance and soap box derby are planned, he said.

The Jaycees also will conduct a community and chapter development program. Tom Morris, membership chairman, will conduct a drive in the near future. Wayne Rose is president.

Man Admits Slaying Girl

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — "I thought she was my wife." A sobbing slightly built restaurant worker gave that explanation to police today for his slaying of a 6-year-old neighbor girl.

But Robert Ervin insisted he did not sexually molest the youngster, Dolores Stafford.

Ervin, 20, signed a statement admitting he choked and stabbed the little girl when she wandered into his apartment as she had done many times before to see his wife.

Her nude body was found in the attic above the apartment Tuesday. Authorities said she had been raped.

Ervin's wife, Kathy, 18, left him last weekend after he tried to strangle her, then urged her to leave lest he harm her.

Officers were waiting for Ervin when his train pulled into Las Vegas from Los Angeles Wednesday. They discovered he was on the Union Pacific's City of Las Vegas when a ticket seller recognized his picture in a newspaper. Ervin said he was returning to Las Vegas to give himself up. He was booked for investigation of homicide.

Area Men Injured In Work Mishaps

Three men, injured in separate accidents involving pipe, were treated at City Hospital Wednesday, along with three youngsters and adults hurt in other mishaps.

Victor Bosco, 25, of Pennsylvania Ave., employe of the American Vitrified Products Co., was treated for bruises of the finger on which a pipe fell yesterday at work.

Donald Wolfe, 20, of Cadmus St., also an employe at the American Vitrified firm, received a laceration of the left arm on sewer pipe while working.

Bim Smith, 39, of Hammondsville was treated last night for a laceration of the thumb suffered on lead pipe.

Roger Saling, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saling, 449 Ray St., received a laceration of the hand while riding in a wagon.

Kris Croxall, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Croxall, 833 Watson St., suffered a laceration of the head in a fall at home last night.

Edith Johnson, 513 Jefferson St., Newell, was treated this morning for a burn of the arm suffered on a hot electric light bulb.

Good Place For Fire

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—Firemen raced to the Armour packing plant Wednesday night, but the only fire they found was in the smokehouse, where workers were curing hams. Somebody had noticed the smoke and turned in the alarm.

Alarm System At Salineville Gets Approval

SALINEVILLE—Installation and final testing of a new and improved fire alarm system for the village has been completed, Mayor Karl Lindner announced today.

An automatic siren timing device, along with special telephones for five volunteer firemen, were given final testing Tuesday night and the new alarm system now is in operation.

Incoming fire alarm calls are received on the five phones at the homes of the firemen, where there also are buttons for the siren. When any fireman receives an alarm, he presses the button, which starts the siren sounding automatically for two minutes, alternating on and off at 8-second intervals.

The other four firemen with telephones can pick up their handpieces and find out where the blaze is and other firemen can dial a special number to listen in on the line.

The new system provides a faster reporting of the fire and a more efficient way for volunteers to learn where the fire is located.

Mayor Lindner emphasized the fire alarm telephone number is ORchard 9-2321 and only fire calls are to be phoned in on that number. Police and other City Hall calls are to be dialed on ORchard 9-2322.

3 Attend Workshop

LISBON — Mrs. June Ingraham, secretary in the County Board of Education office, and Mrs. Lois Welce of R. D. 1, Columbiana, and Mrs. Elverday Baughman of New Waterford R. D. 1, both secretaries in the Fairfield-Waterford School District, attended the 15th annual secretaries' workshop at Kent State University Monday through Wednesday. Over 130 school secretaries attended.

Girl Bicyclist, 7, Hurt In Collision With Auto

A 7-year-old Wellsville girl suffered lacerations and bruises when struck by a car while riding her bicycle in a field near her home Wednesday night about 7.

Evelyn Hawk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hawk, 2000 Nevada St., was struck from behind while riding in a field near the 18th St. crossing. The family said the car was driven by Clifford Taylor of Buckeye Ave. Police were not called.

The child was treated at City Hospital for lacerations of the right leg and abrasions of the back. Motorists sometimes use the field as a short cut to Nevada St. and a nearby alley after going over the crossing.

City Council last month requested the Pennsylvania Railroad to erect a barricade to keep motorists out of the field. The railroad owns the property.

Never boil beef but a very short time—if at all—because if you do the meat will be tough, stringy and dry.

"Three dollars for that little package!"

● We, too, are often disturbed because some of the newer specialties are necessarily high-priced. We don't like to "ask such prices." And they certainly aren't popular with the producers—they reduce prices as rapidly as production costs permit. (For example, penicillin today is produced and sold at a very small fraction of the early costs.)

But your Doctor may prescribe the newer drugs because of their powerful and positive action. He wants you to travel the rapid road to Recovery. In the long run this saves you time, money and needless suffering.

Playlots' Fete Set At Midland

A Beaver County Playground Day will be held Thursday, July 16, at Midland's 7th St. playground, with a number of events scheduled from 1 to 4:30 p. m., John Wilson, Midland playground supervisor, said today.

Children from Midland, Beaver Falls, Beaver, New Brighton, Aliquippa and Hopewell Township will attend. Events will include horseshoes, ping pong, volleyball, basketball, jackstones, badminton, checkers and softball, he said.

Also next week, the annual pet shows will be held Wednesday at 7th St. playground and Friday at 1st St. playground. Both will start at 6:30 p. m.

Doll shows are being held this week. First St. will hold its show today and 7th St. Friday, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, largest, smallest and most original. A miscellaneous award also will be given, Wilson said.

Horseshoe contests were completed recently, he said. He reported that in arts and crafts, children are making balloon puppets, pottery and plaques and are painting and assembling model planes.

Attendance at both lots has been very heavy, Wilson said.

Playground Unit Clears Purchase Of Equipment

The purchase of additional playground equipment for the Chester City Park was authorized by the Park Commission at a meeting at the park Wednesday night.

Harold Dickey, chairman, said some see-saws and a "monkey cage" will be obtained for the playlot at the park.

Miss Sara Thomas, treasurer, reported $194 has been received so far in the third quarter free-will offering for support of the park. The collection began July 1.

Raymond Gibbs, fire chief, and Jerry D'Angelo, president of the Chester Lions Club, conferred with the commission about details of the annual firemen's fair to be sponsored by the Lions Club for a week starting July 27.

Merrill Hall, director of the East Liverpool Area Recreation Council, commended the commission for establishing the playlot at the park and the community for supporting the program.

The next meeting will be July 22.

East End Driver Hurt When Car Strikes Tree

An East End man is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered when his car swerved off a curve of the Substation Rd. Wednesday night and hit an embankment and tree.

Robert McLaughlin, 29, of 1240 Pennsylvania Ave. received a laceration of the forehead, possible fractured right elbow, and bruises and abrasions of the left elbow and left knee.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said McLaughlin was driving south on the road a mile south of Route 30 when he lost control of his 1955 coach and it went off the highway. Officers estimated damage to the auto at $600. He was charged with unsafe operation.

Chimney Fault Blamed For Blaze In New Home

A faulty chimney was blamed for a fire that caused an estimated $500 damage Wednesday night about 7:30 at the new brick veneer home of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Packman on the Bell School Rd., near Calcutta.

The blaze, extinguished by the Calcutta volunteer fire department, damaged studding at the end of the home nearest the chimney. Firemen said it evidently started because there was an opening in the wall of the house or the chimney at the point where the chimney joins the wall.

The blaze broke out as the family was cooking outdoors on a patio fireplace that is connected to the chimney. Twelve firemen responded. The fire was extinguished with a booster line.

6 More Aspirants File For Nonpartisan Voting

Six more nonpartisan candidates have filed for the Nov. 3 general election, boosting the total of township, village and school district aspirants to 25.

Filing petitions with the County Election Board were Robert O. Lanning, for West Township trustee; Harold J. McCall, for mayor of Rogers; Maurice W. Armstrong, for Center Township trustee; Ray W. Neidengard, for St. Clair Township clerk; Earl K. Bacon, for Unity Township trustee, and Alvin K. Johnston, for Washington Township constable.

The deadline for filing petitions for nonpartisan offices is Aug. 5 at 4 p. m., Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said.

Can Submit Bond Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four school districts have the green light from the Tax Appeals Board to submit the question of bond issues to voters Nov. 3. They are: Pomeroy Exempted (Meigs County) $490,000, Reading City (Hamilton) $2,100,000, Delaware City (Delaware) $1,975,000 and Garaway Local (Tuscarawas) $880,000. Generally, they want to buy land, build and equip schools.

Building, Convent Planned

Drill Checks Church Site

Fr. Francis E. Paul, pastor of Presentation Catholic Church at Midland, is shown watching as core drilling tests are made of ground on which a new church, still in the preliminary planning stage, will be built at 8th St. and Penn Ave.

Overcrowded conditions in the present church necessitate building a new church, Fr. Robert Garland, assistant pastor, said. Core drilling began last Friday by the Raymond Concrete Pile Co. of Pittsburgh. It probably will be completed this weekend.

A new convent also will be built adjacent to the present church on Ohio Ave. Joseph Bontempo of Rochester, architect for the project, is preparing specifications prior to advertising for bids.

Preliminary plans have been approved by the Pittsburgh Diocese and any bids received also will have to be approved by the Diocese, Fr. Garland said.

To Hold Down Spending

Lower insurance rates for fraternal benefit societies.

Prohibit drag racing on public roads with a six-point penalty under Ohio's point system for drivers.

Increase inheritance taxes about three million dollars a year, divided 50-50 between state and local governments. Exemptions were doubled, but rates were increased.

The 1958 metropolitan federation amendment, in most ways similar to the present proposal, was defeated by the voters, but sponsors blame the presence on the same ballot of the highly controversial so-called "right-to-work" constitutional amendment.

The 1959 version which appears headed for the November ballot would permit federations to cross county lines. That is the only vital difference between the two proposals.

The amendment would authorize charter commissions which would submit to a vote of the areas affected proposals for creating metropolitan federations in counties containing cities of 50,000 or more population.

On a strict party-line vote, the Senate sent to the House, without a vote to spare, another proposed constitutional amendment. It would allow the Senate to fill vacancies. Republicans voted solidly against the proposed amendment on grounds such temporary selections should be made by party officials in the senatorial districts.

The Senate, by adopting House amendments, completed legislative action on an omnibus municipal court bill which creates several new courts and expands the jurisdictions of others.

The Senate virtually completed legislative action on House-approved bills to:

Repeal the antiquated so-called "horsethief law" which permitted private citizens to incorporate groups to track down felons.

Authorize the highway director to take absolute title to right-of-way property, when it appears advisable, rather than easement title.

Permit employes of the cities of Cincinnati and Hamilton, which have their own retirement systems, to become members of the social security system.

Include non-commercial motorboats under the marine fuel tax law while exempting Ohio River craft.

Increase examination fees for dentists and dental hygienists.

Can Transfer Operation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad can transfer its freight operation from Williamsport to New Holland in Pickaway County, the Utilities Commission has ruled. The railroad originally asked to remove its agent from New Holland, but reconsidered the move.

Civil Rights

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas reportedly appealed directly to Celler to get a civil rights bill passed by the House as soon as possible.

This pointed to a strategy like the one used in 1957 to enact the first new civil rights law in more than 80 years. The House passed a measure then and Senate leaders used it to bypass the Senate committee where Southerners had blocked action.

In the Senate legislation to strengthen civil rights laws remains tied up in a judiciary subcommittee which has succeeded in holding only one meeting out of four tries since concluding hearings May 28. Another effort is scheduled Friday.

Even with the best of luck for proponents of new civil rights legislation, the chances of enactment this year seemed to hinge on Congress' willingness to have a long session, perhaps into September.

would be happy to have an indefinite contract extension as asked by Eisenhower. Cooper said such an arrangement, which could be canceled on 10-day notice by either side, would "preclude the development of a second crises deadline" next week.

McDonald last Tuesday carried an appeal to Vice President Richard M. Nixon for help in obtaining some sort of industry settlement offer. The union chief said he told Nixon a strike appears inevitable otherwise.

So far, the industry has called for a one-year wage freeze with elimination of some terms of the present contracts.

Americans in South Viet Nam since Oct. 22, 1957, when terrorists bombed the U.S. Information Agency library, an American military bus and a U.S. hostel, all in Saigon. Thirteen American servicemen and five Asians were wounded. None of the Americans were hurt seriously.

The war between France and the Communist Viet Minh ended in July 1954 with the signing of an armistice at Geneva partitioning Viet Nam. Since then there have been sporadic terrorist attacks in South Viet Nam by small bands of supporters of Communist President Ho Chi Minh's North Viet Nam regime.

Legislature

Lower insurance rates for fraternal benefit societies.

Prohibit drag racing on public roads with a six-point penalty under Ohio's point system for drivers.

Increase inheritance taxes about three million dollars a year, divided 50-50 between state and local governments. Exemptions were doubled, but rates were increased.

The 1958 metropolitan federation amendment, in most ways similar to the present proposal, was defeated by the voters, but sponsors blame the presence on the same ballot of the highly controversial so-called "right-to-work" constitutional amendment.

The 1959 version which appears headed for the November ballot would permit federations to cross county lines. That is the only vital difference between the two proposals.

The amendment would authorize charter commissions which would submit to a vote of the areas affected proposals for creating metropolitan federations in counties containing cities of 50,000 or more population.

On a strict party-line vote, the Senate sent to the House, without a vote to spare, another proposed constitutional amendment. It would allow the Senate to fill vacancies. Republicans voted solidly against the proposed amendment on grounds such temporary selections should be made by party officials in the senatorial districts.

The Senate, by adopting House amendments, completed legislative action on an omnibus municipal court bill which creates several new courts and expands the jurisdictions of others.

The Senate virtually completed legislative action on House-approved bills to:

Repeal the antiquated so-called "horsethief law" which permitted private citizens to incorporate groups to track down felons.

Authorize the highway director to take absolute title to right-of-way property, when it appears advisable, rather than easement title.

Permit employes of the cities of Cincinnati and Hamilton, which have their own retirement systems, to become members of the social security system.

Include non-commercial motorboats under the marine fuel tax law while exempting Ohio River craft.

Increase examination fees for dentists and dental hygienists.

Can Transfer Operation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad can transfer its freight operation from Williamsport to New Holland in Pickaway County, the Utilities Commission has ruled. The railroad originally asked to remove its agent from New Holland, but reconsidered the move.

Civil Rights

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas reportedly appealed directly to Celler to get a civil rights bill passed by the House as soon as possible.

This pointed to a strategy like the one used in 1957 to enact the first new civil rights law in more than 80 years. The House passed a measure then and Senate leaders used it to bypass the Senate committee where Southerners had blocked action.

In the Senate legislation to strengthen civil rights laws remains tied up in a judiciary subcommittee which has succeeded in holding only one meeting out of four tries since concluding hearings May 28. Another effort is scheduled Friday.

Even with the best of luck for proponents of new civil rights legislation, the chances of enactment this year seemed to hinge on Congress' willingness to have a long session, perhaps into September.

would be happy to have an indefinite contract extension as asked by Eisenhower. Cooper said such an arrangement, which could be canceled on 10-day notice by either side, would "preclude the development of a second crises deadline" next week.

McDonald last Tuesday carried an appeal to Vice President Richard M. Nixon for help in obtaining some sort of industry settlement offer. The union chief said he told Nixon a strike appears inevitable otherwise.

So far, the industry has called for a one-year wage freeze with elimination of some terms of the present contracts.

Kozlov

States Steel Corp., was the host and steel executives were among the guests. Kozlov, a metallurgist, had toured steel plants during the day and had spoken glowingly of trade, peace and friendship.

Kozlov's schedule today included a meeting with Mayor Richard J. Daley, a visit to mechanized farms for growing corn and a visit to a typical American farm home.

Miss Martha Nina Grande And John A. Venesile Wed

Following a honeymoon in Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony Venesile will establish their home at Lyons in Fulton County, where he is supervisor of music.

The couple was united in marriage June 13 at 10 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church at Wellsville. Fr. William Lawler was assisted in the Solemn High Nuptial Mass by Fr. John Wertz and Fr. Arthur Nist.

Vases of white gladioli, mums, carnations and baby breath with ferns and palms formed the altar setting. Mrs. James O'Reilly presented a half-hour recital of traditional wedding music. Frank Zamatara, a college mate of the groom, sang "Ave Maria," "Panus Angelicus" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride, the former Miss Martha Nina Grande, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony D. Grande, 1231 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Venesile of Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a floor length dress of pure silk peau de soie with long pointed sleeves. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neck and V-back. Motifs of alencon lace fashioned the scoop neck and waist that were trimmed with imported seed pearls. The carriage skirt had soft unpressed pleats through the sides that swept into a cathedral train.

A queen's crown of rhinestones held her imported French illusion fingertip veil. Her white pearled prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom, was topped with a white orchid with streamers of stephanotis, white roses, maiden hair fern and English ivy.

Mrs. Josephine Hobbs, matron of honor, was attired in a blue silk organza waltz length gown with three-quarter-length sleeves. The scoop neckline and sleeves were accented with alencon lace.

Miss Carol Diorco, cousin of the bride, and Misses Paula Ross and Joan Dash, cousins of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids in gowns identical to that of the matron-of-honor. All attendants wore queen's crowns of blue rhinestones to complement the bride's headpiece. Their parasol cascades were of tiny sweetheart yellow and pink roses interspersed with spring flowers and fern.

Nicholas Grande, brother of the was best man. Ushers were George Kinsman, principal of Lyons High School, Ettore Quidione, college classmate of the bridegroom, and Gail Hobbs. Ushering guests to their seats were Anthony Grande, brother of the bride, and Willis Murray, cousin of the bridegroom.

MRS. JOHN A. VENESILE
Bride Of Wellsville Rites.

Following the Mass, the bride presented a bouquet of white roses to the Blessed Virgin. A bouquet of white flowers adorned the statue of St. Anthony since the couple had chosen his feast day for their wedding day.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of beige silk embroidered organza with melon accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of beige chiffon and linen with green accessories.

A breakfast reception for 200 followed in St. Aloysius School Hall. A five-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature bridal couple. Wedding favors were miniature china baby grand pianos.

At 3 o'clock, a wedding dinner for 120 was served at the Travelers Hotel. In the evening, open house was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For traveling, the bride wore a white two-piece suit with blue and white accessories.

Both are graduates of Wellsville High School, the bride with the class of 1957 and the bridegroom, the class of 1954. The bride is a graduate of Steubenville School of Cosmetology and the bridegroom graduated in 1958 from Ohio University, where he was a member of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity.

Out-of-town guests were from Fairview, N. J., Vernon, N. Y., Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Wooster, Lyons, Lisbon, Chester, Newell, Steubenville, Weirton, Youngstown, Alliance, Wheeling, Dillonville and Morenci, Mich.

Miss Martha Nina Grande And John A. Venesile Wed

MRS. JOHN A. VENESILE
Bride Of Wellsville Rites.

Following a honeymoon in Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony Venesile will establish their home at Lyons in Fulton County, where he is supervisor of music.

The couple was united in marriage June 13 at 10 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church at Wellsville. Fr. William Lawler was assisted in the Solemn High Nuptial Mass by Fr. John Wertz and Fr. Arthur Nist.

Vases of white gladioli, mums, carnations and baby breath with ferns and palms formed the altar setting. Mrs. James O'Reilly presented a half-hour recital of traditional wedding music. Frank Zamatara, a college mate of the groom, sang "Ave Maria," "Panus Angelicus" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride, the former Miss Martha Nina Grande, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony D. Grande, 1231 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Venesile of Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a floor length dress of pure silk peau de soie with long pointed sleeves. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neck and V-back. Motifs of alencon lace fashioned the scoop neck and waist that were trimmed with imported seed pearls. The carriage skirt had soft unpressed pleats through the sides that swept into a cathedral train.

A queen's crown of rhinestones held her imported French illusion fingertip veil. Her white pearled prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom, was topped with a white orchid with streamers of stephanotis, white roses, maiden hair fern and English ivy.

Mrs. Josephine Hobbs, matron of honor, was attired in a blue silk organza waltz length gown with three-quarter-length sleeves. The scoop neckline and sleeves were accented with alencon lace.

Miss Carol Diorco, cousin of the bride, and Misses Paula Ross and Joan Dash, cousins of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids in gowns identical to that of the matron-of-honor. All attendants wore queen's crowns of blue rhinestones to complement the bride's headpiece. Their parasol cascades were of tiny sweetheart yellow and pink roses interspersed with spring flowers and fern.

Nicholas Grande, brother of the was best man. Ushers were George Kinsman, principal of Lyons High School, Ettore Quidione, college classmate of the bridegroom, and Gail Hobbs. Ushering guests to their seats were Anthony Grande, brother of the bride, and Willis Murray, cousin of the bridegroom.

Following the Mass, the bride presented a bouquet of white roses to the Blessed Virgin. A bouquet of white flowers adorned the statue of St. Anthony since the couple had chosen his feast day for their wedding day.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of beige silk embroidered organza with melon accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of beige chiffon and linen with green accessories.

A breakfast reception for 200 followed in St. Aloysius School Hall. A five-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature bridal couple. Wedding favors were miniature china baby grand pianos.

At 3 o'clock, a wedding dinner for 120 was served at the Travelers Hotel. In the evening, open house was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For traveling, the bride wore a white two-piece suit with blue and white accessories.

Both are graduates of Wellsville High School, the bride with the class of 1957 and the bridegroom, the class of 1954. The bride is a graduate of Steubenville School of Cosmetology and the bridegroom graduated in 1958 from Ohio University, where he was a member of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity.

Out-of-town guests were from Fairview, N. J., Vernon, N. Y., Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Wooster, Lyons, Lisbon, Chester, Newell, Steubenville, Weirton, Youngstown, Alliance, Wheeling, Dillonville and Morenci, Mich.

County Gets $632,113 From Real Estate Tax

LISBON — Second-half real estate tax collections through Wednesday noon totaled $632,113, about $1,695,956 short of the anticipated total, although the deadline is less than a week away, County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge reported.

The closing date for the collection is July 15. It is the last opportunity to pay the taxes without an added penalty, Judge said. Although a property-owner did not receive a tax statement, it is no legal defense against the penalty, he warned.

Hamilton Sheriff Files $15.000 Damage Suit

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Sheriff Dan Tehan filed a $15,000 damage suit in Common Pleas Court Wednesday against Howard Kuykendoll of (575 Biessinger St.) Hamilton as the result of an automobile accident July 12, 1957.

Tehan said he was injured when Kuykendoll's car knocked another automobile into the sheriff's car.

The sheriff said he still is under the care of a physician and that movement of his back and legs is permanently impaired.

State Agents Plan Aid For Preparing Sales Tax Returns

Agents of the State Tax Department will be on duty in five Columbiana County communities in late July to aid vendors in filing sales tax reports for the first six months of 1959, which are due by July 31.

The schedule is: Wellsville City Hall, Tuesday, July 28; East Liverpool City Hall, Wednesday, July 29, through Friday, July 31; Keller Hardware at Columbiana, Wednesday, July 29; Salem City Hall, Thursday, July 30, and Court House at Lisbon, Friday, July 31.

Delinquent filing of semi - annual returns leaves the vendor subject to a penalty of $1 for each day the report is delayed, according to a reminder from Walter W. Sweeney, manager of the Sixth Sales Tax District.

When filing a report, vendors must take along a copy of the 1-59 sales tax return, along with a copy of their last report and a record of their sales and prepaid receipts purchased during the period for which the return is filed.

The fact that the vendor may not have held a vendor's license for the full period from Jan. 1 to June 30 or was not open for business during that period or made no taxable sales does not justify failure to file a return, Sweeney warned.

Couple Seeks $20,000 After Highway Mishap

LISBON — Two suits asking $20,000 for personal injuries have been filed in Common Pleas Court as the aftermath of a traffic accident.

Segismonti P. and Edyth Ermini of Republic, Pa., ask $10,000 each in the suits, naming Paul G. Downard of Wellsville R. D. 1 as defendant.

The Erminis claim in their petition that on July 7, 1957, they were driving north on Route 7 about two miles north of Route 30 when the defendant backed his truck out of a private drive onto the roadway into the path of the plaintiffs' car.

Spinster Leaves Bulk Of $700,000 To U.N.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The bulk of an estate estimated at $700,000 has been left the United Nations by a 47-year-old spinster.

Miss Beulah Edge's will was filed for probate Wednesday. It named the U.N. as beneficiary "in the fervent hope that this relatively small contribution may be of some effect in bringing about universal peace on earth and good will among men."

U.N. officials in New York said the money would be put into the general fund for whatever use the General Assembly may approve.

Earl Schenk Miers, long - celebrated as an outstanding historian, tells of his experiences as a victim of cerebral palsy in "Why Did This Have to Happen?"

Life magazine ran a very successful series of articles on the subject of psychology, which won for its author the first award for distinguished writing in psychology. Ernest Haveman has elaborated somewhat on the series in his new book, "The Age of Psychology."

Erich Fromm, an international figure who can be highly witty and caustic, has analyzed the influence of Freud in "Sigmund Freud's Mission."

Robert Dahl in "Breakdown" relates his restoration to sanity. He credits good psychiatrists with bringing about his recovery. The fourth edition of Ruth Strang's "Introduction to Child Study" is the latest book on child psychology which the library has added.

Fathoming the workings of the criminal mind is in intriguing business. Mel Allen tries to determine what makes a sports hero. In his book, "It Takes Heart", he writes about Ben Hogan, Clint Frank, Jim Braddock, Helen Wills Moody, Walter Johnson and a host of other greats. A hero of another sort is Dr. William Osler, who pioneered in modern hospital methods and scientific teaching in the 1880's. Iris Noble has called her new biography of him, "The Doctor Who Dared."

County Gets $632,113 From Real Estate Tax

LISBON — Second-half real estate tax collections through Wednesday noon totaled $632,113, about $1,695,956 short of the anticipated total, although the deadline is less than a week away, County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge reported.

The closing date for the collection is July 15. It is the last opportunity to pay the taxes without an added penalty, Judge said. Although a property-owner did not receive a tax statement, it is no legal defense against the penalty, he warned.

Hamilton Sheriff Files $15.000 Damage Suit

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County Sheriff Dan Tehan filed a $15,000 damage suit in Common Pleas Court Wednesday against Howard Kuykendoll of (575 Biessinger St.) Hamilton as the result of an automobile accident July 12, 1957.

Tehan said he was injured when Kuykendoll's car knocked another automobile into the sheriff's car.

The sheriff said he still is under the care of a physician and that movement of his back and legs is permanently impaired.

Presbyterian Women Hear Slaughter's Book Reviewed

A review of the book, "Daybreak," by Frank Slaughter was presented for the meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association Tuesday night in the social rooms of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Howard Martin related the newest experiments with miracle medicines concerning mental health and advancement in the treatment of schizophrenia, as related in the book.

Miss Dorothy Leigh presented the worship service, reading Scripture from Ps. 100 and 121. She gave a story entitled "The Loom of Life" and told the meaning of Independence Day. Group hymns were "America the Beautiful" and "Now the Day is Over," with Mrs. Kay Neff as accompanist.

Mrs. John Evans offered the prayer for missions following the reading of stations listed in "The Year Book of Prayer." Mrs. Leonard Gamble was program chairman and Mrs. Kenneth Persohn and Mrs. Donald Duke received the summer offering for medical missions.

Mrs. Wesley Montgomery, president, opened business with prayer. Reports were given by Mrs. Thomas Fannin, secretary, and Mrs. Persohn, treasurer.

Mrs. Leland Pittenger, delegate, gave an account of the recent Synodical meeting at Wooster.

Plans were discussed for the inactive member visitation to begin in September and the formation of an afternoon group. Interested persons may contact the leaders. Items for overseas sewing and tax stamps must be in by Sept. 1.

Refreshments were served by members of the Schock Group. Daisies in a crystal bowl and turquoise candles in crystal holders formed the setting on the lace-covered buffet table. Mrs. Montgomery presided at the punch bowl.

The 100th anniversary of Presbyterian Missions in Brazil will be celebrated at a dinner meeting Sept. 1 at the church. Mrs. Colin Brown will screen "Opportunity slides" and Mrs. Fannin will have charge of devotions. Mrs. Stanley Rose will be social chairman.

State Agents Plan Aid For Preparing Sales Tax Returns

Agents of the State Tax Department will be on duty in five Columbiana County communities in late July to aid vendors in filing sales tax reports for the first six months of 1959, which are due by July 31.

The schedule is: Wellsville City Hall, Tuesday, July 28; East Liverpool City Hall, Wednesday, July 29, through Friday, July 31; Keller Hardware at Columbiana, Wednesday, July 29; Salem City Hall, Thursday, July 30, and Court House at Lisbon, Friday, July 31.

Delinquent filing of semi - annual returns leaves the vendor subject to a penalty of $1 for each day the report is delayed, according to a reminder from Walter W. Sweeney, manager of the Sixth Sales Tax District.

When filing a report, vendors must take along a copy of the 1-59 sales tax return, along with a copy of their last report and a record of their sales and prepaid receipts purchased during the period for which the return is filed.

The fact that the vendor may not have held a vendor's license for the full period from Jan. 1 to June 30 or was not open for business during that period or made no taxable sales does not justify failure to file a return, Sweeney warned.

Couple Seeks $20,000 After Highway Mishap

LISBON — Two suits asking $20,000 for personal injuries have been filed in Common Pleas Court as the aftermath of a traffic accident.

Segismonti P. and Edyth Ermini of Republic, Pa., ask $10,000 each in the suits, naming Paul G. Downard of Wellsville R. D. 1 as defendant.

The Erminis claim in their petition that on July 7, 1957, they were driving north on Route 7 about two miles north of Route 30 when the defendant backed his truck out of a private drive onto the roadway into the path of the plaintiffs' car.

Spinster Leaves Bulk Of $700,000 To U.N.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The bulk of an estate estimated at $700,000 has been left the United Nations by a 47-year-old spinster.

Miss Beulah Edge's will was filed for probate Wednesday. It named the U.N. as beneficiary "in the fervent hope that this relatively small contribution may be of some effect in bringing about universal peace on earth and good will among men."

U.N. officials in New York said the money would be put into the general fund for whatever use the General Assembly may approve.

Miss Edge died here Friday.

City's Library Receives Book On Vermont's Folk Medicine

Some find the secrets of a happy and healthy life in medicine, some in religion, others in sports. Dr. D. C. Jarvis has written a new book about "Vermont Folk Medicine" which the Carnegie Public Library staff predicts will create just as much vogue as the health recipes of Gaylord Hauser.

Vermonters frequently live to be 100 and out on the farms it is not unusual to find a man, 80, casually pitching hay along with the youngsters. Dr. Jarvis summarizes a lifetime of observing the dietary habits of old-time mountaineers. Apple cider vinegar, honey, and kelp tablets are the basis for such exuberant health in that state, and the doctor's scientific explanations are so convincing that it is little wonder that this book is climbing rapidly on the best-seller list.

How the physically - handicapped find happiness is always the theme of a good story. Jane Needham, the mother of three young children who has been confined to an iron lung for eight years because of total paralysis following polio, has a perky and heart-rending tale in "Looking Up." Earl Schenk Miers, long - celebrated as an outstanding historian, tells of his experiences as a victim of cerebral palsy in "Why Did This Have to Happen?"

Life magazine ran a very successful series of articles on the subject of psychology, which won for its author the first award for distinguished writing in psychology. Ernest Haveman has elaborated somewhat on the series in his new book, "The Age of Psychology."

Robert Dahl in "Breakdown" relates his restoration to sanity. He credits good psychiatrists with bringing about his recovery. The fourth edition of Ruth Strang's "Introduction to Child Study" is the latest book on child psychology which the library has added.

Fathoming the workings of the criminal mind is in intriguing business. Erle Stanley Gardner, one of the world's most successful writers of detective stories, is constantly trying to redress the wrongs of our court system and also of our prisons. He has written an enlightening foreword to Robert Neese's "Prison Exposures." This book comprises the first photographs of life inside a prison by a convict. "Six Against Crime" by Harry Edward Neal approaches the criminal from the Treasury Agents' point of view. The author was a T-man for 31 years.

For those who prefer fictionized exploits of criminals, the following are recommended: "The Short Cases of Inspector Maigret" by Georges Simenon; "The Exploits of Tommy Hambledon" by Manning Coles, and "Kent Barstow, Special Agent" by Rutherford Montgomery.

Mel Allen tries to determine what makes a sports hero. In his book, "It Takes Heart", he writes about Ben Hogan, Clint Frank, Jim Braddock, Helen Wills Moody, Walter Johnson and a host of other greats. Doctor Says Alcoholics Most Likely Extroverts

COLONIA, N. J. (AP) — Dr. Cyril M. Franks says he thinks that alcoholism is most likely to occur among extroverts — happy, outgoing individuals.

Franks, who has received a $25,000 grant to study alcoholism in the United States, feels the situation is least likely to occur in introverts — quiet people who prefer to remain by themselves to read or listen to music.

Dance Caller, 88, Cites Some Changes

PATERSON, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Carrie (Ma) Heater, 88, has been calling square dances since the 1880s when she was just a child.

She's noticed some changes in the dancers. Says Mrs. Heater:

"The women around here have got to wearing britches, like a man's, no stockings, and old house slippers. The slippers fall off their feet but they keep dancing just the same."

Barmaid, 84, Served The Late Babe Ruth

BUTLER, N. J. (AP) — Barmaid Nettie McCormack is 84 years old, owns her own tavern, and specializes in making manhattans. Among her customers have been Babe Ruth and the late "Uncle Don" of radio fame.

Nettie says customers today are more polite. They are also ordering more mixed drinks. Drinkers who order a "shot and a beer" are dwindling in number, she says.

Granted Extensions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Tax Appeals Board says treasurers in these counties have been given more time to collect property taxes: Mercer, until Aug. 10; Sandusky, until July 31, and Lorain, until July 29. The most time the county can allow without consulting the state is until July 20.

2 Draw $400 In Fines After Raid On Tavern

A waitress and a beer license holder for a Chester area tavern were fined a total of $400 and costs Wednesday night by Squire Eugene Allison of Chester for keeping slot machines and illegal sales.

Mary L. Hood of Chester, waitress at Bob's Bar on Route 30 near Chester, was fined $100 and costs for selling beer before 1 p. m. on a Sunday and $200 and costs for "keeping and exhibiting gaming devices"—slot machines.

Lester Fryer of Chester R. D. 1, holder of the beer license for the tavern, was fined $100 and costs for possession of liquor on premises licensed only for the sale of beer.

The two, who were cited Sunday by State Police Cpl. A. A. Barney, pleaded guilty. Four slot machines, tip tickets and a quantity of whiskey were confiscated. The bar formerly was known as the Mountaineer Inn.

This Election Clerk Got More Pay Sleeping

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — There was a time when he was paid more to sleep than to work, recalls 75-year-old Charles D. O'Connell:

"When I was 21, we didn't have the fancy locks to protect election ballots, and when they were printed up someone had to sleep with them to make sure there was no tampering.

"That was my job. I got $3 for working as a clerk on election day and $5 a night for sleeping with the ballots."

Hasty Retreat Causes Alteration Of Opinion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Nathanial Robinson, 25, had nothing but thanks for the two men who approached him on the street, told him he had dropped his wallet and returned it to him.

After the two men made a hasty retreat, Robinson looked inside his wallet and changed his opinion of them—$49 was missing from the wallet.

Mail Carrier Meets All Kinds Of People

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Kenny Sherrard, a mail carrier, meets all kinds of people.

"But nothing will top the man who ran out of his house after I'd dropped a letter marked 'occupant' in his box," Sherrard recalls.

"Hey," the man yelled, "nobody by this name lives here."

Receptionist Gets Embarrassing Switch

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Miss Corinne Geetersloh, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff's receptionist, was attracting special smiles and chuckles one morning recently.

A little checking disclosed the reason — her desk nameplate had been reversed. The back of it carried the phrase: "Give them what they want."

Boy's Body Recovered

CINCINNATI (AP)—The body of 11-year-old Thomas Tinsley was found Wednesday in the Little Miami River about a mile from where he had been fishing when he drowned Monday. The boy was swept downstream when he waded into the river to "try his luck" in deeper water.

Boy Had 3 Polio Shots

LISBON —Phillip Wickersham, 11, of Kensington R. D. 1, whose illness was diagnosed as polio Wednesday at Aultman Hospital in Canton, had received three shots intended to ward off the disease. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wickersham, he remains in "fairly good" condition today.

Ohio Trucker Killed

DECATUR, Ind. (AP)—A Van Wert County, Ohio, trucker was killed Wednesday in a freak accident on U.S. 21, north of nearby Berne. Albert Mihn, 65, of Ohio City, was tightening tie-ropes on his parked lumber van when he leaned into the path of a car.

Town Of 8,500 In Michigan May Some Day Save Your Life

TECUMSEH, Mich. (AP)—Wherever you live, you some day may owe your life to this town in southeastern Michigan.

Most of Tecumseh's 8,500 residents have volunteered to participate in the largest health study of its kind ever undertaken by medical science.

Thorough physical examinations that include cardiograms and x-rays are being given families. A health history also is being compiled on each participant.

From this picture of a whole community's health, science hopes to learn what people by types, occupations and kinship have what and why; possible ways to detect an ailment as it developes and before it becomes obvious; whether distribution of a disease reflects the cause of it; inter-relationship of diseases, and new methods of prevention.

The study is being directed by the University of Michigan's School of Public Health, whose Dr. Thomas Francis Jr. directed the nationwide trials of the Salk polio vaccine. It will run through 1960.

Currently the study is being financed by a two-year grant of $280,000 from the National Heart Institute, a branch of the U. S. Public Health Service.

Already, some of those participating have been told of diseases or defects they never suspected they have discovered something significant about influenza and how an immunity to it may be established. But details are being withheld for the present.

Tecumseh was chosen for several reasons: It is close to the University of Michigan; it is big enough not to be just a farming center; a town with no obvious bias, and a town not dominated by one industry.

A medical description of the community may point in various directions from the current primary emphasis on heart ailments, and should give the basis for a study of family health traits, since near and distant kin can be traced from the original subjects.

While they hope the current study will point to many specific fields for further investigation, Dr. Horton and his colleagues appear confident this health picture may establish the pattern of possibly several diseases and point out means of coping with them more successfully.

Dog Drops Pocketbook To Chase Thrown Stick

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — A woman who collects door-to-door usually stops at one house to throw a stick for a big dog which loves to retrieve things.

On one trip she accidentally dropped her purse containing the collection money and the dog grabbed it and raced away. The woman was in pursuit across lawns when she thought to throw a stick.

The dog dropped the wallet and chased the stick.

Resignation Accepted With Congratulations

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — At a city commission meeting a letter of resignation from Mrs. A. F. Gerken, a member of the safety council, was read.

It was suggested it be accepted with regret.

"Oh, no, not with regret," said Commissioner June Benson. "She's leaving to have a baby."

The resignation was accepted with congratulations.

Milwaukee Policemen Hit Lost Kid Jackpot

MILWAUKEE — About 30 policemen went hunting for a 5-year-old boy reported missing from his home.

Not only was the boy located, but police came up with five other lost youngsters whose absence had not been reported. All were returned to their homes.

Jet Meets Buzzard, Has Emergency Drop

VINCENT FIELD, Ariz. (AP) — Marine Capt. Samuel Newlon's Skyhawk jet met a buzzard head-on at 11,000 feet.

The big bird was plastered over the canopy, cutting off visibility. Newlon's wingman, Lt. Pat Kogan, helped steer the temporarily blinded pilot in for an emergency landing.

Boy, 12, Drowns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Swinging on a rope and dropping off in the middle of a 35-foot-deep quarry pool was a fatal move for a 12-year-old. Robert Martin drowned here Wednesday, after, apparently panic-stricken, he fought off efforts of another youth to save him.

Boy, 2, Drowns

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Two-year-old Charles Allen Kilbreath was drowned Wednesday in a pond on the farm of his grandmother, Mrs. Neal Maloney, near here. The youngster, whose home is in Trenton, Mich., disappeared and was found floating in the lake about 15 minutes later.

Drinking On The Job Just Part Of The Work

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — If you won't drink on the job or you can't hold your liquor, chances are you won't be hired by the New Jersey Alcoholic Beverage Control Division.

"It isn't that we necessarily encourage drinking among our employes," says Emerson A. Tschupp, deputy director of the division. "But most of the investigational posts require the man be able to hold his liquor."

The investigators who check whisky bottles in bars, however, are an exception. The men use a combination hydrometer and thermometer to test samples for alcholic content.

Couldn't Raise Bond, He Owed Bondsman

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The defendant in a mail theft case asked that his bond be reduced from $2,000 to $500.

He couldn't raise the larger amount because he owed his bondsman $400 on some bad checks.

U. S. District Judge Dave W. Ling took the request under advisement.

Junior Exterminators Have Going Business

WAYNE, N. J. (AP) — Business is booming for the new Humane Exterminating Co. in Pine Lakes, them from such places as attics and cellars on a "no catch, no pay" basis.

Prices range from 10 cents for each mouse caught to 34 cents for squirrel. Skunks, the company says, "will not be handled for any amount."

The four company officials, who range in age from 8 to 12, announced the firm made a $2.45 profit in its first two weeks.

Patrolman 'Nabbed' On An 'Inside Job'

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — Ray Starke received a telephone call at his home that the store managed by him had been found with an unlocked door. Starke thanked the caller, Patrolman Bruce Andrews, hurried to the store, found everything in order, locked the door and returned home.

Came another phone call. It was Patrolman Andrews again. "Would you mind coming back down?" Andrews asked. "You locked me in the store."

Hawaii's Last Male Phone Operator Quits

HONOLULU (AP) — After 32 years of service, the last male telephone operator in the Hawaiian Islands has hung up the receiver.

Tokuichi Sugawa, 60, had been an operator on the neighboring island of Kauai for the Hawaiian Telephone Co.

When he started there were only 500 telephones on Kauai and now there are 7,000.

In the early days, Sugawa said, "I could recognize the voice of nearly everyone who called."

Doctor Says Alcoholics Most Likely Extroverts

COLONIA, N. J. (AP) — Dr. Cyril M. Franks says he thinks that alcoholism is most likely to occur among extroverts — happy, outgoing individuals.

Franks, who has received a $25,000 grant to study alcoholism in the United States, feels the situation is least likely to occur in introverts — quiet people who prefer to remain by themselves to read or listen to music.

Dance Caller, 88, Cites Some Changes

PATERSON, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Carrie (Ma) Heater, 88, has been calling square dances since the 1880s when she was just a child.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: When I was 15 I worked at a soda fountain after school. The man who owned the drug store was 30. He was married but not getting along with his wife.

It all started when he began to drive me home from work. Before I knew it we were dating. I felt guilty going with a married man so I told him I couldn't see him any more unless he was free. Within three months he got a divorce and gave his wife custody of the three kids.

We've been going together two and a half years and now he wants to get married. I'm in a real mess because I don't love him any more. I've fallen for a fellow my own age.

I feel like a rat because I messed up this man's life and I know it. He knows nothing of my new love and I'm scared to tell him. Please help me make a sensible decision. I haven't slept in weeks.—NIGHT OWL.

Dear Night Owl: You were a little fool to get mixed up with this man from the start. The important thing now is — where do you go from here?

Tell him you don't love him and stop seeing him at once. A marriage based on fear or pity is doomed from the start. If you're still working at the drug store quit.

True, you messed up this man's life but you didn't do it single handed. He was at least as much to blame as you. A man 30 who gets romantic with a girl 15 is begging for trouble. He could have been arrested for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Close the book on this sordid chapter and make a decent life for yourself. You have plenty to to live down and you're lucky to have a second chance.

Charming Is Right

Dear Ann Landers: This letter is being written by four gals in an advertising office. We are all over 20 and under 28.

A certain babe who works in this organization tries to be Miss Charming of 1959. Several groups of men pass through these offices and the public relations director introduces each of us gals by name. This one particular dame puts on a 32-tooth grin (like a Cheshire cat) and extends her hand with a great flourish as if she were Queen Elizabeth. It's sickening.

Isn't it poor manners for a women to extend her hand to a man? Shouldn't she wait until the gentleman offers his? Please print this letter. She reads you daily.—THUMBS DOWN.

Dear Thumbs: Your ignorance —as well as your claws, are showing. Miss Charming of 1959 is correct. You babes who are standing there waiting for the gentlemen to extend their hands-first are the clods.

Too Much Together

Dear Ann: Is it possible to get tired of seeing your own husband —even if you love him very much?

We work together 12 hours a day and it seems we are never apart for one single minute. We have breakfast, lunch and dinner together, we go to work together and come home together. Neither of us has ever been any place without the other since we married five years ago.

I think I need a change of scenery but I'm afraid to say anything for fear he'll be hurt. What about it— MRS. K.

Dear Mrs. K.: Speak up! This togetherness bit can be overdone and I'd say you've both had it. He probably feels the same but is afraid to mention it, too.

Have lunch with the girls. Go to a lecture, a play or a movie with a friend. Bring something to the relationship from the outside and encourage him to do the same. A constant Siamese hook-up can be dull, dull, dull!

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Girl Scout Camps Offer Challenges

A Texas reader writes to tell me that Girl Scouts have work camps. She says: "Of special interest to me was your article today in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram concerning children's games. Girl Scout camps offer the kind of program you advocate. The girls from age 13 or 14 to 17 are, in most camps, placed in Pioneer or Primitive Units in which an unimproved area is chosen where, by using hand tools and equipment on the location (trees, etc.), they build a suitable, habitable camp.

By Garry Meyers

They have two weeks of living in the out-of-doors and most of them thoroughly enjoy it. The by-products of this experience are numerous: more appreciation of gadgets, conveniences, etc., at home; development of resourcefulness and initiative; ability to evaluate people according to their value to the community rather than what they own.

—:—

"I BELIEVE the private camps would follow this pattern if it were requested by parents. But I only know of one private camp with a Pioneer Unit."

It's amazing how many children call their mothers by ugly names.

An Ohio mother of three children five and seven years and 21 months writes:

"They say "Idiot" or "Stupid" to one another and call me "Meany" to the extent that I can't take it any longer and blow up."

My reply in part:

Don't wait until you blow up. Make clear to them, when you and they are calm, that they must never call you by an ugly name.

Then, for each and every offense apply instant punishment, as by sitting in a chair unamused, the oldest for 30 minutes, the next younger for 20 minutes. Should either leave the chair too soon, spank or paddle him quickly and soundly. Allow no exception.

DON'T TELL them not to get angry at you, only that they must not call you by an ugly name. This settled, train them in like manner not to call anybody else in your presence by an ugly name. It's an anti-social act, no different in principle from hitting with a stick or stone.

Try to enjoy your children at other times, making and doing things for them and with them, and reading to them. Urge the eldest to read to each of the other children.

My bulletins, "How to Teach Child Meaning of No" and "Love and Restraint," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Blacksmith, 73, Legless, Scoffs At Quitting Work

KENNEY, Ill. (AP) — The barrel-chested man with no legs sits on a platform pounding cherry-red steel into shapes and instilling hope and encouragement into the hearts of his friends.

Andrew Dever, 73, has been practicing the dying art of blacksmithing around Dewitt County since 1904. One of his legs was amputated in 1953, possibly as a result of his diabetes. In 1956 he suffered a stroke. Last year his other leg was taken off.

"Stop working?" Dever scoffed at a newsman. "I enjoy my work. Some mornings I maybe don't feel so good and it'd be easy to just lie there in bed.

"Then I dress myself, swing over into the wheel chair and out to the shop I go. I work up a sweat. I sing a little and pretty soon it's a beautiful day."

Dever lives with his wife, Goldie. Their daughter, Ethel, helps Dever out in the shop, bringing him tools and food.

The newsman asked Dever what kept him going despite his handicap.

"A little grit," he replied. "A few jokes a day and the Bible."

7 Youngsters Arrested For Looting Graveyard

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Police nabbed seven boys — ranging in age from 6 to 12—and said they had looted a graveyard of a human skull to hold their own version of a television horror session.

They were released in custody of their parents pending juvenile action.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutecki of the Elkton-Signal Rd. entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Di Como and children, Patricia, Marcia and Ronnie, of Garden City, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rutecki of Elizabethtown, Ky., Robert Mazur of Oil City and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strnaud and children, Cheryll, Karen and Kim, of Girard over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warrick and children, Linda and Billy, of East Liverpool were Monday night callers at the Rutecki home.

Names Of More Winning Units Listed For Midland 4th Parade

The names of more prize - winning units in the Midland July 4th parade have been announced by the celebration committee.

In the youth float division, Midland Brownie Troop 194, second, will receive $60; Band Boosters, $45, and Ohio Township Girl Scout Troop 267, $30. Midland Assembly 83, Rainbow Girls, which was first, will get $75, as announced previously.

In the comic entries, the unknown owner of a red car is eligible to receive $10 first prize. Paulette Jo Croyle, "Little Miss 4th," will receive $5 second prize.

High School bands of Midland, Beaver Falls and Monaca will receive $100 each. Several units in the parade, including Boy and Cub Scouts, will receive $10. Some 13 riders of decorated bicycles will receive $2 each.

Other bills of the committee include services of marching bands. The Antique Automobile Club of East Liverpool will receive a gift of $50.

According to Mrs. Malena Westlake, secretary, all checks will be issued this week.

Remarks on this year's celebration were filed. The committee will meet in January to begin next year's plans.

The group decided to name each year the retiring commander of Midland American Legion Post 481 as a new member of the committee. John Fantone, retiring commander, was named.

Other committee members include Burgess Eli G. Corak, general chairman; special events, Charles P. Henderson, chairman, Pete Vuyakovich, John Wilson, Miss Eugenia O'Hara, Alex Della Valle, Ray Keller, Arthur Petrosky, Don Parker, John Reider and Mat Brozic.

Parade marshals besides Fantone were Truman E. Rodfong, Joseph Mulach, Woodrow Jones, Donald Roach, Reider, Lester Trainer Jr., Howard E. Thorne, George Huha, Neal Tilley, Lester Barr, William Doyle, Edward Cilli and John F. Shovlin III.

Other members are Mrs. Westlake, secretary; William Black treasurer; O. N. Carter, finance; Capt. W. H. MacBurney, fireworks, and Mrs. R. D. Paisley, publicity.

There are 26 bones in the human foot.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

The Competition Is On

Since Arthur Godfrey announced his withdrawal from "Person to Person," the ambition of every red-blooded performer is, it would seem, to fill that vacant seat.

Marie Torre

No other single role in TV has had a greater list of applicants—225, when CBS last counted, and if this isn't the very latest total, it's probably because they're too busy holding off aspirants and agents at the network to keep an up-to-the-minute record.

While it's yet to be determined whether the program will utilize one host or a series of rotating personalities, the names that are being mentioned in connection with the show are, indeed, impressive.

Jackie Gleason is a strong contender, they say. Then there are Red Skelton, Ed Sullivan, Charles Collingwood, George Berns. . . . Eddie Albert!

ALBERT'S craving for the job is such that he defies the basic rule of successful employment in TV, the hard-to-get rule by making his desire public.

"I'd be the happiest actor you ever saw if I could have the show," he openly admits.

And should there be curiosity as to why the assignment is regarded as a plum by actors-at-large, Albert offers a convincing explanation for his interest, at least.

"This is no time," says Albert, "for a people-loving, curious-minded, wide-eyed actor to be trapped in one of those film series. I think I'm all those things. . . . and I think television is the greatest communications medium ever.

"For me, it would be a privilege to go on television and prompt an exchange of ideas. There is an enormous upheaval in the world today—the greatest since Renaissance—and I don't know what could be more satisfying than to communicate with scientists, authors, philosophers, statesmen, teachers, politicians. . . . yes, even actors."

Well, CBS?

Condemned Birds Will Eat Heartily Before Ax Falls

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Statehouse pigeons have been tried, convicted and sentenced to death by Ohio's legislators.

But the condemned birds will eat heartily before the ax falls.

The pigeons, freeloaders by tradition, will be lured into traps by a generous supply of cracked corn and sunflower seeds.

Trick designing of the sloping wire will make it easy for the birds to get in—but practically impossible for them to get out.

The trapped birds will then be carted off to the monoxide gas chamber of the Columbus Humane Society and executed.

The Ohio General Assembly made it permissible this week to trap and destroy the feathered friends of Capitol Square.

Public works director Richard A. Larimer said the trapping project may not begin until the Legislature goes home in mid-summer.

Rail Mail Car Hit By Blaze

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — An Erie Railroad mail car carrying first class mail for Ohio points was destroyed by fire near here early today.

It was the second serious mail car fire here in recent days. About two weeks ago a Pennsylvania Railroad mail car burned, destroying most of its contents.

The train — three mail cars, three express cars, three coaches and two Pullman cars—was eastbound from Chicago. Railroad officials said the blaze broke out somewhere between Huntington, Ind., and the spot four miles west of here where the fire was discovered about 2:15 a.m.

The burning car was uncoupled and removed to a siding where two fire trucks from Lima battled the blaze for hours.

Robert Herzog, a postal inspector called to the scene to make an investigation, said that in addition to editions of the Wall Street Journal, magazines and newspapers, the fire destroyed five pouches of first class mail for Dayton, one for Marion, two for Columbus, one for Mansfield, one for Ashland and one for Warren. The car was to have been uncoupled at Youngstown for mail distribution.

Herzog said there was no immediate indication what caused the fire. There was speculation that some chemical carried in the mails may have exploded.

Richard and Mary Clark vs. Thomas and Tilias Wilson; order of suspension set aside, injunction dissolved; judgment satisfied, cross-petition dismissed.

Elsie B. Dodge vs. Paul Conrad and T. Kernan Golden; settled and dismissed at defendant's costs; no record.

Jay W. Cope vs. Ralph W. McCowin; court finds for plaintiff for $3,500 and costs; agreement by parties that judgment be paid in installments.

NEW CASES

Midland Buckeye Federal Savings and Loan Association of Alliance vs. John G. and Catherine M. Nolan and Minerva Builders Supply, Inc.; action for $12,530.72 claimed due on mortgage.

Steel City Furnace Corp., Springdale, Pa., vs. Robert and Nancy Hickey, et al, Salem R. D. 1; action for foreclosure on lien of $1,735.31, marshaling of liens, sale of real estate and other relief.

Utility Executives Explain Rate Plea

Three executives of the Peoples Natural Gas Co. were questioned Wednesday at a Public Utilities Commission hearing in Pittsburgh in connection with a 3 per cent rate hike sought by the company in 14 Western Pennsylvania Counties, including Beaver.

Appearing were Albert I. Ingham, manager of land and geology; Stuart E. McMurray, treasurer, and John Burns, tax manager.

The increase, totaling $1,805,000, would affect 257,000 customers. Their bills would be raised 48 cents a month and heating customers' bills would go up 75 cents a month if the increase is granted.

The company said it is asking the increase to offset increased billing and production costs and increases in state and federal income taxes. In May, the PUC granted a $995,000 increase to the company to compensate for increased wholesale gas costs.

Hearings on the rate increase will be continued later by the PUC.

Australia To Probe Disabled Yacht Rescue

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—The Australian government says the air-sea rescue of Hollywood actor-magician John Calvert's disabled yacht has cost about $6,700 and the incident is going to be investigated.

A navy tug reached the stricken yacht Sea Fox with a new bilge pump today about 90 miles off the north coast of Australia. The tug said the yacht was taking water through an open seam and the crew was unable to keep the water down after the pump broke.

U.S. Files 6 Charges Against Baking Firm

CINCINNATI (AP)—The federal government filed six charges in U.S. District Court today that the Milillo Baking Co., Inc., of Hamilton allowed foodstuffs to become contaminated in storage during the summer of 1958.

Three of the charges were that the company allowed flour, doughnut mix and emulsifier to be contaminated by rodents and insects. The other three charges were that the bakery allowed loaves of contaminated bread to be delivered to a Covington, Ky., bakery last July and again last March.

Apple Resists Winter

New Tree Shown

A new, winter - resistant Russian apple tree, expected to be a boon to Ohio orchardmen, is examined by Dr. F. S. Howlett, state agriculture authority, and Dick Bare of Locust Grove, an apple raiser.

The import variety, which has shown great value as an intermediate stock or trunk former, will be on display at an orchard and field crop event July 30 at the Mahoning County Experiment Farm at Canfield.

Dr. Howlett, horticulture department head at the station, said the new variety has been successful in lessening the danger of trunk splitting in harsh Ohio winters.

Called "Kulon Kitaika," the import was developed by Mitchurin, famous Russian plant breeder, and his shown increased yields and earlier yields in tests at the Canfield Station.

It has been especially valuable with the Jonathan variety, while another import — Noir de Vitry —has exceeded other stocks with Gallia Beauty apples. Trees of these hardy varieties are not yet available, but bud wood in limited amounts may be obtained by interested fruit growers and nurseries.

Ups And Downs Considered

Metal Price Being Eyed As Barometer Of Strike

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Metal price ups and downs — long considered a good business barometer — are being watched as a strike barometer.

Recent weakness in copper prices is taken to mean that consumers consider a strike in this industry unlikely this summer.

Firmness in steel scrap prices, on the other hand, has been interpreted as meaning that scrap is being stockpiled in expectation of a strike. The idea is that scrap would be needed quickly and in volume when furnaces were started up again after a strike.

Aluminum price firmness is attributed largely to increasing demand. But underneath is the possibility that upcoming wage negotiations might break down and a strike would mean shortages.

Rarely has the annual labor-management tug-of-war received more public attention than today.

This is because of the unusual concentration on the fear of further inflation — that is, dollar erosion.

Headlines go to the approaching climax in the steel talks. But business has been keeping an eye all along on what is happening in copper.

While labor and management have been discussing a new copper contract — now overdue, as in steel — copper stocks have been piling up in the world market. Often the threat of strikes offsets this. But this time the price of copper has been falling.

A sharp break this week in the London market has been explained this way: Earlier this year fears of an American copper mine strike led consumers to build up stocks, and producers to increase output. When the contract deadline ran out without a break in wage negotiations, consumers started living off their stocks. And the supply of unsold new copper began to grow.

In this country price weakness has been spreading. In less than a month domestic custom smelters have cut prices five times. On Tuesday it dropped to 29½ cents a pound. The custom smelters buy scrap and ore to refine copper. The major producers of new copper still were maintaining their old price — 31½ cents. But that price was the highest in the world, and U.S. consumers could import it for less, even with the transportation charges.

Copper producers think that increasing business activity will mean gains in copper demand so that the present lull may be just temporary. They stress that in addition to the natural consumer caution while awaiting outcome of the wage talks, there is the upcoming season of vacations by many copper fabricators. This always tends to slacken demand for the metal.

But in the copper futures market the thinking is different. Belief is widespread that consumers have built up stocks to take care of a strike threat, and that they now feel that they've overdone it.

And because demand for copper usually goes up and down with the demand for steel, a strike in the latter industry could cut off much of the activity in the entire metalworking field.

Indictments Remain

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has refused to dismiss the two indictments against William Z. Foster, 78, ailing former head of the Communist Party in the United States.

Blaze Proves 'Practice' Run

Members of the Liverpool Township, West, volunteer fire department at LaCroft extinguished a blaze in an auto Wednesday about 6:30 p. m. and then discovered the whole thing had been staged by department officials to check the efficiency of the men.

The "practice" blaze was in an old auto placed alongside the LaCroft Auto Wrecking Co. on Route 267. The car was obtained from the junk yard and towed to a wide spot along the highway. It then was touched off and the alarm was turned in.

Wednesday night usually is practice night for the department, but the drill is not usually held until 7. The time change was made to make the fire more real.

Only officers of the department knew of the practice. A check was made on the time it took to get the truck to the scene, the efficiency with which the blaze was extinguished and on the men directing traffic. Permission was obtained from Highway Department officials and the State Highway Patrol to hold the drill.

Combines Navy Units

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill to combine the Navy's Bureaus of Ordnance and Aeronautics into a new Bureau of Naval Weapons. The Navy says it will result in more efficient operations.

Blood Donated By Inmates In New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — "I figure it won't hurt me and it might help somebody on the outside."

That's the way a graying convict in the New Mexico State Prison summed up his feelings about donating a pint of blood to the Southwestern Blood Bank.

He was among dozens who gave 100 pints at the penitentiary Wednesday.

The idea of this "wholesale" reservoir of blood took shape just recently, and Warden Harold Cox says he knows of no other prison—or any other institution or organization—where such a large-scale operation has been set up on a regular basis.

During the first large scale donation last week, inmates gave 100 pints. This time 100 more men each gave a pint. Another 100 will donate next week.

The prison has more than 300 donors listed, and 100 others of the 1,200 inmates housed in the institution were turned away because of physical defects.

"More and more are volunteering each day," Cox said.

The warden said the donors would be allowed to give one pint every four months to the blood bank.

Allowed? Well, each donor gets 15 days knocked off his sentence each time he gives a pint of blood.

U.S. Judge Approves Film Banned By Police

CHICAGO (AP) — The movie "Anatomy of a Murder," banned by the city police censor board, was permitted to be shown Wednesday by U.S. District Judge Julius H. Miner. He ruled it was not obscene or corruptive of the public morals.

Columbia Pictures Corp. distributors of the movie, had brought suit to prevent Police Comissioner T.J. O'Connor from demanding certain deletions in the film.

Mad At Human Race, Hurls Flaming Fuel

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A man who said he was mad at the whole human race hurled a bottle of flaming gasoline into a bar Wednesday. Two persons were injured slightly.

Irvin Warren Stieckels, 35, Higginsville, Mo., admitted throwing the makeshift bomb, police said. The bar and floor were scorched.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

The Competition Is On

Since Arthur Godfrey announced his withdrawal from "Person to Person," the ambition of every red-blooded performer is, it would seem, to fill that vacant seat.

Marie Torre

No other single role in TV has had a greater list of applicants—225, when CBS last counted, and if this isn't the very latest total, it's probably because they're too busy holding off aspirants and agents at the network to keep an up-to-the-minute record.

While it's yet to be determined whether the program will utilize one host or a series of rotating personalities, the names that are being mentioned in connection with the show are, indeed, impressive.

Jackie Gleason is a strong contender, they say. Then there are Red Skelton, Ed Sullivan, Charles Collingwood, George Berns. . . . Eddie Albert!

ALBERT'S craving for the job is such that he defies the basic rule of successful employment in TV, the hard-to-get rule by making his desire public.

"I'd be the happiest actor you ever saw if I could have the show," he openly admits.

And should there be curiosity as to why the assignment is regarded as a plum by actors-at-large, Albert offers a convincing explanation for his interest, at least.

"This is no time," says Albert, "for a people-loving, curious-minded, wide-eyed actor to be trapped in one of those film series. I think I'm all those things. . . . and I think television is the greatest communications medium ever.

"For me, it would be a privilege to go on television and prompt an exchange of ideas. There is an enormous upheaval in the world today—the greatest since Renaissance—and I don't know what could be more satisfying than to communicate with scientists, authors, philosophers, statesmen, teachers, politicians. . . . yes, even actors."

Well, CBS?

THE NUMBER of color television sets is growing—about 500,000 are now in American homes—but conservative industry men figure it will take at least two years before color TV comes into popular use. . . .

The folk singer listed as Jimmy Davis on the July 18 stanza of "Jubilee, U.S.A." is the former governor of Louisiana. . . .

Gene Autry dances on "The Arthur Murray Party" next Monday. Shall we expect a horse trout? . . .

The first 17-inch all-transistor battery-operated television portable has been announced. The portable is expected to be in production around the first of the year and will sell for approximately $250. . . .

Most soothing of the hot weather programs is ABC's "Music for a Summer Night," which doesn't have to be seen to be enjoyed. . . .

Ailing Oscar Levant's leave of absence from station KHJ-TV in Los Angeles has prompted "more than 1,600 calls" from TV devotees, reports the station. . . .

Mike Nichols and Eleaine May will write and star in one of the Pontiac-NBC specials next season. According to producer Joe Cates, the special will have "The Rules of the Game" as its theme, said game being, "'life—how you live it, how you play it, how you work it."

Condemned Birds Will Eat Heartily Before Ax Falls

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Statehouse pigeons have been tried, convicted and sentenced to death by Ohio's legislators.

But the condemned birds will eat heartily before the ax falls.

The pigeons, freeloaders by tradition, will be lured into traps by a generous supply of cracked corn and sunflower seeds.

Trick designing of the sloping wire will make it easy for the birds to get in—but practically impossible for them to get out.

The trapped birds will then be carted off to the monoxide gas chamber of the Columbus Humane Society and executed.

The Ohio General Assembly made it permissible this week to trap and destroy the feathered friends of Capitol Square.

Public works director Richard A. Larimer said the trapping project may not begin until the Legislature goes home in mid-summer.

Puerto Rico means "Rich Port" in Spanish.

Rail Mail Car Hit By Blaze

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — An Erie Railroad mail car carrying first class mail for Ohio points was destroyed by fire near here early today.

It was the second serious mail car fire here in recent days. About two weeks ago a Pennsylvania Railroad mail car burned, destroying most of its contents.

The train — three mail cars, three express cars, three coaches and two Pullman cars—was eastbound from Chicago. Railroad officials said the blaze broke out somewhere between Huntington, Ind., and the spot four miles west of here where the fire was discovered about 2:15 a.m.

The burning car was uncoupled and removed to a siding where two fire trucks from Lima battled the blaze for hours.

Robert Herzog, a postal inspector called to the scene to make an investigation, said that in addition to editions of the Wall Street Journal, magazines and newspapers, the fire destroyed five pouches of first class mail for Dayton, one for Marion, two for Columbus, one for Mansfield, one for Ashland and one for Warren. The car was to have been uncoupled at Youngstown for mail distribution.

Herzog said there was no immediate indication what caused the fire. There was speculation that some chemical carried in the mails may have exploded.

Utility Executives Explain Rate Plea

Three executives of the Peoples Natural Gas Co. were questioned Wednesday at a Public Utilities Commission hearing in Pittsburgh in connection with a 3 per cent rate hike sought by the company in 14 Western Pennsylvania Counties, including Beaver.

Appearing were Albert I. Ingham, manager of land and geology; Stuart E. McMurray, treasurer, and John Burns, tax manager.

The increase, totaling $1,805,000, would affect 257,000 customers. Their bills would be raised 48 cents a month and heating customers' bills would go up 75 cents a month if the increase is granted.

The company said it is asking the increase to offset increased billing and production costs and increases in state and federal income taxes. In May, the PUC granted a $995,000 increase to the company to compensate for increased wholesale gas costs.

Hearings on the rate increase will be continued later by the PUC.

Australia To Probe Disabled Yacht Rescue

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—The Australian government says the air-sea rescue of Hollywood actor-magician John Calvert's disabled yacht has cost about $6,700 and the incident is going to be investigated.

A navy tug reached the stricken yacht Sea Fox with a new bilge pump today about 90 miles off the north coast of Australia. The tug said the yacht was taking water through an open seam and the crew was unable to keep the water down after the pump broke.

U.S. Files 6 Charges Against Baking Firm

CINCINNATI (AP)—The federal government filed six charges in U.S. District Court today that the Milillo Baking Co., Inc., of Hamilton allowed foodstuffs to become contaminated in storage during the summer of 1958.

Three of the charges were that the company allowed flour, doughnut mix and emulsifier to be contaminated by rodents and insects. The other three charges were that the bakery allowed loaves of contaminated bread to be delivered to a Covington, Ky., bakery last July and again last March.

Apple Resists Winter

New Tree Shown

A new, winter-resistant Russian apple tree, expected to be a boon to Ohio orchardmen, is examined by Dr. F. S. Howlett, state agriculture authority, and Dick Bare of Locust Grove, an apple raiser.

The import variety, which has shown great value as an intermediate stock or trunk former, will be on display at an orchard and field crop event July 30 at the Mahoning County Experiment Farm at Canfield.

Dr. Howlett, horticulture department head at the station, said the new variety has been successful in lessening the danger of trunk splitting in harsh Ohio winters.

Called "Kulon Kitaika," the import was developed by Mitchurin, famous Russian plant breeder, and his shown increased yields and earlier yields in tests at the Canfield Station.

It has been especially valuable with the Jonathan variety, while another import — Noir de Vitry —has exceeded other stocks with Gallia Beauty apples. Trees of these hardy varieties are not yet available, but bud wood in limited amounts may be obtained by interested fruit growers and nurseries.

Ups And Downs Considered

Metal Price Being Eyed As Barometer Of Strike

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Metal price ups and downs — long considered a good business barometer — are being watched as a strike barometer.

Recent weakness in copper prices is taken to mean that consumers consider a strike in this industry unlikely this summer.

Firmness in steel scrap prices, on the other hand, has been interpreted as meaning that scrap is being stockpiled in expectation of a strike. The idea is that scrap would be needed quickly and in volume when furnaces were started up again after a strike.

Aluminum price firmness is attributed largely to increasing demand. But underneath is the possibility that upcoming wage negotiations might break down and a strike would mean shortages.

Rarely has the annual labor-management tug-of-war received more public attention than today.

This is because of the unusual concentration on the fear of further inflation — that is, dollar erosion.

Headlines go to the approaching climax in the steel talks. But business has been keeping an eye all along on what is happening in copper.

While labor and management have been discussing a new copper contract — now overdue, as in steel — copper stocks have been piling up in the world market. Often the threat of strikes offsets this. But this time the price of copper has been falling.

A sharp break this week in the London market has been explained this way: Earlier this year fears of an American copper mine strike led consumers to build up stocks, and producers to increase output. When the contract deadline ran out without a break in wage negotiations, consumers started living off their stocks. And the supply of unsold new copper began to grow.

In this country price weakness has been spreading. In less than a month domestic custom smelters have cut prices five times. On Tuesday it dropped to 29½ cents a pound. The custom smelters buy scrap and ore to refine copper. The major producers of new copper still were maintaining their old price — 31½ cents. But that price was the highest in the world, and U.S. consumers could import it for less, even with the transportation charges.

Copper producers think that increasing business activity will mean gains in copper demand so that the present lull may be just temporary. They stress that in addition to the natural consumer caution while awaiting outcome of the wage talks, there is the upcoming season of vacations by many copper fabricators. This always tends to slacken demand for the metal.

But in the copper futures market the thinking is different. Belief is widespread that consumers have built up stocks to take care of a strike threat, and that they now feel that they've overdone it.

And because demand for copper usually goes up and down with the demand for steel, a strike in the latter industry could cut off much of the activity in the entire metalworking field.

Indictments Remain

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has refused to dismiss the two indictments against William Z. Foster, 78, ailing former head of the Communist Party in the United States.

Blaze Proves 'Practice' Run

Members of the Liverpool Township, West, volunteer fire department at LaCroft extinguished a blaze in an auto Wednesday about 6:30 p. m. and then discovered the whole thing had been staged by department officials to check the efficiency of the men.

The "practice" blaze was in an old auto placed alongside the LaCroft Auto Wrecking Co. on Route 267. The car was obtained from the junk yard and towed to a wide spot along the highway. It then was touched off and the alarm was turned in.

Wednesday night usually is practice night for the department, but the drill is not usually held until 7. The time change was made to make the fire more real.

Only officers of the department knew of the practice. A check was made on the time it took to get the truck to the scene, the efficiency with which the blaze was extinguished and on the men directing traffic. Permission was obtained from Highway Department officials and the State Highway Patrol to hold the drill.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill to combine the Navy's Bureaus of Ordnance and Aeronautics into a new Bureau of Naval Weapons. The Navy says it will result in more efficient operations.

Blood Donated By Inmates In New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — "I figure it won't hurt me and it might help somebody on the outside."

That's the way a graying convict in the New Mexico State Prison summed up his feelings about donating a pint of blood to the Southwestern Blood Bank.

He was among dozens who gave 100 pints at the penitentiary Wednesday.

The idea of this "wholesale" reservoir of blood took shape just recently, and Warden Harold Cox says he knows of no other prison—or any other institution or organization—where such a large-scale operation has been set up on a regular basis.

During the first large scale donation last week, inmates gave 100 pints. This time 100 more men each gave a pint. Another 100 will donate next week.

The prison has more than 300 donors listed, and 100 others of the 1,200 inmates housed in the institution were turned away because of physical defects.

"More and more are volunteering each day," Cox said.

The warden said the donors would be allowed to give one pint every four months to the blood bank.

Allowed? Well, each donor gets 15 days knocked off his sentence each time he gives a pint of blood.

U.S. Judge Approves Film Banned By Police

CHICAGO (AP) — The movie "Anatomy of a Murder," banned by the city police censor board, was permitted to be shown Wednesday by U.S. District Judge Julius H. Miner. He ruled it was not obscene or corruptive of the public morals.

Columbia Pictures Corp. distributors of the movie, had brought suit to prevent Police Comissioner T.J. O'Connor from demanding certain deletions in the film.

Mad At Human Race, Hurls Flaming Fuel

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A man who said he was mad at the whole human race hurled a bottle of flaming gasoline into a bar Wednesday. Two persons were injured slightly.

Irvin Warren Stieckels, 35, Higginsville, Mo., admitted throwing the makeshift bomb, police said. The bar and floor were scorched.

Hutchinson New Manager Of Reds, Replacing Mayo Smith

Finds Cincinnati In Seventh Place

CINCINNATI (AP)—Burly Fred Hutchinson takes over tonight in one of baseball's managerial hot seats—manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul announced Wednesday that Mayo Smith had been fired after directing the team through only 80 league games and that Hutchinson had been named to replace him.

Hutchinson, former pilot of the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals, has been managing Seattle of the Pacific Coast League, a Cincinnati farm club affiliate.

In coming here, Hutchinson will be the 10th manager of the Reds since 1947. He will be the fourth in less than a year although one of them—Jimmy Dykes—had only a "interim" tenure last year after Birdie Tebbetts quit.

"Hutch" will be taking over a club mired in seventh place, 10½ games out of first. It is a club so admittedly weak in pitching that Smith singled out that phase Wednesday night as a major reason for the team's plight.

Paul said Hutchinson would be signed to a contract running through the 1960 season when he arrives here today from Seattle. The terms were not disclosed.

The Reds open a series with San Francisco tonight.

Paul's terse announcement of the managerial change said Smith had been his "personal" choice when he was hired.

He added that Smith had been offered a job in the Cincinnati organization but Smith asserted he had not yet decided whether to accept it although he declared "I want to stay in baseball."

Hutchinson spent his playing days as a pitcher with Detroit. He then managed the Tigers from July 5, 1952 through 1954. After that he had a year as manager in Seattle and then took over the St. Louis Cardinals for three seasons, being let out last fall. Then he went back to Seattle. He is 39 years old.

FRED HUTCHINSON
Will Steer Cincinnati.

The firing of Smith was not unexpected. He never had been popular with the Cincinnati fans. But that was none of his doing—at least until the Reds went into their most recent tailspin.

When Tebbetts quit last season after the Reds slumped deep into the second division, Dykes, then a coach here, was named as the "interim" manager.

Under him, the club rallied and finished fourth. However, Paul and the other team official bypassed Dykes when it came time to name a permanent manager. They chose Smith and the fans did not like it.

During his 80 - game tenure, Smith had the Reds up close to the top early in the season. They even were in first place for one day in May. Then as the pitching slumped, the hitters also faded.

Becerra Floors Halimi In Eighth Round

Bantamweight Bout Ends In Upset Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I went out there to knock him out in the first round," said smiling Jose Becerra after punching the world bantamweight crown from the handsome head of France's Alphonse Halimi.

It actually took the little buzz saw from Guadalajara, Mexico, eight savage rounds to cut down Halimi, who hadn't been off his feet in 28 professional fights.

A crowd of 15,110 sat and shouted in air conditioned comfort in Los Angeles' spanking new sports arena as the fighters set a pace that couldn't continue 15 rounds.

Somebody had to give—and it was the champion from French North Africa who hit the deck twice in the eighth round and was counted out.

Halimi began peppering away at the pressing challenger with a long jab. But he soon switched and bombed away at Becerra in savage infighting.

Although Becerra said later he was jarred only once — in the seventh, Halimi shook the 23-year-old Mexican repeatedly with explosive right and left hooks to the head.

Halimi made his last stand in Becerra's corner. He tried gamely to punch away the swarming challenger, but Becerra was on him like a swarm of wasps.

A right smash to the jaw started Halimi tumbling. Becerra dug in a vicious left hook to the ribs as Halimi slipped between the ropes and landed flat on his back.

Becerra, who has knocked out 21 of his 36 fight opponents, said he's ready and willing to meet Halimi in a rematch.

Indians Open Second Half With Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—The Cleveland Indians ended the first half of the American League schedule 12 games over the .500 mark and manager Joe Gordon says if they do as well in the second half they will win the pennant.

The league-leading Tribe opens a two-game series with the runner-up Chicago White Sox tonight.

Gordon pointed out that 24 games over .500 for the season would give the Indians 89 victories.

"Normally that isn't enough to win a pennant," the manager said, "but the race is so close this year that 89 might do it. I think it would if the second division clubs would stay fairly close.

"Of course, we could get better in the second half. I don't think we hit as well as we could have in the first half and our pitching is just now coming around."

Gordon will send southpaw Herb Score and right-hander Cal McLish, his two leading pitchers, against the White Sox. Score (9-5) opposes Billy Pierce tonight and McLish will go against Early Wynn Friday night.

"And then Score and McLish can pitch against the Yankees next week," Gordon said. "If we're lucky, Don Ferrarese will be able to take on the Yankees, too."

Ferrarese, who has been particularly tough against the Yankees and White Sox, is recovering from an arm injury suffered in Baltimore three weeks ago.

The next two weeks will be the most crucial period of the season for the Tribe. Of the 16 games during that period seven will be with the Yankees, three with the Tigers and two with the White Sox.

The Indians came here without Dick Brodowski, their most effective relief pitcher at the start of the season, who was cut loose Wednesday. He was left in Cleveland to await reassignment.

Brodowski, a 27-year-old right-hander, made 18 relief appearances for the Tribe. He won two games and lost two and had a 1.80 earned run average. He has been ineffective in his last few appearances.

Meinert Signs 1959 Pact With Grid Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—Dale Meinert, 215-pound guard obtained from the Baltimore Colts last year, has signed a 1959 contract with the Chicago Cardinals.

Meinert, a lineman at Oklahoma State (A&M) for four seasons, played starting left guard on offense for the Cardinals last year after he was obtained from Baltimore in exchange for linebacker Leo Sanford.

Musuraca, Bonar Head List Of Ohio All-Stars

Two all-Ohio stars and a pair of standouts from West Virginia were the first to be named to the two 25-men squads for the annual West Virginia-Ohio All-Star football game Aug. 15 at Wheeling Stadium.

Heading the Ohio list is East Liverpool's Nick Musuraca. Named to the second All-Ohio squad last season, the 5-foot-8, 170-pounder starred in the backfield for the Potters after being shifted from a guard spot early in the season.

Nick picked up 224 yards in 48 carries and performs just as well on defense, where he specializes in linebacking.

The other Ohio gridder joining Musuraca is Joe Bonar of Bellaire. Bonar, a 220-pounder, was selected on the first team all-state last season.

The two West Virginia stars named to the squad are George Mills, who played end at Wheeling High, and Kent Carpenter, a lineman from Warwood.

Baseball Heads Study Aid To Minor Leagues

CHICAGO (AP)—A one million dollar financial aid program to bolster struggling minor leagues held top attention today of major league baseball officials.

Other main issues before the majors' annual summer meetings are the question of the starting date of the 1960 race and controversy over a rule permitting interleague player trades.

Commissioner Ford Frick said the question of a third major league is not on the agenda and that he does not believe it will be discussed.

However, the third major league proposal could be brought before the meeting with the unanimous consent of the club owners.

The executive committees of the majors and minors huddled Wednesday with Frick in an effort to work out a formula for shoring up the sagging minor leagues.

Charles Segar, assistant to Frick, said recommendations will be submitted Friday at a joint meeting of American and National league club officials.

Wrestling Program Set

A wrestling program headed by Frank Julian of Salem against Tommy O'Toole of Glendale, Calif., will be presented Saturday night at 8:30 at the Lisbon Fairgrounds.

Yankees Whip Boston Move Into 3rd Spot

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox blew a chance to quit the American League cellar Wednesday night, letting a 5-3 lead slip away and taking an 11-5 walloping from the Yankees, who tied for third place, in the only baseball game scheduled in the majors.

That game, making up an April rainout, was at New York. The next five are at Boston as the result of a weird schedule and a rainout.

The Yankees, now sharing third with Baltimore, 4½ games shy of first, did some blowing themselves before rolling back with a 15-hit attack. Yogi Berra, who homered, and Bill Skowron, who tripled, doubled and singled, drove in five runs between them. Hector Lopez also drove in three runs, two on a bad-hop single that struck Boston second baseman Pete Runnels in the face.

A five-run fourth inning, triggered by Skowron's two-run triple and Berra's two-run, ninth homer, gave it to the Yankees and reliever Bobby Shantz (3-2), who has won three straight.

While the Yankees make their latest bid to get a move-on in the AL against the Red Sox, first place Cleveland gets back to business after the All-Star break with the opener of a two-game series at Chicago tonight. The Indians have a two-game lead over the second place White Sox.

Baltimore has five games in four days at Washington, starting with a twi-night doubleheader tonight.

In the National League, Milwaukee takes a .003 percentage-point lead into the opener of a three-game series with the third place Los Angeles Dodgers, who trail by a half-game.

Second place San Francisco puts the heat on Freddie Hutchinson, new manager of the Reds, right away by opening a three-game series at Cincinnati tonight.

Cox's, Irondale Win In City Loop

Lawrenceville "blew" a five-run lead and Cox Construction came roaring from behind to eke out a 9-8 victory Wednesday in the City League.

In another game played Wednesday, Irondale unleashed a nine-hit attack to hand the East Liverpool Merchants a 9-2 setback.

League leading Cox Construction received some fine relief pitching from Bob Campbell Jr., and came from behind to gain its sixth victory in seven games.

Lawrenceville jumped on Dick Chamberlain for five runs in the first inning and Campbell came in to take over the mound chores.

Cox's came up with three runs in the third inning, added five in the fourth and the deciding marker in the fifth. Five Lawrenceville errors helped Cox's.

The Construction gang collected only four hits off pitcher Vic Reed who struck out eight batters. Campbell gave up three runs and fanned six in his relief stint.

Owen with two hits paced Lawrenceville.

Bob Henderson, with a little help from Joe Urich, spaced four hits as Irondale posted its sixth victory in nine games Tuesday at the Irondale diamond.

The Irons scored two runs in the first and third innings, added one in the fifth and four big markers in the sixth.

Jimmy Miles suffered the defeat as Irondale collected nine hits, including a home run blast by Lonnie Fraley in the third inning.

Fraley also collected two singles to have a perfect 3-for-3 night at the plate.

Miss Hartt Wins Golfing Feature At Country Club

Miss Barbara Hartt turned in a 47-42-89 to win the 18-hole 3-hole throw out event in women's golf Wednesday at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Low net went to Mrs. William R. Kelly while Mrs. Gordon Weese and Miss Hartt tied in putting with 29 each.

In the second division, Mrs. H. A. Smith finished on top with 54. Low net went to Mrs. Arthur Doak while Mrs. George F. Mueller and Mrs. E. E. Beatty tied for second low net.

Mrs. Doak won the putting with 14.

Equated Sets American Turf Mark At Waterford

A new American turf course record and a dead heat highlighted racing Wednesday at Waterford Park.

Equated, a 6-year-old, raced to a new American record over the a mile and 70 yards in the seventh race. Equated was clocked in 1.41 4-5 to better the old mark of 1.42 1-5 set by Roi Rouge at Detroit on July 26, 1947.

Otto Crank rode Equated to her easy victory over a field of six other thoroughbreds. Equated returned $6.80, $3.20 and $3.20.

The first dead heat of the meeting came in the ninth race when Yankee Do and Sheriff Bracey put their noses on the wire at the same time.

Yankee Do was leading down the stretch, but Sheriff Bracey caught up at the wire. Yankee Do paid $3.80, $3.60 and $2.80 while Bracey returned $5.40, $5.20 and $3.40.

Wednesday's daily double combination of 1-4, Now Margaret and Tryoclees, paid $189.20.

Jockey Paul Ward added three more winners and pushed his winning mounts to 26.

Hutchinson New Manager Of Reds, Replacing Mayo Smith

Finds Cincinnati In Seventh Place

CINCINNATI (AP)—Burly Fred Hutchinson takes over tonight in one of baseball's managerial hot seats—manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul announced Wednesday that Mayo Smith had been fired after directing the team through only 80 league games and that Hutchinson had been named to replace him.

Hutchinson, former pilot of the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals, has been managing Seattle of the Pacific Coast League, a Cincinnati farm club affiliate.

In coming here, Hutchinson will be the 10th manager of the Reds since 1947. He will be the fourth in less than a year although one of them—Jimmy Dykes—had only a "interim" tenure last year after Birdie Tebbetts quit.

"Hutch" will be taking over a club mired in seventh place, 10½ games out of first. It is a club so admittedly weak in pitching that Smith singled out that phase Wednesday night as a major reason for the team's plight.

Paul said Hutchinson would be signed to a contract running through the 1960 season when he arrives here today from Seattle. The terms were not disclosed.

The Reds open a series with San Francisco tonight.

Paul's terse announcement of the managerial change said Smith had been his "personal" choice when he was hired.

He added that Smith had been offered a job in the Cincinnati organization but Smith asserted he had not yet decided whether to accept it although he declared "I want to stay in baseball."

Hutchinson spent his playing days as a pitcher with Detroit. He then managed the Tigers from July 5, 1952 through 1954. After that he had a year as manager in Seattle and then took over the St. Louis Cardinals for three seasons, being let out last fall. Then he went back to Seattle. He is 39 years old.

FRED HUTCHINSON
Will Steer Cincinnati.

The firing of Smith was not unexpected. He never had been popular with the Cincinnati fans. But that was none of his doing—at least until the Reds went into their most recent tailspin.

When Tebbetts quit last season after the Reds slumped deep into the second division, Dykes, then a coach here, was named as the "interim" manager.

Under him, the club rallied and finished fourth. However, Paul and the other team official bypassed Dykes when it came time to name a permanent manager. They chose Smith and the fans did not like it.

During his 80 - game tenure, Smith had the Reds up close to the top early in the season. They even were in first place for one day in May. Then as the pitching slumped, the hitters also faded.

Becerra Floors Halimi In Eighth Round

Bantamweight Bout Ends In Upset Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I went out there to knock him out in the first round," said smiling Jose Becerra after punching the world bantamweight crown from the handsome head of France's Alphonse Halimi.

It actually took the little buzz saw from Guadalajara, Mexico, eight savage rounds to cut down Halimi, who hadn't been off his feet in 28 professional fights.

A crowd of 15,110 sat and shouted in air conditioned comfort in Los Angeles' spanking new sports arena as the fighters set a pace that couldn't continue 15 rounds.

Somebody had to give—and it was the champion from French North Africa who hit the deck twice in the eighth round and was counted out.

Halimi began peppering away at the pressing challenger with a long jab. But he soon switched and bombed away at Becerra in savage infighting.

Although Becerra said later he was jarred only once — in the seventh, Halimi shook the 23-year-old Mexican repeatedly with explosive right and left hooks to the head.

Halimi made his last stand in Becerra's corner. He tried gamely to punch away the swarming challenger, but Becerra was on him like a swarm of wasps.

A right smash to the jaw started Halimi tumbling. Becerra dug in a vicious left hook to the ribs as Halimi slipped between the ropes and landed flat on his back.

Becerra, who has knocked out 21 of his 36 fight opponents, said he's ready and willing to meet Halimi in a rematch.

Indians Open Second Half With Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—The Cleveland Indians ended the first half of the American League schedule 12 games over the .500 mark and manager Joe Gordon says if they do as well in the second half they will win the pennant.

The league-leading Tribe opens a two-game series with the runner-up Chicago White Sox tonight.

Gordon pointed out that 24 games over .500 for the season would give the Indians 89 victories.

"Normally that isn't enough to win a pennant," the manager said, "but the race is so close this year that 89 might do it. I think it would if the second division clubs would stay fairly close.

"Of course, we could get better in the second half. I don't think we hit as well as we could have in the first half and our pitching is just now coming around."

Gordon will send southpaw Herb Score and right-hander Cal McLish, his two leading pitchers, against the White Sox. Score (9-5) opposes Billy Pierce tonight and McLish will go against Early Wynn Friday night.

"And then Score and McLish can pitch against the Yankees next week," Gordon said. "If we're lucky, Don Ferrarese will be able to take on the Yankees, too."

Ferrarese, who has been particularly tough against the Yankees and White Sox, is recovering from an arm injury suffered in Baltimore three weeks ago.

The next two weeks will be the most crucial period of the season for the Tribe. Of the 16 games during that period seven will be with the Yankees, three with the Tigers and two with the White Sox.

The Indians came here without Dick Brodowski, their most effective relief pitcher at the start of the season, who was cut loose Wednesday. He was left in Cleveland to await reassignment.

Brodowski, a 27-year-old right-hander, made 18 relief appearances for the Tribe. He won two games and lost two and had a 1.80 earned run average. He has been ineffective in his last few appearances.

Meinert Signs 1959 Pact With Grid Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—Dale Meinert, 215-pound guard obtained from the Baltimore Colts last year, has signed a 1959 contract with the Chicago Cardinals.

Meinert, a lineman at Oklahoma State (A&M) for four seasons, played starting left guard on offense for the Cardinals last year after he was obtained from Baltimore in exchange for linebacker Leo Sanford.

Yankees Whip Boston Move Into 3rd Spot

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox blew a chance to quit the American League cellar Wednesday night, letting a 5-3 lead slip away and taking an 11-5 walloping from the Yankees, who tied for third place, in the only baseball game scheduled in the majors.

That game, making up an April rainout, was at New York. The next five are at Boston as the result of a weird schedule and a rainout.

The Yankees, now sharing third with Baltimore, 4½ games shy of first, did some blowing themselves before rolling back with a 15-hit attack. Yogi Berra, who homered, and Bill Skowron, who tripled, doubled and singled, drove in five runs between them. Hector Lopez also drove in three runs, two on a bad-hop single that struck Boston second baseman Pete Runnels in the face.

A five-run fourth inning, triggered by Skowron's two-run triple and Berra's two-run, ninth homer, gave it to the Yankees and reliever Bobby Shantz (3-2), who has won three straight.

While the Yankees make their latest bid to get a move-on in the AL against the Red Sox, first place Cleveland gets back to business after the All-Star break with the opener of a two-game series at Chicago tonight. The Indians have a two-game lead over the second place White Sox.

Baltimore has five games in four days at Washington, starting with a twi-night doubleheader tonight.

In the National League, Milwaukee takes a .003 percentage-point lead into the opener of a three-game series with the third place Los Angeles Dodgers, who trail by a half-game.

Second place San Francisco puts the heat on Freddie Hutchinson, new manager of the Reds, right away by opening a three-game series at Cincinnati tonight.

Cox's, Irondale Win In City Loop

Lawrenceville "blew" a five-run lead and Cox Construction came roaring from behind to eke out a 9-8 victory Wednesday in the City League.

In another game played Wednesday, Irondale unleashed a nine-hit attack to hand the East Liverpool Merchants a 9-2 setback.

League leading Cox Construction received some fine relief pitching from Bob Campbell Jr., and came from behind to gain its sixth victory in seven games.

Lawrenceville jumped on Dick Chamberlain for five runs in the first inning and Campbell came in to take over the mound chores.

Cox's came up with three runs in the third inning, added five in the fourth and the deciding marker in the fifth. Five Lawrenceville errors helped Cox's.

The Construction gang collected only four hits off pitcher Vic Reed who struck out eight batters. Campbell gave up three runs and fanned six in his relief stint.

Owen with two hits paced Lawrenceville.

Bob Henderson, with a little help from Joe Urich, spaced four hits as Irondale posted its sixth victory in nine games Tuesday at the Irondale diamond.

The Irons scored two runs in the first and third innings, added one in the fifth and four big markers in the sixth.

Jimmy Miles suffered the defeat as Irondale collected nine hits, including a home run blast by Lonnie Fraley in the third inning.

Fraley also collected two singles to have a perfect 3-for-3 night at the plate.

Musuraca, Bonar Head List Of Ohio All-Stars

Two all-Ohio stars and a pair of standouts from West Virginia were the first to be named to the two 25-men squads for the annual West Virginia-Ohio All-Star football game Aug. 15 at Wheeling Stadium.

Heading the Ohio list is East Liverpool's Nick Musuraca. Named to the second All-Ohio squad last season, the 5-foot-8, 170-pounder starred in the backfield for the Potters after being shifted from a guard spot early in the season.

Nick picked up 224 yards in 48 carries and performs just as well on defense, where he specializes in linebacking.

The other Ohio gridder joining Musuraca is Joe Bonar of Bellaire. Bonar, a 220-pounder, was selected on the first team all-state last season.

The two West Virginia stars named to the squad are George Mills, who played end at Wheeling High, and Kent Carpenter, a lineman from Warwood.

Baseball Heads Study Aid To Minor Leagues

CHICAGO (AP)—A one million dollar financial aid program to bolster struggling minor leagues held top attention today of major league baseball officials.

Other main issues before the majors' annual summer meetings are the question of the starting date of the 1960 race and controversy over a rule permitting interleague player trades.

Commissioner Ford Frick said the question of a third major league is not on the agenda and that he does not believe it will be discussed.

However, the third major league proposal could be brought before the meeting with the unanimous consent of the club owners.

The executive committees of the majors and minors huddled Wednesday with Frick in an effort to work out a formula for shoring up the sagging minor leagues.

Charles Segar, assistant to Frick, said recommendations will be submitted Friday at a joint meeting of American and National league club officials.

Equated Sets American Turf Mark At Waterford

A new American turf course record and a dead heat highlighted racing Wednesday at Waterford Park.

Equated, a 6-year-old, raced to a new American record over the a mile and 70 yards in the seventh race. Equated was clocked in 1.41 4-5 to better the old mark of 1.42 1-5 set by Roi Rouge at Detroit on July 26, 1947.

Otto Crank rode Equated to her easy victory over a field of six other thoroughbreds. Equated returned $6.80, $3.20 and $3.20.

The first dead heat of the meeting came in the ninth race when Yankee Do and Sheriff Bracey put their noses on the wire at the same time.

Yankee Do was leading down the stretch, but Sheriff Bracey caught up at the wire. Yankee Do paid $3.80, $3.60 and $2.80 while Bracey returned $5.40, $5.20 and $3.40.

Wednesday's daily double combination of 1-4, Now Margaret and Tryoclees, paid $189.20.

Jockey Paul Ward added three more winners and pushed his winning mounts to 26.

Woodbine Scores 13-4 Victory Over Dairymen In Pony Loop

Aided by five errors, Woodbine rolled to a 13-4 victory over Golden Star Wednesday in the Pony League at Dopler Field.

Woodbines scored in every inning and collected seven hits off two Golden Star hurlers.

While his Woodbine mates were running up the one-sided margin, Butch Nolan scattered 11 safeties over seven innings.

Richardson with a triple and single and Barton's two safeties paced the Woodbine hitting department. Mullen collected three hits in four trips for Golden Star.

Browns To Close Camp Today On Pair Of Workouts

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns will close their three-day training camp for quarterbacks and rookies after morning and afternoon workouts today.

Coach Paul Brown was impressed Wednesday by the work of quarterback Bob Brodhead of Duke and center Dave Lloyd of Georgia, a pair of rookies.

The coach said he wanted another look at Brodhead, on leave from the Air Force, who will be out of service and ready to return when the Browns' full squad reports here July 23.

Lloyd, a 240-pounder who is passing up another year of eligibility at Georgia to try to make the grade with the Browns, drew praise from Fritz Heisler, coach of guards and centers for the Browns.

"He has the quickness you need at center and it's unusual for a fellow of his size," Heisler said.

Cleveland's Rocky Colavito hit 23 home runs for Daytona Beach in 1951, his first year in organized ball, to pace the Florida State League. He later led the Eastern League with 28 and the American Assn. with 38.

Cincinnati Golfers Continue To Dominate Ohio Tourney

By FRITZ HOWELL

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ohio's amateur golf championship, which has gone to host city players five of the last six years, appeared headed that way again today.

Of the 64 match play survivors of a qualifying field of 204, Cincinnati claimed 19 berths as well as dominating the preliminary 36-hole scoring. Four of the top five scorers in the qualifier were from the Queen City.

Dr. Harry Duccilli, a 35-year-old former bomber pilot who flew 30 missions over Germany, won medalist honors with a 71-69—140 over Kenwood Country Club's 6,798-yard, par-71 course. A stroke behind was another Cincinnatian, 26 - year - old George Frankenfeld who won the state junior title in 1951.

Deadlocked at 143 were former amateur champion Bob Rankin of Zanesville, only outsider to break into the select list; Eugene Maxfield, a 47-year-old real estate developer and 28-year-old Robert Larkin, former New Yorker and now a Kenwood member.

Duccilli, a semi-finalist last year at Youngstown, had a tough match in today's opening man-to-man play as he banged into Jack Zimmerman of Dayton, two-time state public links champion.

Dick Schwartz, the defending champion from Youngstown, who passed up the race for medal honors, met Ron Ely, a 150 shooter from Wilmington. Two match play rounds were on today's schedule, slicing the field to 16 by nightfall.

Qualifying scores ranged from Duccilli's two-under-par 140 to 154 where 12 players tied for the last 11 berths. Edgar Bradley of Cincinnati was the lone loser in the sudden death playoff.

George Bellino of Youngstown, the state inter-collegiate champion, who opened with a 71, soared to 83 Wednesday to get into the playoff. Joe Sugar Jr. of Columbus made the greatest comeback to get into the fold. He had 43, eight over par on the front nine of Wednesday's second round but clipped five strokes off the card for a 31 coming home for a 74 which left him at 150.

Two more rounds of match play of 18 holes are scheduled Friday followed by Saturday's 36 - hole semi-finals and Sunday's championship match over the same route.

The first round pairings include:

Upper Bracket

Dick Schwartz, Youngstown vs Ron Ely, Wilmington.

Bob Shave Jr., Cleveland vs Dick Quinn, Zanesville.

Eugene Maxfield, Cincinnati vs Ted Katula, Oberlin.

Robert Seyler, Mansfield vs Jim Grau, Cincinnati.

Joe Miller Jr., Hamilton vs Rod Meyers, Springfield.

Two Drivers Hurt In 4-Horse Pileup At Harness Track

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Two drivers were hospitalized after four harness horses piled up in a spectacular far turn collision Wednesday night during the featured Sharon Mile at Bay State Raceway.

An ambulance and two state police cars were rushed onto the track to help remove drivers Johnny Baker of Croton, Ohio and Bill Bailey of Quanah, Tex. Both were taken to Norwood, Mass., hospital.

Tomie B. driven by Joseph Clohossey of Southern Pines, N. C., was leading on the far turn when the accident occurred.

Six horses behind Clohossey's pacer piled into a wild jam of animals and sulkies.

Bailey driving Rapid Goose was thrown high in the air. Baker appeared to have been caught under fallen horses.

Tomie B had to be destroyed on the track.

Booby Prize, a Tom Fool gelding, and Sky Clipper, a Citation colt, won races at Monmouth Park this spring.

Woodbine Scores 13-4 Victory Over Dairymen In Pony Loop

Aided by five errors, Woodbine rolled to a 13-4 victory over Golden Star Wednesday in the Pony League at Dopler Field.

Woodbines scored in every inning and collected seven hits off two Golden Star hurlers.

While his Woodbine mates were running up the one-sided margin, Butch Nolan scattered 11 safeties over seven innings.

Richardson with a triple and single and Barton's two safeties paced the Woodbine hitting department. Mullen collected three hits in four trips for Golden Star.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Diet Planning Provides Proper Nutrition

Reducers, with nutrition information, you can rule the diet; you need not be ruled by it. There is a happy difference.

Ida Jean Kain

The body is wonderfully made. Given the right materials, the human machine can do what no other machine can do—it repairs itself. One's daily food supply is used in a fascinating way. The vital nutrients, protein, calcium, iron and vitamins needed by individual cells are selected for repair in adults and for growth and repair in children.

The carbohydrates (sugars and starches) and any extra protein (above the amount required for repair and growth) are burned to meet the day's energy requirements. When excess carbohydrate is eaten, this extra is temporarily stored in the liver and in the muscles — right on tap for future use.

BUT WHEN these storehouses are filled, and still the sugars and starches keep coming, this surplus is converted into fat and stored. Food fat is also burned for fuel needs. Fats are more concentrated than sugars and starches and therefore yield 2¼ times as much fuel.

The calorie is the unit for the measurement of fuel, and the control of weight is largely a matter of calorie arithmetic. When the excess calories add up to 3,500, you will have added one pound of body fat. Excess calories are cumulative — just 100 extra calories a day can mean a gain of a half pound a month.

But you are interested in how weight comes down. The object of a reducing diet is to set up a calorie deficit so the body will be forced to draw on stored fat. A safe reducing diet will be deficient only in calories, for regardless of how many pounds you need to lose, your basic nutrition needs with regard to repair and regulating remain the same.

When calories must be cut it is plain to see that each food included in the diet must carry its full share of the vital nutrients, otherwise body repair work would be shoddy.

Certain foods, aptly termed protective, are known to be superior sources of the nutrients essential to upkeep and renewal of body tissues. The protective foods form the backbone of any safe reducing diet.

Here they are: Lean meat, fish and chicken; eggs, milk and cheese or cottage cheese; fruits, including a citrus fruit; vegetables, including a green and yellow; and whole grain cereal or bread.

THE CALORIES must be restricted in the foods which supply only fuel. These are sometimes termed "empty" calories for they do not carry their share of protection.

Sources of "empty" calories are cooking fats, sugar, alcohol and poor quality baked goods. Unfortunatedly, our present way of eating is often excessive in "empty" calories. This leads to overweight and poor nutrition.

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for "Mr. And Mrs. Reducing Plan." Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

CD Group Plans For Alert July 19

Plans for a Civil Defense alert Sunday, July 19, were made at a meeting of the 5th Platoon of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night in the Glenmoor fire station.

Team leaders will meet Saturday evening at the fire station to make further plans. Kenneth Long, platoon leader, and Herman Heiney, fire chief, presided.

The platoon's picnic will be held July 26 at Willow Grove Park at Lisbon. It previously had been set for July 19.

Staff members and the mass-feeding team will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Civil Defense headquarters at Lisbon. A staff meeting will be held and the team will attend training classes.

The next regular meeting will be July 21 in the Glenmoor fire hall.

Save your bacon drippings and use them in cornbread. But be sure you cook your bacon over extremely low heat so the drippings will be a pale color, unscorched.

Jehovah's Witnesses Hit Argentine's Rules

Donald Devich, Midland Jehovah's Witnesses minister, said today he has learned that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship.

Devich said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime a few non-Catholic religious groups have yet to be recognized.

He said that more than 6,000 Jehovah's Witnesses there are circulating a petition asking recognition. Petitions also are being circulated in neighboring countries telling of the condition existing in Argentina, Devich said.

42 Youngsters Qualify For Kindergarten Class

A total of 72 persons registered their children for kindergarten classes in Wellsville Tuesday, but school officials said only 42 of the children are qualified to enter in September.

About 15 others are expected to qualify before the term starts in September by obtaining the necessary vaccinations and immunizations.

Sixty-four were in the class last year. Registration was lower this year and officials said a new age restriction and compulsory polio shots required in a new state law may have kept some from registering.

The child must have attained the fifth birthday on or before Oct. 31. Previously, the child did not have to be 5 until January. Registration, held at McDonald School, was for the Fairview district also.

Ingot Steel Production Record Set At Weirton

WEIRTON — The Weirton Steel Co. achieved the greatest production yield of ingot steel in the company's history in the first six months of 1959, it was announced Wednesday by A. J. Berdis, president.

Output in the 14-furnace open hearth shop was 72,855 tons greater than the best previous six-month record, which was made in the last half of 1956.

The record open hearth production also resulted in the greatest shipments of all products. Weirton currently is operating at top capacity and peak employment, with prospects of maintaining high levels during the second half, Berdis said.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Diet Planning Provides Proper Nutrition

Reducers, with nutrition information, you can rule the diet; you need not be ruled by it. There is a happy difference.

Ida Jean Kain

The body is wonderfully made. Given the right materials, the human machine can do what no other machine can do—it repairs itself. One's daily food supply is used in a fascinating way. The vital nutrients, protein, calcium, iron and vitamins needed by individual cells are selected for repair in adults and for growth and repair in children.

The carbohydrates (sugars and starches) and any extra protein (above the amount required for repair and growth) are burned to meet the day's energy requirements. When excess carbohydrate is eaten, this extra is temporarily stored in the liver and in the muscles — right on tap for future use.

BUT WHEN these storehouses are filled, and still the sugars and starches keep coming, this surplus is converted into fat and stored. Food fat is also burned for fuel needs. Fats are more concentrated than sugars and starches and therefore yield 2¼ times as much fuel.

The calorie is the unit for the measurement of fuel, and the control of weight is largely a matter of calorie arithmetic. When the excess calories add up to 3,500, you will have added one pound of body fat. Excess calories are cumulative — just 100 extra calories a day can mean a gain of a half pound a month.

But you are interested in how weight comes down. The object of a reducing diet is to set up a calorie deficit so the body will be forced to draw on stored fat. A safe reducing diet will be deficient only in calories, for regardless of how many pounds you need to lose, your basic nutrition needs with regard to repair and regulating remain the same.

When calories must be cut it is plain to see that each food included in the diet must carry its full share of the vital nutrients, otherwise body repair work would be shoddy.

Certain foods, aptly termed protective, are known to be superior sources of the nutrients essential to upkeep and renewal of body tissues. The protective foods form the backbone of any safe reducing diet.

Here they are: Lean meat, fish and chicken; eggs, milk and cheese or cottage cheese; fruits, including a citrus fruit; vegetables, including a green and yellow; and whole grain cereal or bread.

THE CALORIES must be restricted in the foods which supply only fuel. These are sometimes termed "empty" calories for they do not carry their share of protection.

Sources of "empty" calories are cooking fats, sugar, alcohol and poor quality baked goods. Unfortunatedly, our present way of eating is often excessive in "empty" calories. This leads to overweight and poor nutrition.

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for "Mr. And Mrs. Reducing Plan." Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

CD Group Plans For Alert July 19

Plans for a Civil Defense alert Sunday, July 19, were made at a meeting of the 5th Platoon of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night in the Glenmoor fire station.

Team leaders will meet Saturday evening at the fire station to make further plans. Kenneth Long, platoon leader, and Herman Heiney, fire chief, presided.

The platoon's picnic will be held July 26 at Willow Grove Park at Lisbon. It previously had been set for July 19.

Staff members and the mass-feeding team will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Civil Defense headquarters at Lisbon. A staff meeting will be held and the team will attend training classes.

The next regular meeting will be July 21 in the Glenmoor fire hall.

Save your bacon drippings and use them in cornbread. But be sure you cook your bacon over extremely low heat so the drippings will be a pale color, unscorched.

Jehovah's Witnesses Hit Argentine's Rules

Donald Devich, Midland Jehovah's Witnesses minister, said today he has learned that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship.

Devich said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime a few non-Catholic religious groups have yet to be recognized.

He said that more than 6,000 Jehovah's Witnesses there are circulating a petition asking recognition. Petitions also are being circulated in neighboring countries telling of the condition existing in Argentina, Devich said.

Hassle With State Continues

Midland Awards Curbing Contract

Midland Borough Council Wednesday night awarded a $7,599 contract to the Presto Construction Co. of Ambridge for extension of curbing in Plan K, a residential area.

The contract, awarded on a motion by Councilman Raymond Presutti, is subject to approval by the state, since money used will be the borough's share of liquid fuels taxes from the state.

Other bidders included: Rochester Coal, Trucking & Contracting Co. of Monaca, $9,031.50, and the Beaver Asphalt Paving & Construction Co. of New Brighton, $8,668.

Some 2,670 feet of curbing will be extended on Maryland and Delaware Aves. in Plan K. A contract for blacktopping streets in the plan was awarded at the last meeting of Council June 24 to the Interstate Amiesite Corp. of Concordville, Pa., for $23,924.25.

Work in Plan K will be finished about Aug. 15 if weather permits, R. E. Steebner, borough engineer, said. Paving of Railroad Ave. between 10th and 12th Sts. is almost finished, he said.

CURRENT STREET projects and purchases of street equipment are being made possible by a $150,000 bond issue approved by Council April 8.

Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, Council secretary, read a reply from the office of Gov. David L. Lawrence to the recent resolution in which Council complained of poor service on Midland Ave., a state highway, by the Pittsburgh District office of the State Highway Department.

The resolution also disagreed with the observation of L. J. Curran, district State Highway Department engineer, who said that Railroad and Woodlane Aves. are alleys and are not eligible for state gasoline tax money for repairs.

Council changed the names of the two from "alley" to "avenue" to make them eligible for the taxes, as other Pennsylvania cities have done.

THE LETTER read to Council said that according to Park Martin, secretary of the Highway Department, the streets do not qualify for the tax money for repairs. It said that when Martin is in the vicinity of Midland, he will stop to inspect the condition of Midland Ave. It said that the state will keep Midland Ave. repaired and if repaving is needed it will be done.

Council ordered a letter be sent to Martin asking him to inform the borough of any intended trip to Midland in order that councilmen may be on hand to aid his inspection.

Burgess Eli G. Corak announced that two or three organizations are being contacted to set up a polio clinic to administer polio shots. He said the Borough Building will be available for the clinic. He added that if an organization does not take over the project Council itself has plans prepared for the clinic.

On a motion by Councilman Harvey Sponcer, his fire committee was given permission to go ahead with the installation of traffic lights to facilitate fire trucks leaving the station to answer calls.

TWO LIGHTS are being planned — one at 8th St. and the other in front of the Post Office. They will be timed automatically to turn red when the fire siren blows, Sponcer said. Traffic between both lights will have a green light to clear the street in front of the fire station in the Borough Building.

A bid of $809.25 by the Koontz Equipment Co. of Pittsburgh for the two lights and installation was approved by Council in the same motion by Sponcer.

A request of the Metropolitan Sportsmen Association, Inc., of Midland was granted to allow the group to string banners across Midland Ave. and to use lights at Crucible Field. Council will pay the electric bill for the lights but will bill the association.

Sponcer told Council speeding has been reported in the Veterans Memorial Swimming Pool area on Virginia Ave. between 8th and 9th Sts.

At Council's June 24 meeting, an ordinance was passed reducing the speed limit in that area from 25 to 15 miles an hour. Councilman Lester Trainer, traffic committee chairman, also reported speeding between 12th and 13th Sts. in the pool area.

CORAK SAID the speeding problem will be investigated. Council gave its approval for Trainer's committee to purchase additional signs designating speed in the pool area.

Mrs. O'Hara gave a report on the swimming pool, which listed receipts of $4,197 through June this year, compared with $2,475.45 for the same period last year. Sponcer, pool chairman, said the increase has resulted in part because of good personnel and congratulated Louis Granito, pool manager.

Council ordered a letter sent to the July 4th Celebration Committee thanking it for "a wonderful job."

Nick D'Innocenzo, health inspector, reported that the rat problem is under control. He said that most persons have been co-operating in the drive to curb the pests.

He said residents' continued cooperation will be needed in case of a steel strike, when it is expected more rats will be coming from the mills to the residential areas.

Council approved a motion to pay bills.

Councilmen Joe D'Alesio and William Vinovich were absent.

Princess, Aide's Identical Dresses Cause Buzzing

LONDON (AP) — Stylish Princess Margaret and her lady in waiting appeared in practically identical dresses Wednesday night, and at the opening of an exhibition of new fabric designs held at a fashion house.

"What a faux pas," said Iris Peake, the lady in waiting, "but it was a genuinely unfortunate coincidence."

Arriving in London after launching a ship in Belfast, Margaret slipped into a turquoise blue cocktail dress.

Downstairs waited Miss Peake in an almost identical dress. It was too late for either to change.

They entered the show side by side. The big room buzzed with whispers from the fashion experts, some of them clawingly catty.

Armored Truck Guard On Outside Looking In

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Wells-Fargo guard J. T. Sprinkle found himself on the outside of his armored truck looking in Wednesday. He accidentally left the key inside.

Sprinkle called his office for a duplicate key.

Meanwhile, James R. Fain Jr., manager of a branch bank, came up with a solution to the problem. A coat hanger, a piece of chewing gum, and a little maneuvering retrieved the key.

Sprinkle was in the truck when the duplicate key arrived.

Lineman Electrocuted

CINCINNATI (AP) — Charles Hempstead, 52, an electric lineman, was electrocuted Wednesday when he touched a 2,300-volt power line at a road construction project. He was the third man to be killed in that manner at the project in eight days.

Boilermakers Strike Halts Avon Plant Work

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—A strike of boilermakers Wednesday halted work on the 38-million-dollar addition to the Avon plant of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. at nearby Avon Lake.

Some 500 workers, including many from other crafts, refused to cross a picket line set up by Boilermakers Local 154 of Pittsburgh, striking against one of the contractors and involved in a dispute over a new contract.

Sports Director Dies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jere R. Hays, 60, sports director of the Dallas Times Herald and an employe of the paper for 43 years, died Wednesday. Hayes had suffered two heart attacks recently.

Crushed To Death

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—John Zappia, 66, of West Pittsburgh, Pa., a railroad car inspector, was crushed to death Wednesday between two freight cars at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad yards. He had planned to retire next month.

It said that when Martin is in the vicinity of Midland, he will stop to inspect the condition of Midland Ave. It said that the state will keep Midland Ave. repaired and if repaving is needed it will be done.

Council ordered a letter be sent to Martin asking him to inform the borough of any intended trip to Midland in order that councilmen may be on hand to aid his inspection.

Burgess Eli G. Corak announced that two or three organizations are being contacted to set up a polio clinic to administer polio shots. He said the Borough Building will be available for the clinic. He added that if an organization does not take over the project Council itself has plans prepared for the clinic.

On a motion by Councilman Harvey Sponcer, his fire committee was given permission to go ahead with the installation of traffic lights to facilitate fire trucks leaving the station to answer calls.

TWO LIGHTS are being planned — one at 8th St. and the other in front of the Post Office. They will be timed automatically to turn red when the fire siren blows, Sponcer said. Traffic between both lights will have a green light to clear the street in front of the fire station in the Borough Building.

A bid of $809.25 by the Koontz Equipment Co. of Pittsburgh for the two lights and installation was approved by Council in the same motion by Sponcer.

A request of the Metropolitan Sportsmen Association, Inc., of Midland was granted to allow the group to string banners across Midland Ave. and to use lights at Crucible Field. Council will pay the electric bill for the lights but will bill the association.

Sponcer told Council speeding has been reported in the Veterans Memorial Swimming Pool area on Virginia Ave. between 8th and 9th Sts.

At Council's June 24 meeting, an ordinance was passed reducing the speed limit in that area from 25 to 15 miles an hour. Councilman Lester Trainer, traffic committee chairman, also reported speeding between 12th and 13th Sts. in the pool area.

CORAK SAID the speeding problem will be investigated. Council gave its approval for Trainer's committee to purchase additional signs designating speed in the pool area.

Mrs. O'Hara gave a report on the swimming pool, which listed receipts of $4,197 through June this year, compared with $2,475.45 for the same period last year. Sponcer, pool chairman, said the increase has resulted in part because of good personnel and congratulated Louis Granito, pool manager.

Council ordered a letter sent to the July 4th Celebration Committee thanking it for "a wonderful job."

Nick D'Innocenzo, health inspector, reported that the rat problem is under control. He said that most persons have been co-operating in the drive to curb the pests.

He said residents' continued cooperation will be needed in case of a steel strike, when it is expected more rats will be coming from the mills to the residential areas.

Council approved a motion to pay bills.

Councilmen Joe D'Alesio and William Vinovich were absent.

Princess, Aide's Identical Dresses Cause Buzzing

LONDON (AP) — Stylish Princess Margaret and her lady in waiting appeared in practically identical dresses Wednesday night, and at the opening of an exhibition of new fabric designs held at a fashion house.

"What a faux pas," said Iris Peake, the lady in waiting, "but it was a genuinely unfortunate coincidence."

Arriving in London after launching a ship in Belfast, Margaret slipped into a turquoise blue cocktail dress.

Downstairs waited Miss Peake in an almost identical dress. It was too late for either to change.

They entered the show side by side. The big room buzzed with whispers from the fashion experts, some of them clawingly catty.

Armored Truck Guard On Outside Looking In

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Wells-Fargo guard J. T. Sprinkle found himself on the outside of his armored truck looking in Wednesday. He accidentally left the key inside.

Sprinkle called his office for a duplicate key.

Meanwhile, James R. Fain Jr., manager of a branch bank, came up with a solution to the problem. A coat hanger, a piece of chewing gum, and a little maneuvering retrieved the key.

Sprinkle was in the truck when the duplicate key arrived.

Lineman Electrocuted

CINCINNATI (AP) — Charles Hempstead, 52, an electric lineman, was electrocuted Wednesday when he touched a 2,300-volt power line at a road construction project. He was the third man to be killed in that manner at the project in eight days.

Boilermakers Strike Halts Avon Plant Work

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—A strike of boilermakers Wednesday halted work on the 38-million-dollar addition to the Avon plant of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. at nearby Avon Lake.

Some 500 workers, including many from other crafts, refused to cross a picket line set up by Boilermakers Local 154 of Pittsburgh, striking against one of the contractors and involved in a dispute over a new contract.

Sports Director Dies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jere R. Hays, 60, sports director of the Dallas Times Herald and an employe of the paper for 43 years, died Wednesday. Hayes had suffered two heart attacks recently.

Crushed To Death

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—John Zappia, 66, of West Pittsburgh, Pa., a railroad car inspector, was crushed to death Wednesday between two freight cars at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad yards. He had planned to retire next month.

Trucker Cited In City Mishap

A Rochester truck driver was cited by police Wednesday for crashing a stop sign after a collision with two autos on the River Rd.

Arrested was Harold Cline, 43, driving a 5-ton truck owned by Beaver Motor Freight of Beaver. He was released to post a bond.

Police said John K. Shaw, 23, of 942 Railroad St. was headed west on the River Rd. and John J. Cornman, 31, of 923 W. 8th St. was traveling east when Cline drove through the stop sign at State St.

The truck struck the Shaw auto and shoved it into the Cornman car, officers said. The right and left rear ends of the Shaw sedan and the left front wheel, fender and door of Cornman's 1955 auto was damaged, they added.

Meanwhile, police said Emory Adkins, 2036 Michigan Ave., reported the fender of his 1957 auto was damaged early Wednesday while it was parked on W. 9th St.

The car apparently was struck by Jack Johnston, 110½ Summit Ln., who was fined and jailed yesterday for drunk driving and leaving the scene of an accident in which two other parked cars were damaged, police said.

Final Class Conducted In Prenatal Education

LISBON — The final class in the second series in prenatal education conducted by the Columbiana County Health Department was held Wednesday afternoon in the Health Department offices.

Topics were the care of the baby, his needs, growth and development. Mrs. Violet Peterson, staff nurse of the Health Department, was instructor.

Janet Ellen Morlan, 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morlan of Lisbon R. D. 2, served as the model for the demonstration of the baby's bath.

Five expectant mothers and 14 student nurses from East Liverpool city hospital attended the series. Members of the Lisbon Welcome Wagon Club served as hostesses.

The next series of classes on prenatal education will begin Sept. 30 and continue for six weeks. It will be open to all expectant mothers in the area.

Host Of Charges Entered In Wake Of Fracas At Bar

Charges and counter - charges are flying around in Mayor William J. Shoub's court at Wellsville as a result of a fight Monday night at the Star-Lite Cafe, 1307 Main St.

Following the fracas Monday at 9:20 p. m., William Travers, 1229 Clover St., Wellsville, was arrested on charges of assault and battery and destruction of property. He was held in jail until a hearing Tuesday night.

In the meantime, Travers filed charges of assault against Doc Johnson of Hammondsville. Johnson was fined $50 at a hearing Tuesday night. Travers' hearing was postponed until Monday night at 8.

Travers also filed an assault charges against Vera Grady of Lisbon St., East Liverpool. Her hearing also has been set for Monday night. She signed the original assault charge against him.

The charge of destruction of property was signed by Edith Smith, owner of the cafe.

Police said Travers was involved in a fight in the tavern and during the ruckus he broke a wooden chair. No one else was arrested at the scene.

Salvation Army Sets 1st 'Fresh Air' Outing

The first in a series of seven "fresh air outings" for mothers and children will be launched by the Salvation Army Friday at the lower pavilion of Thompson Park.

Transportation will be available at the Citadel at 11. Each family will take a picnic lunch, while beverages and a wiener roast will be provided by the corps at 5 p. m.

The program will include playground activities, swimming, baseball, hiking and other games. Mrs. William Murtaugh will lead devotions at 1 p. m. and Mrs. Steve Richman will conduct vespers at 6.

Any interested families are invited, Maj. William Murtaugh said.

Smallest Beet Factory Claimed By Student

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Bernard Hynes, a 17-year-old Denver high school student, figures he has the world's smallest beet sugar factory. It is mounted on a 6 by 4 plywood panel.

Hynes cuts up his sugar beets by hand and starts them through the digester for boiling, carbonation, filtration, sulfonation and finally to be evaporated and crystallized.

He's never seen the inside of a real beet sugar factory. He got the idea for his small factory in a chemistry book.

Elephants Have More To Fear From Cobras

CHICAGO (AP) — Elephants, popularly believed to be terrified of mice, have much more to fear from king cobras in their native habitat.

Robert Snedigar, curator of reptiles at Brookfield Zoo, says the lumbering industry in Burma sometimes comes to a standstill because bites of the poisonous cobras kill so many of the elephants used by the loggers.

Phone Rate Hike OKd

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Eastern Telephone Service Co., which serves 20 communities in Ashtabula, Trumbull, Washington, Morgan, Athens and Perry Counties, can file revised tariff schedules, increasing rates by $88,844 a year, the Utilities Commission has ruled.

Favor Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate passage of the 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization bill Wednesday received the voting support of Ohio's two Democratic senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young.

Man Drowned In Rural Creek

STEUBENVILLE — A 65-year-old Jefferson County farmer was found dead in Cross Creek on his farm near Bloomingdale Wednesday night about 9:30, approximately five and a half hours after he had left home in search of a stray cow.

Angelo Mantos, 65, of Bloomingdale R. D. 2 was found floating face down in the creek at a point about two and a half miles north of Route 22 and a mile east of State Route 152. The cause of death has not been determined, but officials said Mr. Mantos suffered a heart ailment.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol was notified of Mr. Mantos' absence, but his body was found before officers arrived at the farm.

The family said he left the house about 4 p. m. to search for a cow which had strayed from pasture. Members of the family became alarmed when he did not return and notified neighbors and the patrol.

Arthur G. Miller, 35, of Bloomingdale R. D. 2 discovered the body floating on the west bank of the creek.

Mr. Mantos leaves seven children, five of whom still are at home. The body is at the Dunlop Funeral Home in Wintersville.

40 Attend Discussion Of County Beekeepers

LISBON — About 40 attended the second twilight meeting of the Columbiana County Beekeepers Wednesday at the Wayne Hamilton residence near Glasgow.

C. A. Reese, extension apiarist of Ohio State University, was guest speaker.

Prizes went to Mrs. Irene Russell of Leetonia R. D. 2; Mrs. Roy King of Hanoverton R. D. 1; Mrs. Elmer Isenschmidt of Hanoverton R. D. 1; Mrs. Lewis Schneider of East Liverpool and Robert Tussey of Columbiana R. D.

An invitation has been extended to the Ohio Beekeepers Association to hold its annual meeting in 1960 at Columbiana. This year's meeting is being held near Cincinnati. The final twilight meeting will be held in August.

Boy Gets New Chance In Runaway Incident

LISBON — A 16-year-old Hammondsville area youth who ran away from a foster home after taking $200 was given "another chance" by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin this morning and placed in another foster home.

Judge Tobin said all but $40 has been returned to the original foster home and this sum will be made up later by the boy, who has been in the custody of the Welfare Department since.

Psychologist Offers Debatable Opinion

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A University of Wisconsin psychologist has confirmed what most men suspected all along: that fathers make better mothers than the mothers do.

Dr. Harry F. Harlow told a Florida State University audience that it's entirely possible the woman may be replaced at home by the man.

Said Harlow: "The American male is physically endowed with all the really essential equipment to compete with the American female on equal terms with the rearing of infants."

2 Youths Drown

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Donald Nunley, 16, and Wayne Massie, 18, both of Rt. 3, Waverly, drowned Wednesday when they apparently stepped off a ledge into deep water of an abandoned gravel pit where they had been swimming. Their bodies were recovered. The gravel pit is off U.S. 23, between here and Piketon.

Electronic Laboratory

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — A $21,500 electronic language laboratory will open this fall at Brown University. With a capacity of 1,000 students, the project features a workroom with 30 booths in which students can listen to recordings made by natives of the tongue they are studying and record their own efforts for comparison.

Trucker Cited In City Mishap

A Rochester truck driver was cited by police Wednesday for crashing a stop sign after a collision with two autos on the River Rd.

Arrested was Harold Cline, 43, driving a 5-ton truck owned by Beaver Motor Freight of Beaver. He was released to post a bond.

Police said John K. Shaw, 23, of 942 Railroad St. was headed west on the River Rd. and John J. Cornman, 31, of 923 W. 8th St. was traveling east when Cline drove through the stop sign at State St.

The truck struck the Shaw auto and shoved it into the Cornman car, officers said. The right and left rear ends of the Shaw sedan and the left front wheel, fender and door of Cornman's 1955 auto was damaged, they added.

Meanwhile, police said Emory Adkins, 2036 Michigan Ave., reported the fender of his 1957 auto was damaged early Wednesday while it was parked on W. 9th St.

The car apparently was struck by Jack Johnston, 110½ Summit Ln., who was fined and jailed yesterday for drunk driving and leaving the scene of an accident in which two other parked cars were damaged, police said.

Final Class Conducted In Prenatal Education

LISBON — The final class in the second series in prenatal education conducted by the Columbiana County Health Department was held Wednesday afternoon in the Health Department offices.

Topics were the care of the baby, his needs, growth and development. Mrs. Violet Peterson, staff nurse of the Health Department, was instructor.

Janet Ellen Morlan, 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morlan of Lisbon R. D. 2, served as the model for the demonstration of the baby's bath.

Five expectant mothers and 14 student nurses from East Liverpool city hospital attended the series. Members of the Lisbon Welcome Wagon Club served as hostesses.

The next series of classes on prenatal education will begin Sept. 30 and continue for six weeks. It will be open to all expectant mothers in the area.

Host Of Charges Entered In Wake Of Fracas At Bar

Charges and counter - charges are flying around in Mayor William J. Shoub's court at Wellsville as a result of a fight Monday night at the Star-Lite Cafe, 1307 Main St.

Following the fracas Monday at 9:20 p. m., William Travers, 1229 Clover St., Wellsville, was arrested on charges of assault and battery and destruction of property. He was held in jail until a hearing Tuesday night.

In the meantime, Travers filed charges of assault against Doc Johnson of Hammondsville. Johnson was fined $50 at a hearing Tuesday night. Travers' hearing was postponed until Monday night at 8.

Travers also filed an assault charges against Vera Grady of Lisbon St., East Liverpool. Her hearing also has been set for Monday night. She signed the original assault charge against him.

The charge of destruction of property was signed by Edith Smith, owner of the cafe.

Court Income Totals $6,655

Municipal Court income for June totaled $6,655, continuing a moderate upward trend since April, according to the monthly report of Clerk Harold L. Powell.

June's revenue amounted to $845 more than May, with $5,705 paid to the city — $361 more than the city received in May—the report showed.

Last month's revenue included $631 in civil costs and $5,705 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal cases.

In addition to the sum paid the city, the court disbursed to the state $127 as its share of fines in Highway Patrol cases, $116 to the county for state cases and $75 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court in June was $11,870, made up of $6,615 from the criminal branch and $5,255 from the civil branch.

This total was up $248 from the sum handled by the court in May, the report showed. This money includes receipts from trusteeships and judgments in civil actions passed on to plaintiffs and creditors and refunded bonds in criminal cases.

There were 71 civil cases filed last month, 55 disposed of and 184 left pending; 122 city criminal cases filed, 123 disposed of and 19 left pending, and 37 state criminal cases filed, 31 disposed of and 80 left pending.

Dr. Irwin Will Assist In Class On Dentistry

Dr. F. D. Irwin, E. 6th St. dentist, will serve as an instructor in a 10-week course on medical-dental clinical hypnosis which will open Sept. 10 at the School of Health Professions at the University of Pittsburgh.

Sixty dentists and physicians will be accepted for the post-graduate study. Dr. Irwin will deliver a lecture Nov. 5 on "Dental and Medical Application of Hypnosis." He is a member of the American Dental Association, Croydon - Palmer Dental Society, American Society of Clinical Hypnosis and Western Pennsylvania Society of Clinical Hypnosis.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I avoid falling meringue on my pies?

A. This calamity can usually be prevented if you brown the meringue slowly with a low flame. When it's almost ready to remove from the oven, open the oven door so the pie can cool gradually for about 10 minutes. Then take the pie out and the meringue, if it's properly prepared, will remain "on high."

Q. How can I avoid unsightly blotches of white starch on dark-colored clothes?

A. By tinting your starch solution before using it. Use tea or coffee for browns, bluing for blues, or you can use commercial dyes.

Q. What is a good substitute for toothpaste?

A. A half - and - half mixture of baking soda and salt makes a fine cleanser for your "ivories."

U.S. To Pay Near-Record Interest Rate To Borrow

WASHINGTON (AP)— A near-record interest rate on government borrowing pointed up today the Eisenhower administration's contention it must be permitted to offer more for long term bonds.

The Treasury announced Wednesday night it will pay nearly 4¾ per cent—the highest rate in 38 years—to borrow two billion dollars for a year. The rate was determined by bids.

The announcement came a few hours after the House Ways and Means Committee approved a compromise plan permitting President Eisenhower to set aside the 4¼ per cent interest limit which the law puts on bonds issued for five years or longer. The authority was limited to two years.

There was no direct relation between the committee's action and the Treasury announcement. There is no legal limit on the interest rates for securities to be repaid in less than five years.

Short-term interest rates normally are lower than those for longer borrowings. But Wednesday's bids put the short-term rate nearly one-half per cent above the present legal maximum for bonds.

The actual rate of 4.728 per cent compared with 4.05 paid in May for the last one-year offering. It is the highest since a 5 per cent rate was paid on a six-month borrowing in 1921, and the largest for a one-year issue since June 15, 1920, when the Treasury paid 6 per cent.

The House committee gave Eisenhower less than he had asked, but it nevertheless opened the way for criticism from many who contend that an increase in government interest rates would touch off a spiral of higher interest costs for individual and business borrowers.

Jordan To Show His Detractors He Can Hit Hard

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Welterweight champion Don Jordan intends to show his detractors Friday night that he can punch.

Jordan, who won the title by a decision over Virgil Akins last December and successfully defended it against Akins, again by decision, in April, will take on fast, young Denny Moyer of Portland in a 15-round title bout.

"Most people don't think he can punch. But he can punch real good," said Don Nesseth, one of Jordan's managers. "Now in Moyer he is facing a real tough fighter. Moyer's strong. He's not going out the first time he gets hit. But we think Don will stop him somewhere between 10 and 15 rounds."

Jordan, working on a string of 10 straight victories, planned one final light workout today in preparation for the title bout, which will be on NBC television, starting at 9 p.m. EST.

Moyer, 19, has 20 straight victories since turning professional.

Nation's Leading Golf Pros Tee Off In Western Open

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hot, humid weather was in store for a star-studded field of the nation's top golfers today as the first round play in the Western Open championship was scheduled at the Pittsburgh Field Club.

A total of 124 professionals were going after $25,000 in prize money during the four-day, 72-hole tourney over the 6,617-yard course, which has a par of 35-35 — 70. Seven amateurs also are entered.

Favored is Arnold Palmer, the Ligonier, Pa., pro who won the Masters in 1958 and went on to become top money winner that year.

Dodgers Certain They'll Win Flag

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers are confident they can take the National League title away from the Milwaukee Braves.

Leading the optimistic chorus for the West Coast brigade were Coaches Pee Wee Reese and Chuck Dressen, a Dodger manager when the club was in Brooklyn.

"Sure we can win," declared Reese. "Why? Because we have the best pitching in either league."

Said Dressen, "If I had pitching like this back in Brooklyn, I'd have walked in."

The Dodgers are third, a half game behind the Braves who hold first place by three percentage points over the San Francisco Giants.

The Dodgers and Braves open a critical three-game series tonight, Danny McDevitt, 8-6, starting for Los Angeles and Joey Jay, 3-5, for the Braves.

U.S. To Pay Near-Record Interest Rate To Borrow

WASHINGTON (AP)— A near-record interest rate on government borrowing pointed up today the Eisenhower administration's contention it must be permitted to offer more for long term bonds.

The Treasury announced Wednesday night it will pay nearly 4⅝ per cent—the highest rate in 38 years—to borrow two billion dollars for a year. The rate was determined by bids.

The announcement came a few hours after the House Ways and Means Committee approved a compromise plan permitting President Eisenhower to set aside the 4¼ per cent interest limit which the law puts on bonds issued for five years or longer. The authority was limited to two years.

There was no direct relation between the committee's action and the Treasury announcement. There is no legal limit on the interest rates for securities to be repaid in less than five years.

Short-term interest rates normally are lower than those for longer borrowings. But Wednesday's bids put the short-term rate nearly one-half per cent above the present legal maximum for bonds.

The actual rate of 4.728 per cent compared with 4.05 paid in May for the last one-year offering. It is the highest since a 5 per cent rate was paid on a six-month borrowing in 1921, and the largest for a one-year issue since June 15, 1920, when the Treasury paid 6 per cent.

The House committee gave Eisenhower less than he had asked, but it nevertheless opened the way for criticism from many who contend that an increase in government interest rates would touch off a spiral of higher interest costs for individual and business borrowers.

Jordan To Show His Detractors He Can Hit Hard

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Welterweight champion Don Jordan intends to show his detractors Friday night that he can punch.

Jordan, who won the title by a decision over Virgil Akins last December and successfully defended it against Akins, again by decision, in April, will take on fast, young Denny Moyer of Portland in a 15-round title bout.

"Most people don't think he can punch. But he can punch real good," said Don Nesseth, one of Jordan's managers. "Now in Moyer he is facing a real tough fighter. Moyer's strong. He's not going out the first time he gets hit. But we think Don will stop him somewhere between 10 and 15 rounds."

Jordan, working on a string of 10 straight victories, planned one final light workout today in preparation for the title bout, which will be on NBC television, starting at 9 p.m. EST.

Moyer, 19, has 20 straight victories since turning professional.

Nation's Leading Golf Pros Tee Off In Western Open

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hot, humid weather was in store for a star-studded field of the nation's top golfers today as the first round play in the Western Open championship was scheduled at the Pittsburgh Field Club.

A total of 124 professionals were going after $25,000 in prize money during the four-day, 72-hole tourney over the 6,617-yard course, which has a par of 35-35 — 70. Seven amateurs also are entered.

Favored is Arnold Palmer, the Ligonier, Pa., pro who won the Masters in 1958 and went on to become top money winner that year.

Dodgers Certain They'll Win Flag

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers are confident they can take the National League title away from the Milwaukee Braves.

Leading the optimistic chorus for the West Coast brigade were Coaches Pee Wee Reese and Chuck Dressen, a Dodger manager when the club was in Brooklyn.

"Sure we can win," declared Reese. "Why? Because we have the best pitching in either league."

Said Dressen, "If I had pitching like this back in Brooklyn, I'd have walked in."

The Dodgers are third, a half game behind the Braves who hold first place by three percentage points over the San Francisco Giants.

The Dodgers and Braves open a critical three-game series tonight, Danny McDevitt, 8-6, starting for Los Angeles and Joey Jay, 3-5, for the Braves.

House Vote Due Next Week

Governor's Labor Reform Bill Heads For Showdown

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's labor reform bill is headed for a showdown vote in the Ohio House next week.

House speaker James A. Lantz (D-Fairfield) said today every effort would be made to bring the beleaguered measure to an early test.

The House Elections and Federal Relations Committee Wednesday night recommended passage by a vote of 11-5. Four Republicans joined seven Democrats in casting just enough votes to get the bill out.

The measure, carrying prison terms for officials convicted of using union funds for their own purposes, had languished in committee since June 29 when majority Democrats failed to muster enough votes for recommendation.

With 13 Democrats on the 21-member committee, the bill got only nine favorable votes at that time. Six Republicans and four Democrats voted no.

DiSalle blasted Republicans for refusing to help Democrats at that meeting. When GOP members later offered enough votes to recommend passage, the governor accused them of stalling until too late for the measure to clear both Houses before working sessions end.

Other charges and countercharges between chairman Andy Devine (D-Lucas) and committee members flew thick and fast.

In an 11th hour attempt to prevent a committee vote on the bill Wednesday night, AFL-CIO counsel Howard Metzenbaum of Cleveland appeared at the hearing. He asserted any vote on the measure would be improper because of actio at the June session. The committee rejected his claim.

The committee also recommended passage of Senate - approved proposals to create an Ohio Water Commission replacing the Ohio Water Resources Board and to encourage mock elections in schools and colleges.

The House Metropolitan Areas Committee Wednesday night recommended passage of a bill to revamp congressional districts in Cuyahoga County and the 11th and 19th districts in northeastern Ohio.

Committee chairman James P. Kilbane (D - Cuyahoga) said the four districts in Cuyahoga County were changed to equalize populations. He explained that the horseshoe-shaped 23rd District, created in 1951, would be changed to resemble a wedge. Based on Newburgh Heights, the wedge would point toward Cleveland.

Republican George H. Bender won election in 1952 as the first congressman from the new 23rd District, still regarded as a GOP stronghold. Republicans now represent the 22nd and 23rd districts and Democrats the 20th and 21st districts.

Another proposed change would place all of Trumbull County in the 11th District. At present, the southern part of the county below Warren is in the 19th District with pre - dominently Democratic Mahoning County.

Besides the northern portion of Trumbull County, the 11th District now includes Portage, Geauga, Lake and Ashtabula Counties and is represented by a Republican.

The House Judiciary Committee recommended passage of a proposal to ban use of plastic clothing bags if they tend to cling to skin and endanger life by suffocation.

ICC's Prepared For Testimony On Rail Disaster

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — With the death toll now at 23, the Interstate Commerce Commission prepared today to hear testimony on what might have caused the rail disaster June 28 at Meldrim.

The hearing seeks an explanation of what caused the derailment of 17 Seaboard Air Line freight cars on a trestle over the Ogeechee River near a crowded recreation area.

Included in the crackup were two tank cars loaded with butane. Seventeen persons died on the spot when the gas exploded. Six others died later.

The 23rd victim, Phillip D. Carpenter, 31, of Pooler, died Wednesday. His son, Charles, 14, died of burns the day after the disaster.
